Wood.—A few loads of wood is a good deal at this office just now.

All subscriptions not settled by the 1st of December, will be charged $2 per year. We are about adding several hundred dollars in material to our office, and other wise making improvements upon our paper, and we must have that which is due us.

Almost sleighing.
 Weather quite cold.
 One week from to-day is Thanksgiving.

The ground is frozen hard and lots of potatoes rotting.
 We are able to report several of our sick horses convalescent.

Don't fail to read the new advertisement of Mrs. J. B. Martin's.

A splendid Black Alpaca at J. J. Harman & Son's, for 27 1/2 cents per yard.

Don't fail to read the new advertisement of Peter VanSickle in another column.

If you want a good looking and a first class Parlor Coal Stove, call at Porter & Barney's.

A Jamestown man claims to have made one hundred axes in seven hours and twenty minutes.

A fine assortment of different colored Velveteen (for dress trimmings) at J. J. Harman & Son's.

Attend the school examination on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. You will be well paid for your trouble.

Thanksgiving services will be held at the Methodist Church. Sermons by Rev. Benjamin Russell. See notices elsewhere.

Drops in following the epidemic in New York, and proves fatal in about one half the cases. The poor horses are having a hard time of it.

We are in hopes that our business men will comply with a request made in the Thanksgiving notice, and close their respective business places on that day.

Rochester has 15,497 children in attendance at the city schools and 23,221 children of school age. viz: between five and twenty-one years of age.

You can buy a Harness, or a Lap Robe, Buffalo Robes, Horse Blankets, at H. E. Miner's, cheaper than any other place in Western New York. Try him.

Coffee Party.—There will be a Coffee party at the residence of Robert Bandy, on Tuesday evening 26th inst. All are cordially invited to attend.

Some of our elder towns that bonded themselves for railroads during the last year will realize some of the benefits accruing thereof, in the way of paying taxes.

Remember that if you wish a good clean shaver, a stylish hair cut, that you can be accommodated at the new Barber shop opposite of Menzies Budy's.

Porter & Barney has the best assortment of Shell Hardware, Stoves, Mechanic's Tools, to be found anywhere, and he has adopted the motto, "not to be undermold."

The next meeting will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, May 6th and 7th 1874, in the Presbyterian Church at Andover.

C. P. Arnold, Secy.
 "Kinross Jim," the famous trotting horse, died last evening. Loss, $20,000. He had had the "epizootic" and recovered. He died in the inflammation of the bowels.—Herald's file Times.

The Allegheny County Sunday School Teachers Institute met at Richburg, Nov. 12th and 13th. The attendance was quite small, but it is hoped that those present were benefited by the exercises.

The Western Rural gives the following as the prices of common wool in New York City since and including 1861: 1861, 32 cents; 1862, 42 cts.; 1865, 70c.; 1864, 70c.; 1865, 65c.; 1866, 65c.; 1867, 45c.; 1868, 45c.; 1869, 45c.; 1870, 44c.; 1871, 45c.; 1872, 70c.

Thanksgiving Service at the Methodist Church on Thursday 28th inst. at 10 1/2 o'clock. A. M. Sermon by the Pastor of the Presbyterian Church.—Subject—Crime; its cause and cure. It is hoped and much desired that places of business will be closed during the hours of service.

We are pained to announce the serious illness of Deputy Sheriff Geo. Coon, who resides in this village. He has been confined to his bed for several days, and his disease is such (cancer in the side), that little hope is entertained of his recovery.—Plover's Register.

Some thief was so far regardless of the decency usually maintained by his class as to despoil the German Band of this place. Their treasurer was robbed last Saturday night of $108 which he had in his room at Schell's hotel, and which was the sum of their savings.—Louisville Times.

One of the one thousand patients or more who have been treated for the disease of dumbness at the Insular Asylum in Binghamton, N. Y., eleven-twelfths have been voluntary inmates. Its cures have averaged about 34 per cent. Of these admitted one-half had inherited the tendency to intoxication from intemperate parents.

N. B. If you are in search of a bargain in Dry Goods or Groceries, Doots or Shoes, take our advice and go to J. J. Harman & Son's. They keep constantly on hand the largest and best assortment of general merchandise to be found in Allegheny County, and at such extremely low prices, you are sure to purchase at first sight.

The Addison Advertiser, a Greeleyized Republican Sheet says: "Our forerunner, a vigorous young man, dropped the fourth page of our paper into the sink all in a heap, last week, then he preyed informed us that Grant was elected and that we could take off our coat and scamp up our own 'kip' for he was going west. He went and left us in the lurch, which is the curse of our fair issue this week."

DEAR READING.—In order to introduce the American Stock Journal into the hands of new readers, the undersigned publishers have put up 25,000 copies, in packages of 3 each, which they offer to send for 10¢ to all who enclose stamp to pay postage. As no three numbers contain over 100 pages of choice articles, valuable receipts, engravings of farm buildings, horses, cattle, sheep, dogs, hogs, poultry, pigeons, &c., we hope all our subscribers will send for it, also for a show bill and premium list, as splendid inducements are offered to Agents and subscribers. Address, N. P. Boyer & Co., Parkersburg, Chester County, Pa.

WATCH YOUR LITTLE ONE.—A bereaved parent sends this timely advice to parents through the Halley Standard. With my little one lying dead in death bed, I cannot help, through the medium of your paper, saying a word to parents: Watch your little ones. With diphtheria, do not expect them to be very sick until they are past all hope of recovery. A little soreness of the glands of the throat drooping at the mouth, loss of appetite for a few days,—then a twenty-four hour's struggle and all is over. Do not neglect any means or relax any effort during the first symptoms, until the appetite returns and they can eat without pain.

ALLEGIANCY WITH AN II.—We copy the following from the Attica News, a sprightly weekly, published by C. F. Meloy, who, not many years since, was engaged in the newspaper business in Cuba:

The railroad between Mount Morris and Allegheny Allegheny County, will be in running order by Winter.—Attica Times.

That reminds us. It is well known to many that for years Mr. Greeley was in the habit of remaining in the office and seeing his paper, the Tribune, to press the morning after election. On one occasion the election run unusually close and the returns were very conflicting. After working all night making up the returns as they came in and exciting the result in localities not heard from (Mr. Greeley has no equal in this line) he waited to see a copy of his paper before going to his home. The proofs had been carefully verified by him; the "forms" had been lowered to the press-room, and the huge engine was set in motion. Mr. Greeley stood at the rear end of the press, and when the "papers" threw off the first sheet grabbed it. Casting his eyes rapidly down the columns, he threw up his hand and shouted: "Run off the bills! Jim, bring me a bodkin!"

Home & d. Mackintosh has Gregory with an "H."

Good Prints for 10 cts. a yard at J. J. Harman & Son's.

A TRIAL OF 50 YEARS.—The New York Observer has passed through the ordeal, and starts out anew on the second fifty year with a larger list of readers and more numerous friends than ever. Such a steady course of prosperity is unexampled, and inspires confidence. We heartily rejoice in the great success of a paper which has always advocated those sound principles that underlie the foundations of society and good government. Orthodox in the true sense, both in Church and State, its influence is at ways good. We see its publishers propose to give to every subscriber for 1873 an appropriately embellished Julius Year-Book. Those who subscribe will have no cause to regret the step. $3 a year. Sidney E. Morse & Co., 37 Park Row, New York.

SCHOOL.—The Fall Term of Andover Free Graded School will close on Wednesday next. The regular Term Examination will commence on Monday, and continue through Tuesday and Wednesday. It is hoped that the parents of the scholars will attend during the whole of the examination, or certainly a portion of it. We have several times before urged upon the parents, the necessity of visiting the school and see for themselves the manner in which their children are being taught, and their improvement. We again appeal to them to attend on Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons. Don't allow business of any kind to detain you from attending. It is a duty that you owe your children, as parents. See to it that you do not neglect it.

Wellsville Correspondence.—The excitement of the political campaign has nearly passed away, and the people of Wellsville are settling down into their old habits of thought and action. Nearly all the Liberals have accepted the situation with good grace—the Democrats were never enthusiastic in the movement, and evidently did not care much how it went. A few of the Liberals feel too sore to laugh off their defeat, or except it with the spirit of Philosophers, but those are so few in number, that their bitter expressions and venal actions, only cause them to be despised by the sound judgment of the masses in their own party. The ministers are especially displeasing to them. The men who four years ago were happy in the thought that a class of conservatives, thinking men who were not politicians, were on their side, think now that Clergyman should not think or vote on politics.

At all, this conventional political excitement has its uses in the life of the nation. Thus, the present year has had more of bitterness in it than usual, and many things that had better not have been said, and many things that had better not have been said. But it is a usual for human nature to come to a moment, to seek something to break in upon the monotony of life—to get out of the every-day rut of life. This is punished by our political excitement. Business weighs less heavily upon us, a dollar is thought of less, and social influences are felt more at such a time. It is good for the health, if it does not become excessive. Many a person would die, if something like this excited the mind, quickened the circulation and stimulated the whole system into healthy action. A good chill-light procession may be better than pills or tonics, and a few cheers at a thrilling speech, be more invigorating than anything that the doctors can give us. But this is too large a subject for a simple letter. I will therefore close it with another thought.

A nation of freemen need political excitement. Stragglers from Europe, may think that in our political campaigns, there is great danger to the country. They do not understand us. It is simply the waking up of that patriotism that slumbers in almost every American breast. The masses of the people in either party are not affected by any desire for the spoils of office, but in that warm patriotism and love of country displayed at such times, lies the safety of our Republican institutions and the permanency of our Government. Nearly every one wishes to save or benefit his country, and although he may not judge correctly in the matter, the feeling of patriotism is nevertheless cultivated and developed by the exercise.

The people of Wellsville, like other places, will for the next few years seek mainly after the almighty dollar. May they be able to get in great abundance, and use it profitably.
