Diocesan Lay Retreat Movement To Be Expanded

Buffalo, Jan. 3.—The Most Rev. John F. O'Hara, CSC, bishop of the eight-county Catholic Diocese of Buffalo, today announced that the diocesan lay retreat movement will be expanded with the establishment of a new retreat house to be operated by priests of the Society of Jesus.

Gregory J. Deck

Bishop O'Hara also announced the appointment of Gregory J. Deck, owner of Deco Restaurants, Inc., of Buffalo, and prominent layman in Catholic circles, as chairman of the diocesan lay retreats committee.

Mr. Deck will invite outstanding laymen of the diocese to serve on the committee which will co-ordinate retreat activities among the laity and undertake establishment of the new retreat house.

Bishop O'Hara said additional retreat facilities are needed to relieve the overtaxed retreat house of St. Columban's Retreat League at Derby which accommodated 2,111 laymen in the past year.

"It would be edifying to know that eventually every lay person in the diocese who wishes to make a retreat will find accommodations," said the bishop.

A retreat consists of 50 hours of individual silence during which the retreatant devotes himself to prayer, meditation and hears a series of lectures. They are closed with the Papal Blessing. Usually they are made on weekends, Friday evening to Sunday evening.

Notice to Owners and Harborers of Dogs

Dog licenses for 1949 expired on December 31st, 1949. The 1950 license fee was due January 1st. Licenses so issued will cover the period from January 1st, to December 31st, 1950. Every dog must wear a tag of the current dog license year. A dog without such a tag is not protected by law and no action can be maintained for his injury or destruction.

An unlicensed dog may be seized and killed and the fact that a dog is without a tag is presumptive evidence that the dog is unlicensed.

Dog licenses must be obtained from the clerk of the city or town where the dog is harbored or kept.

License Fees: Male dog $2.25; female dog, $5.25; spayed female dog, $2.25.

No license can be issued for less than the full license year.

The owner of the dog who fails or refuses to obtain a license for the dog as required by law incurs a penalty of $10.00 and costs.

The enumerators of towns and the police departments of cities are required to prepare in January of this year a list of dog owners. The omission of the name of an owner from such lists will not excuse the owner from obtaining a license.

If you owned a dog last year and do not own one now, so advise the clerk of your town or city.

Dog licenses in the Town of Andover are issued by

F. S. POTTER, Clerk,

Income Tax Meetings For Farmers

Eight income tax meetings for farmers are announced by Ira Blixt, County Agricultural Agent. The meetings in this area will be held as follows:

January 10 at 8:00 p. m. at Whitesville Central school.

January 12 at 1:30 p. m. at Andover Central school.

Mr. Blixt said that there are several changes in filing and also considerations that farmers should be well acquainted with in filing their returns. At all of the meetings the complete method of filing will be discussed and a typical farm problem worked out.

The agent also stated that if any farmer had a special problem that they could contact the Farm Bureau office regarding it. Income tax bulletins and the necessary forms for filing are available at the Farm Bureau office in Belmont.

Mr. Blixt requested that all interested farmers attend these meetings because the filing of returns correctly and promptly is very important.

Purchases Property in East Valley

Hal W. Metzger recently purchased the former Cook farm on the East Valley road out of Alfred Station. He is a former radio executive and newspaperman from Cleveland, who liked this territory and has located in it. Mrs. Metzger will join him following the close of the school term of the Hathaway-Brown School for girls in Cleveland where she is an executive. Mr. Metzger is interested in astronomy, and is making plans to build a small observatory on his newly acquired hill.—Alfred Sun.

I HEREBY RESOLVE

By Mary Ellen Connor

Sunday marked the beginning of another year in everyone's life and with it will come life, death, marriage and many other important happenings.

As the new year gets started people all over the world gaze back across the preceding year and then make a list of what is known as "New Year's Resolutions."

It may be drawn up something like this: I, Joe Drake, do hereby resolve, on this first day of January, 1950: 1—To mind my parents. When they tell me to stay home evenings, I will, since they have lived one life and from their experiences I shall benefit.

2—To attend church on Sunday. When mother calls me in the morning I shall be ready in less time.

3—To be on time for school and other places where promptness counts. It isn't any fun to have to explain my tardiness to someone, especially when it is my own fault.

4—To get along better at home. If supper is a little late or my soup is a bit cold I won't be cross or mean about it. After all Mom had a tough day of it with all the housework and washings.

5—To do my school work faithfully. I can't expect to graduate if I don't work hard.

ACS MAKES NEW YEAR RESOLUTIONS

By Nedra Burrows

The students of A. C. S. are making resolutions to make a better year.

Strolling down the hall I ran into two senior girls, Frances Baker and Lois Honegger whom I asked if they had made any resolution. Frances informed me that she had resolved to write Marlin's daily letter 4th periods.

Maxine Filler and Gloria Clair were my next victims and Maxine said, "I resolve to get more sleep in 1950 so I won't be so sleepy in 51." Gloria blushed and said, "I resolve to keep my harem happy!

As Colleen McAndrew was just sitting in study hall twiddling her thumbs, I asked her what she resolved to do in '50 and her answer was that she was going to raise her history mark and stop biting her nails.

Franklin Cornish has resolved to raise his English marks.

Two more junior girls came by, Alice Bostick and Agnes Davis. Alice said she was going to keep up her perfect attendance as she has for the past three years. Agnes said she was going to stop chewing so much gum.

Ralph Howard said he was going to be a "good boy" from now on.

Mike Connor, another sophomore, said he resolves to beat Wayne Atwell into the geometry room just once.

Doris Burdick said she has resolved to mind her own business all year long.

Bev. Sutor has resolved to get more sleep in '50.

Phyllis Perry has resolved to concentrate on her work more and less on the boys.

Opal Tanner is going to stay in school nights and be a good girl!

CHIT CHAT

The girls at Mary Brown's New Year's Eve party enjoyed the company inside as well as outside.

We see Doris Burdick is flashing a new wallet around. (Could it be from John Atwell?)

Lois Ruger looks very nice in her Christmas togs.

Jo Ann Marsh is trying to concentrate on her geometry while we compose the Chit Chat.

We understand Bill Gorsuch enjoyed New Year's Eve and Ligouri Lynch got stranded trying to find his girl in the big city of Wellsville.

We wonder why Dale Pelton was asking what Mary Brown was doing Sunday night.

We notice that Margaret Daley charmed her boy friend in her new red skirt.

Mary Fowler has been deciding whom she is to marry in third period study hall. (Joe Lang of Cuba is the lucky guy).

We see Joyce Spicer was disgusted because she didn't go to the New Year's dance at Rumsey's.

We have a little flower in our room even if it is winter. (Neva Curry always wears a flower in her hair).

How did Doris Burdick get a puddle in her chair?

After the long vacation was over I returned to the halls of ACS to find that Barb Wintemberg had that old glow in her eye, meaning Bob Gorsuch was home on furlough.

Who is the mystery man to whom Joyce Linza has given her picture?

Yes, it is true that Joan Jackson is a driver now. So if you see her driving around watch out, she may run you down.

Maxine Filler is still going with that one and only Bill Simons. I understand they spent a very enjoyable New Year's Eve.

Teresa Joyce spent most of her vacation at home embroidering and entertaining visitors.

"Pat" Sackett went to Watkins for a week and also went to see the Mt. Morris dam.

Maxine Baker read three books, took in two shows (one which she had seen before), went calling had visitors, and enjoyed playing canasta.

Janet Hall also took in two shows, had visitors, and went calling.

Eunice Hall finished knitting her sweater, read two books, enjoyed a visit with her relatives and went to a New Year's party.

Danjaan Crandall went for a sleigh ride, ventured to Corning to a New Year's party.

Caroline Briggs remained at home, played canasta, went to a New Year's party and finished knitting her mittens.

Ruby Ordiway went to a New Year's dance and spent Christmas taking care of her new nephew.

Dick Hancock went to Penn Yan for Christmas.

Congratulations to Laura Mae Croyle for having a splendid birthday party Monday night.

Everyone is wondering if Dale Green and Charity Howland are still going together.

We see Gay Rogers and Eddie Harkenrider have finally decided to associate with each other again.

We see Marion Milligan and Ronnie Atwell gladly exchanged Xmas gifts.

REGENTS EXAMS TO BEGIN JAN. 23

Classmates, you all know we have mid-year exams and Regents to face every January, so most of us already are getting nervous just thinking about them. In fact, I got so worked up over my frustration about tests that I sat down and actually figured out to the second the time until exams begin at 9 o'clock a. m., January 23.

There are 20 days, 19 hours, 13 minutes and 11 seconds until exams start.

Since all Regents and mid-year exam marks go on the report cards, you and I must study hard to make a good impression on the family when the report cards are sent home. MM

NEWS REPORTERS HAVE RETURNED

The daily news reporters for the first week in January are Joe Smith and Gloria Clair who gather news from the school, local and world areas. Each morning at 8:54 they are on the air until 9:00. One of the main features of the news is the question box.

During the week of January 9-13 the reporters will be Donald Mulconery and Joan Jackson. Kenneth Nye and Betty Smith will be in the limelight January 16-20. Bob Dunham and Joyce Linza are sharing the honors during the week of January 23-27. Theodora Vankuren and Nedra Burrows are back again for the week of January 30-Feb. 3.

In case anyone is inquiring into what grade these students represent and what is the purpose here are the answers:

They are seniors who are doing these news reports as part of an English IV project.

ARE YOU SALLY OR SUSAN?

By Colleen McAndrew

When Sally pulls out the extension cord she pulls on the cord but Susan who plays safe firmly tugs on the plug.

Sally had a picture that needed hanging so she perched herself on a wobbly old chair and when the leg cracked they both fell. Calm little Susan carefully perched herself on a firm kitchen stool.

Sally doesn't bother to take the time to dry her hands before reaching for the light chain and does she get a shock! Susan would rather take more time and dry her hands on a soft towel first.

While Sally is carrying scissors she always has the points towards her but Susan always carries them with the points away from her so if she falls she won't injure herself.

Check yourself! Are you a thoughtless Sally or a thoughtful Susan.
