Rev. Carlsen To Be Married In China

Friends here received the following word from Rev. Wm. D. Carlsen in China:

"On October 11th, Miss Dorothy Northcott and myself announced our engagement. Wedding plans are progressing as rapidly as is possible in a land that is on the verge of political and economic collapse. If conditions permit "Bonnie" (the young lady's nickname) will be flying from Shanghai on December 6th and six hours later be stepping off the plane in Lanchow Kansu. From there a one-day jeep ride and three-day mule trip will take her to Labrang, where the third largest monastery in Tibet is located. At our Alliance mission station across a small stream from the monastery and Tibetan trading village, we will "become one" on the last day of this year."
