A lady of intelligence, of sound mind, and a resident of Athens, told prophesy that there will be an epidemic among the "children of men" after the epidemic disease, that will prove fatal to thousands.

Forty granite tepees were in San Francisco, and their number is steadily increasing. They favor the comma as a punctuation mark.—Barter-Journal.

Don't they fancy a full stop, Mr. Cooper?

The best antidote for the epidemic is to keep the egg well protected. In order to do that go to Treatwell's for your boots, shoes, overshoes, etc. Treatwell is a fair dealer, and keeps good goods and sells cheap.

A recent inspection of the railway suspension bridge over the Niagara, by engineers, has shown that the anchors and cables are both perfect as when last, nearly twenty-five years ago, the precaution against the weather is so perfect that the weather cannot operate on them.

An infant, child of John C. Wheeler, died on Tuesday morning. Another child of Mr. Wheeler's, while at play, swallowed a piece of a nail about a week ago, and has been in a critical situation since. We are happy to state that the child is now considered out of danger.

Every column of a newspaper contains from five to fifteen thousand drifting pieces of metal, the displacement of any one of which would cause a blunder or typographical error. And yet some people do claim remarkable smartness if they do not discover an error in a newspaper.

A water wheel is on exhibition in Aurora which is no larger than a watch, and yet will drive a path with no other motive power than city water. It will sit on a little bracket on the wall, like a gun motor, and drive printing presses, lathes, drills, and light machines generally, with ease.

Although the Cholera destroyed 90,000 people in Russia during the past year J. J. Harman & Son's custom has been upon the increase. They are receiving New Goods every week, and are never behind the times in style and prices. They have everything that you want in the line of Dry Goods and Groceries, and more.

Our friend, Dr. Henry Cole, is no more. He passed away peacefully on the 5th inst. Nov. 26, 1872, aged 72 years, after two months of painful suffering. He leaves a wife and five children to mourn his loss, five brothers, sisters, and other relatives. He was a well known citizen, and respected by all who knew him. His loss will be deeply felt by all friends, and his wife with crushing weight upon the loving hearts of his family circle.

The Cole family were all raised in Andover, their ancestors being among the first settlers of Allegany County.

MADE FRIENDS.—Through the kindness of Mr. Richard we were the recipients of a pair of beautiful Vases and a China Mountain Cup of the latest pattern. Mr. Richard has one of the best collections of Chinese Ware, Canton Ware, Silver Ware, and Japan that we have seen on exhibition in any shop west of the City of Elmira. The Vases displayed in the arrangement of his shop, he exhibited with great pride, and we were very glad to see Mr. Richard's Vases in the Johnson Block.

Rickon Stearns.—There is a large spot of blood upon the door-stone of York & Chamberlain's bank. A man with too great a load of poor whisky was passing along in front of the bank, when the stone above him flew up and took the fellow upon the head. Judging from the quantity of blood left he must have received a frightful wound.

An old lady, mother-in-law of Jacob Knoble, of this village, was found dead near her house in Shogon, on Monday last. She left the house for the purpose of getting a pail of water from the spring, and not returning, search was made, and she was found dead near by. She was 82 years old, neither fleshy supposed to have died from apoplexy.

We are sorry to announce that W. F. Jones, Esq., of this village is dangerously sick, and many fears have been entertained by his friends that he could not recover. He has been bleeding from his lungs very profusely.

At this writing, Thursday morning, he is reported as improving, with hopes of his recovery.

The Danbury News says: "A young man who went from this office two years ago, to gain a living in a distant clime, returned Friday night with a pair of side-whiskers."

We know of several young men in this place who we have seen with side-whiskers, and they have not visited any distant clime, either.

Another coincidence game was perpetrated upon an unsophisticated youth, on the evening of Wednesday last, just west of the station. The sharper approached the youth and showing him checks on New York, to a large amount, stated that he was out of currency and would like to borrow enough to get him through to the city, and when he arrived there he would find the money. Greedy, to show his kindness of heart offered to lend him the money. As a matter of course the sharper was very thankful, and made all kinds of good promises, and borrowed about $80 of the unsophisticated young man. Sharper left the train at this station, and the unsophisticated went on his way a sadder if not a wiser youth.

ALMOND.

Edwin Turner.—Edwin Turner, resident in the Baptist Church, last Sabbath.

A new society has been formed at the Academy, to improve the moral and religious condition of students that those composing the Irving society. One of its projects is the establishment of a reading room. Its name has not yet been pronounced.

The new washing machine invented and patented by our enterprising townsman, Mr. B. Stillman is undoubtedly without an equal in durability and simplicity, or a superior in its utility. It is now on exhibition at a large store by a firm organized for the purpose, composed of Messrs. Rawson & Hall. They will use the building formerly occupied as a Moving Machine factory.

Miss Ann M. Van Allen has resigned her position as a member of the Friends of the Academy. Her resignation is solemnly accepted by all. The students have presented her with a beautiful banner and ring as a token of their regard for her.

The teachers, students, and friends of the Academy enjoyed another sociable in the hall last Wednesday evening. This sociable was well attended by the students, and especially for their benefit. Their plea was this: "We poor students need some spending money; we need it badly; let us have a sociable so that we can get our merriment, and get some of the money to spend." The sociable was held and the collection taken. It has looked out that the students intend spending the money to the amount of $100. The proceeds of the sociable will probably take place before the year closes, and we do not have W. A. Allen, December 3, 1872.
