SITTING PRETTY

by Mary Ellen Connor

Sitting still and sitting pretty is harder than it sounds, since poise takes much practice. Carnegie's models spend a great deal of time studying it. The most important thing they must learn is to eliminate all unnecessary motions. A simple, easy gesture is always the most graceful one.

What I'm trying to suggest is that careless, ungainly postures and nervous little habits, besides being unpleasing to look at, are all too likely to turn your poise to poison. They can destroy in a flash the pretty picture you've toiled so hard to present. They can create all sorts of awkward situations. (Was it really an "accident" that the tumbler of water tipped over, or were you, perhaps, looking for disaster by gesturing wildly?) And, if repeated, such wild motions will drive the public wild. If you've ever watched a person wind a strand of hair around her finger for the fiftieth time or, while reading, stretch her gum constantly, you know what I mean.

If you're one of those persons who fidgets all the time or can't keep the hands still when they're empty, carry a purse or handkerchief. Many people do that.

Not that you're sentenced to spend the rest of your life thinking consciously of what your hands and feet are up to. If you make a deliberate effort now to work out a set of easy, graceful attitudes, they'll soon become inactive. Suddenly you'll be doing the right things without thinking.

Why not take a critical look at yourself in motion and yourself at ease and see what can be done to eliminate the distracting, unnecessary mannerisms? Remember, practice makes perfect poise.

J.V.'s TOP ALLENTOWN 38-17

by Dean Fisher

On the local hardwood last Friday night the Wildcats battled victoriously with Allentown, winning by a 38-17 score.

The Junior Varsity started fast and piled up an early lead with the half-time score being 25-7. Coach Witzel substituted freely in a game in which every Andover player saw action. The Allentown quint never stopped trying but the final score was 38-17 with them on the short end.

Dick Davis was high for Andover with 11 points and "Slugger" Slocum was runner-up with 6. Cole was high for the visitors also with 11 points and Bellamy was next with 3.

ROVING REPORTER

After much deliberation we found a question appropriate for this week's "Roving Reporter." The question of the week is, How can we improve our school spirit?

Barb Wintemberg says: First we can give more support to the team at games. Second, if each person would give as much support to the school as he thinks the next person should, we'd really have something.

Ken Milligan: Have more of the girls take an interest in the basketball games and other sports.

Colleen McAndrew: Do more yelling at the games and all participate in singing the school song.

Jack Wheaton: Give full cooperation and support when it is needed.

JoAnn Marsh: Be more considerate of others, and take part in more school activities.

Clyde Jackson: Get rid of the boys anti-girls club and get along together better.

ORCHIDS AND ONIONS

Orchids to Mary Fowler for being so faithful in writing to her soldier boy friend.

Onions to Don Mulconery for always forgetting to do his history and English assignments.

Onions to the students who are not studying for mid-year examinations.

Orchids to Dale Green for taking Charity Howland out after the game Friday.

Orchids to the yearbook staff for getting their work under way.

Orchids to Fran Baker for being such a "speed demon" in typing class.

Orchids to "Patty" Sackett for being the new "hello" girl.

Orchids to Anna Beil for cleaning the book shelves in room 222.

AROUND THE SCHOOL

DID YOU KNOW THAT:

Lois Ruger had her hair cut?

Janice Hall polished her saddle shoes?

Clarice Nye forgot to brush her teeth Tuesday?

"Pat" Sackett got a new pair of shoes?

Kent Harder is in a rut?

Maxine Baker has a nice cold?

"Jim" Jackson is a full fledged farmer?

Mr. Holden would like more hush-hush clubs?

Teresa Joyce can do the forward roll?

Old age is creeping up on Beverly Sutor?

"Bob" Dunham has a faithful little pest?

Maxine Filler is tired of canasta?

Marion Milligan has a "tag-along tooloo?"

Theron Burdick broke his goggles?

Nedra Burrows is our "sweater girl"?

"Joe" Smith is our "Guy Madison" of 1950?

Eunice Hall's team actually won two games at noon? EH

EXAMINATION RULES RELEASED

During the examination period, Jan. 23 - Jan. 26, high school students are to attend school only when they have have mid-term or regents examinations. No pupils will be allowed in the building or the gymnasium unless advised of a practice period by coach Witzel.

All pupils who remain in the building between examinations are asked to report to the library.

Regular classes have been scheduled for Friday, Jan. 27.

HASH WITH A MODERN TWIST

If you are in a hurry and want to fix something very appetizing, try some of this hash:

Open a one-pound can of hash at both ends and push contents out in one piece. Cut into four slices. Place on cool broiler rack and broil for three minutes from heat until brown on one side. Turn, top with slices of drained pineapple, brush with melted butter or margarine, and continue broiling until hash is heated through and pineapple is golden brown. Serve hot, with drained asparagus on toast.

ALLENTOWN DUMPS ANDOVER 56-42

by Dean Fisher

In a close, exciting tilt on the local hardwood last Friday night Allentown dropped the Panthers from the unbeaten in league competition by a 56-42 score.

Throughout the first and second quarters Andover stayed close to the Eagles but by aid of a tremendous height advantage Allentown pulled away from the locals to make the final score 56-42.

"Bob" Baker was high for the Panthers by dumping in 13 points and "Joe" Smith and "Effe" Dunham were runner-ups with 9 and 8 points respectively. Cady was high for the victors with 20 points and Jerry Glass was second with 17.

Mrs. Floyd Slocum, Reporter

Jan. 17—Mrs. Esther Dodge attended the Relief Corps meeting at the home of Mrs. John Lever at Andover Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis McAllister of Harrison Valley, Pa., were Sunday guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Halsey.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dodge and granddaughter Debra visited his brother Levi Dodge at Petrolia Sunday. They also called on Mr. and Mrs. Orson Babbitt in Wellsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Slocum of Trumansburg were Sunday guests of his mother, Mrs. Floyd Slocum.

Mrs. John Dodge attended the Ladies Aid meeting of the Baptist church at the home of Mrs. Everett Clair, in Andover Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Brown and daughter of Andover were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Halsey Sunday evening.

LECTURERS' program theme for 1950 has been announced as "Acres of Diamonds", from the well-known sermon of Russell Conwell. State Lecturer Florence G. Pickett, in choosing this for the theme, intends that we should look about us in our own homes and communities for the hidden wealth that merely needs cultivation.

Following Sister Pickett's conference in Washington with National Lecturer Holter and representatives from nine eastern states, she advises Pomonas and Subordinates that all contests will be carried forward this year as usual, including Highway Safety and Conservation Essay contests, Booster Night and Quartet.

We are particularly interested in the Publicity and Program Book awards, after seeing the splendid display of entries at State Sessions. We were impressed with the value of compiling a running account of the year's activities with newspaper clippings and other data. We know that among others your local papers would be surprised with the results.

LEGISLATIVE letters from brother Ken Fake have begun again, coincidental with the opening of the State Legislature in Albany, and will continue to keep us informed throughout the sessions. As we have pointed out before, this work is done in the interests of all farm people, and the letters contain a wealth of material for study and discussion in each Grange. Put your legislative committee to work right away keeping your Grange posted at every meeting the next few months.

Letter No. 1 has to do with the Governor's opening message, with particular emphasis on farm and agricultural affairs. Remember that a well-informed Grange member is a better citizen.

N. Y. S. Agricultural Society is holding its 118th annual meeting in Albany this week. The oldest organization of its kind in the country the session and banquet are always of interest to farm folks in the state. Three Century Farm Families are to be honored this year, with citations presented by Governor Dewey. Dean William I. Myers, Senator Irving Ives and John H. Davis, of the National Council of Farm Cooperatives are featured speakers, according to an announcement by president Earl B. Clark.

their heads in their books busily getting ready for mid-year examinations.

Birthday congratulations this week go to Gary Burdick of the kindergarten, Lloyd Hollenbeck and Karen Stocking of the first grade, Dickie Baker and Billy Woodruff of the second grade and Lyndon Goodridge of the fourth grade. Gary treated his class to cupcakes, Dickie treated with ice cream sandwiches and Billy treated his room with Dixie cups.

In Mrs. Corwin's kindergarten Gail Wightman entertained her cousin Claudette Corwin overnight recently.

The kindergarten pupils have red workbooks from the "Learning to Think" series which they are enjoying.

In Mrs. Connor's first grade the pupils are beginning to learn how to spell.

Sylvia DuBois is now living in Independence and Merton Gennug's parents visited in New York City recently.

Congratulations to Mrs. Carmody's second graders! They have had perfect attendance for the past week.

The class made booklets about animals in their reading book and clay men for their village.

Mrs. Tompkins' second graders are learning number names from 11 to 20.

Claude Riffle went to Bliss over the week-end.

Dickie Baker brought in a farm which he received for Christmas. How the children have enjoyed it!

Beverly Smith's side of Mrs. Helmer's fourth grade is ahead in the snow man building contest in spelling.

Miss Baker's fourth graders are studying Indian life in social studies.

Miss Baker's fourth graders are studying Indian Life in social studies.

In Miss Church's fifth and sixth grade the Notre Dame spelling team defeated Michigan by 25 points. The losing team will treat the winning team Friday.

We are sorry to hear that Earl Eccleston of the fourth grade, Charles Loescher of the sixth grade, David Kemp, Carol Eshenbaugh, Gary Rosintoski, Ruth Padden and Harold Perry of the first grade and Lou Loescher of the kindergarten are absent.

WILDCATS EDGE ALFRED-ALMOND

by Bob Baker

The Andover Wildcats took their fourth victory of the year at the expense of the Alfred-Almond J. V.'s here Tuesday, January 10. In the previous meeting this year Alfred-Almond won by a 35-23 score.

The locals moved out to a lead in the second quarter after a very close first period. During the third quarter the sharp shooting of Hancock and Fisher moved the locals out to a large lead but Alfred-Almond rallied until time ran out.

Fisher and Hancock had 17 and 11 points respectively to lead Andover scorers, while Preston had 12 for the locers.

Notice to Owners and Harborers of Dogs

Dog licenses for 1949 expired on December 31st, 1949. The 1950 license fee was due January 1st. Licenses so issued will cover the period from January 1st, to December 31st, 1950. Every dog must wear a tag of the current dog license year. A dog without such a tag is not protected by law and no action can be maintained for his injury or destruction.

An unlicensed dog may be seized and killed and the fact that a dog is without a tag is presumptive evidence that the dog is unlicensed.

Dog licenses must be obtained from the clerk of the city or town where the dog is harbored or kept.

License Fees: Male dog $2.25; female dog, $5.25; spayed female dog, $2.25.

No license can be issued for less than the full license year.

The owner of the dog who fails or refuses to obtain a license for the dog as required by law incurs a penalty of $10.00 and costs.

The enumerators of towns and the policg departments of cities are required to prepare in January of this year a list of dog owners. The omission of the name of an owner from such lists will not excuse the owner from obtaining a license.

If you owned a dog last year and do not own one now, so advise the clerk of your town or city.

Dog licenses in the Town of Andover are issued by
