Stockholders Of Andover Bank Meet

The annual meeting of stockholders of the Andover National Bank was held in the directors room of the bank Tuesday afternoon.

A. D. Fuller, president, in his report, reviewed the business for the past year and stated that about 100 per cent of the total deposits of nearly $1,400,000.00 was in cash, U. S. Government and municipal obligations; thus placing the bank in a very strong position.

He also stated that total profits since organization were upwards of $95,000.00 and that $58,000.00 had been paid to stockholders in dividends.

The stockholders voted to retire $25,000.00 of the capital stock which would leave the bank about $145,000.00 of capital funds or $10,000.00 more than when the bank was organized in 1934.

Erwin D. Baker, Frank W. Burrows, Everett N. Clair, Samuel B. Crandall, A. D. Fuller and Jesse S. Phillips were elected as directors for the ensuing year.

Following the stockholders meeting the directors elected:

A. D. Fuller, president.
Erwin D. Baker, vice president.
John C. Lever, cashier.
R. O. Snyder, assistant cashier.
Anna Richardson, bookkeeper.
Emma Tucker, bookkeeper.

Green—Perry

Miss Thelma Grace Perry, daughter of Mrs. Earl Perry of Andover and Wade Mitchell Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Green of Wellsville were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony Saturday evening at 7:30 by Rev. Guy M. Ovenshire at the Methodist parsonage in Wellsville.

The bride chose a street length dress of aqua and black trimmed with sequins and wore a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Howard Slocum was matron of honor. She wore a pale green street length dress with brown accessories and a corsage similar to the bride's.

Howard Slocum was best man for Mr. Green.

The groom's mother chose a black street length costume with black accessories and wore a white carnation corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony a dinner was served to 14 guests at the Belvidere Restaurant.

Mrs. Green attended Andover Central School and was formerly employed in the Steuben Silk Mills here. The groom attended Wellsville High School and is at present employed in the Allentown oil fields.

Mr. and Mrs. Green will reside in Wellsville.

Appreciation

I wish to express my appreciation for the cards, gifts and other remembrances sent me while in the hospital.

The group inducted on January 4 was originally called for December 17, but postponed until that date because of the holidays. The January 10 group was the regular January call.

Father Dies

James J. McKinley, 79, father of Mrs. Robert Harkenrider of Andover died early Sunday morning, January 9, 1949.

He was born at Rexville, the son of Gilbert and Mary Ann Kennedy McKinley and had been a lifelong resident of that section.

Besides the daughter mentioned above he is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Fred Pettibone of Hornell and a brother, Edward McKinley, also of Hornell.

The body was at the James B. Mulholland Funeral Home here until Wednesday morning, when services were held in St. Mary's Church at Rexville at 10 o'clock, the Rev. Clary officiating, with burial in St. Mary's Cemetery, Rexville.

News Briefs of Local Servicemen

John M. Padden is home, having been discharged from the Army on January 2nd.

Lloyd Clair has enlisted in the Army Ordnance for two years and David Roeske in the Regular Army, both leaving Saturday for Camp Pickett for training and assignment.

Frank L. Perrin re-enlisted in the Regular Army last month.

Fassberg, British Occupied Zone, Germany.—Pfc. Joseph A. Yannie, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Yannie of Andover, was commended recently for his excellent work in the Vittles Airlift by Air Marshal Sir Arthur P. M. Saunders, Vice Chief of Staff for the Royal Air Force.

Pfc. Yannie is a ground controlled approach (GCA) operator for Airways & Air Communications Service, and as such handles "blind landings" by radar at this Vittles air base.

Sir Arthur's unsolicited commendation read in part:

"I have been most impressed by the remarkable effort yesterday on 'Operation Planefair' in which no fewer than 276 GCA landings were made within 16 hours. I think this breaks all records for the intensive use of GCA, and I congratulate all concerned on this splendid achievement."

The AACS men—most of them ex-officer pilots, took this as a rare compliment as the RAF makes extensive use of GCA, and uses only officers as final controllers.

Diplomacy is the ability to take something and act as though you were giving it away.

Andover Firemen And Auxiliary To Hold Bazaar

Annual Meeting Of Presbyterian Church Held

Following the morning services on Sunday, the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church of Andover enjoyed a fellowship tureen dinner at which 72 were present. The annual business meeting of the church followed over which Rev. W. W. McCall, D.D., of Hornell, moderator, presided.

The reports of the treasurers of the church, Sunday school and King's Daughters all showed that a great deal of activity has taken place for the betterment of the church, both materially and spiritually, and all pledges and indebtedness have been paid with generous balances remaining on hand. The church has also paid in full, its quota for the Restoration Fund.

A great deal of credit is due Rev. A. N. Rogers, the stated supply pastor, who has so ably served the church for the past four years. His untiring efforts and helpfulness in every respect have been deeply appreciated, and the desire was unanimous that he continue to serve as pastor of the church.

The four elders whose terms have expired, Almon M. Wood, R. J. Sootheran, Mrs. Emma Tucker and Mrs. Bertha Hardy, were reelected for terms of three years and also two trustees, O. J. Whitaker and Richard Harder were reelected to succeed themselves.

R. J. Sootheran was elected to be superintendent of the Sunday School, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Almon Wood, who has served most faithfully for the past eight years.

Robert Baker was elected as Sunday school secretary and treasurer in place of Miss Frances Baker, who has also been very faithful in that office for several years.

Dr. McCall addressed the meeting briefly, expressing his pleasure regarding the reports and with helpful suggestions and a benediction dismissed the meeting.

Memorial Books Placed In Andover Free Library

The following books have been placed in the library through the gifts of John P. Herrick of Bolivar and Los Angeles, in memory of Hamilton C. Norris, who established the Andover News in 1887, and was an active member of the Allegany County Press Association:

Windus—Mead

Miss Doris June Mead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd J. Mead of 213 E. State St., Wellsville, N. Y., became the bride of Robert Vincent Windus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Windus of Belmont, in a quiet ceremony performed at the Christian and Missionary Alliance Church in Wellsville, at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Jan. 8, 1949. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harold C. Hill, pastor.

Only members of the immediate families were present at the ceremony.

Mrs. Harold C. Hill, church pianist, played the traditional wedding music.

Immediately preceding the ceremony, Rev. Hill sang, "The Lord's Prayer".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a green wool suit with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Miss Betty Jean Hanchett, the maid of honor, chose a brown suit with brown accessories. Her corsage also was of gardenias.

Donald C. Windus was best man for his brother.

Mrs. Mead, mother of the bride, wore an afternoon dress of black print crepe with maroon accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

The groom's mother wore a black crepe afternoon dress with black accessories, her corsage being of red carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Windus left on a motor trip for New York City and other points East. Upon their return they will live in their new home on East State St., Wellsville.

Mrs. Windus, a graduate of the Millard Fillmore Hospital School of Nursing, is employed at the Jones Memorial Hospital, Wellsville. Mr. Windus is employed by the Allegany County Soil Conservation Dept.

The Misses Coretha Mead of Binghamton and Dorothy Mead of Rochester were out of town guests at the wedding.

Always a good Investment—U. S. Bonds.
