Andover Legion Team Takes Three More Games

Both Andover Legion basketball teams kept up their winning ways last Wednesday night on the Andover Central School court by trouncing Scio in the preliminary 52-32 and Whitesville in the nightcap 69-31.

The Legion preliminary team played one of its best games of the season by taking an early lead and making a very good percentage of their shots. Andover was led by Leo Fulkerson who had his best night this year, tossing in nine field goals and one foul shot for 19 points. "Bill" Gordon was high for Scio with 14 points.

In the night cap the locals got off to a very slow start, the score being tied at 21-21 at the half. Ainsworth, who scored 15 points in the first half was held by Carl Witzel to two points in the last half, Whitesville only scoring 10 points in the last half.

Witzel was high for Andover with 16 points and Ainsworth led Whitesville with 17 points.

This was Andover's 13th victory of the season and the 12th straight.

Andover Downs Angelica 59-50

The Legionnaires ended their Angelica court jinx and took undisputed possession of second place by trouncing a strong Angelica five 59-50 on the Angelica court Monday night.

Angelica, who has "Joe" Nasal the six foot six inch former Canisius College ace who tossed in 34 points were just completely outfought by the Andover five.

It was Carl Witzel, Andover's high school coach, that left a packed house breathless with his sensational midcourt shooting and expert ball handling which kept Andover in the lead throughout the game.

It was a hard fought game with 45 foul shots being attempted. Andover made 7 of 19 attempts and Angelica 12 out of 30, both a very poor average.

Andover's domination of the backboards proved the margin of victory. All five men were driving on both boards and getting most of the rebounds.

Evidence of a hard fought battle was six men leaving the game on personal fouls, four Andover men and two Angelica. The locals now have the amazing record of 14 wins, 13 in a row, as against one defeat.

The teaming is boasting around a 68-point a game average with the scoring divided up between all the players, sticking to the theory that it takes five men to win a ball game.

"Joe" Nasal was high for the evening with 12 field goals and seven fouls for 31 points for Angelica. Witzel and John Fisher had 19 and 18 points respectively.

Cuba to Play Here February 15

Andover meets the first place Cuba Legion team on the Andover court next Wednesday, February 15. Cuba is undefeated in league play and a win for Andover will put Cuba and Andover tied for first place. Andover's lone loss was to Cuba the first game of the season.

There will be a preliminary game before the Cuba game, the Andover Legion preliminary team will face the strong Boangda team from Wellsville who now hold first place in the Community league in Wellsville. The Legion preliminary team have won five and lost one this year.

Local Scouts Win In Contest

Andover Boy Scout Troop 42 attended the "Can You Do It" contest held at the Wellsville High School Monday night. Robert Grossman and Charles Loescher won first place in the "prepare for camping" contest.

Mrs. C. B. Blowers

Mrs. Lottie Blowers, whose death was chronicled in last week's News, was born in Greenwood June 20, 1867, a daughter of Lucien and Clarinda Parshall Brundage and died in Andover Wednesday, February 1, 1950.

She was married December 25, 1891 to Claude Byron Blowers. They lived in Perry for about 30 years before moving to Andover.

Surviving are her husband; three daughters, Mrs. Claude Page and Mrs. Hector Yette, both of Andover, and Mrs. Bernice Page, Rochester; one son, Claude B. Blowers, Jr., Perry; one sister, Mrs. Frank Langworthy, Plainfield, N. J.; four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Blowers was a member of the Andover Baptist church and the Woman's Relief Corps.

Services were held Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the Andover Baptist church, the Rev. Carl Maxson officiating, with interment in Hillside cemetery.

Plans Complete For Scout Drive Starting Friday

Final plans are being completed this week for the opening on Friday of the Seneca Council Boy Scout Campaign in the Southeast District. The goal for the Seneca Council area of Allegany and Cattaraugus counties has been set at $32,000.

The following workers in Andover have been named by Louis Joyce, local chairman:

James Backus, James Mulholland, Dr. J. Robert Common, James Burgett, Francis Vickers, Clifford Howland, Mrs. Clifford Howland, Kearby Hames, Kenneth Alvord, Murlyn Conde, Robert Smith, Robert Ennis, Mrs. Fred LaForge, Douglas Whiting, George Sackett, Robert Phelps, Sylvester Pelton, Niles Sherman, Donald DeRemer, Louis Joyce.

Scouting in this area has made tremendous forward steps during the past few years and those responsible for the program are anxious that the necessary funds be secured for further expansion.

The house to house campaign will get under way tomorrow in Andover and surrounding communities. Persons planning to contribute are asked to be ready when the solicitor calls.

A Scout official said today "Our Scouting program already has a remarkable record, thanks to the generous support of all citizens. But the work must go on and to carry on requires finances. There are 4,000 boys in this Council area. We want to reach them all. They must not be denied the privileges of Scouting and it is your financial help which will bring them these privileges.

"Scouting is counting on you and we know that you will want to be a friend of Scouting."

A Cub Scout window is being displayed at the Folsing Store and a Scout window at Baker's Hardware.

News Briefs of Local Servicemen

Word has been received that Pvt. Ronald Clark landed in California Sunday from Japan. He expects to be home in about a week.

With Eighth U. S. Army in Tokyo, Japan: Promotion of private First Class Donald K. Northrup, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Northrup of Andover, was announced by the Commanding Officer of the 13th Signal Company, to the grade of Corproal under the army's new adopted career plan. Corp. Northrup is assigned to the Message Center as a crypotgraphic clerk.

Corporal Northrup entered the army in July 1948. He attended signal school at Fort Monmouth where upon completion, he was assigned overseas duty. He sailed for Japan in March of last year to become a member of the 1st Cavalry Division.

Clare Jackson Is Commended for Work at Fire

What could have been another major fire at the Sinclair Refinery last Thursday night was averted by the prompt, efficient action of Clare Jackson, operator of a solvent dewaxing plant and his men, according to W. B. Chenault, general manager of the Wellsville refinery.

Mr. Chenault said Mr. Jackson and his men were starting up the dewaxing unit about 7:30 o'clock when a tube apparently pulled from the header of the pressed oil heater. Oil pouring into the firebox of the heater flashed and started the 45-minute blaze. An estimated 20 to 25 barrels of charge oil fed the flames before they were extinguished.

Mr. Jackson and his crew were credited with putting the live steam fire fighting apparatus into operation in the dewaxing plant as well as in the adjacent buildings housing the pump room, filter room, chilling room and refrigeration plant.

Commending the crew, Mr. Chenault said "they did a very excellent job of following the outline prescribed to take care of such a situation. They did everything possible, very promptly to prevent what could have been a major fire. Because of their actions, the fire was only a minor blaze," the general manager disclosed.

Library News

Have you read all the following books which can be found at your Andover library?

"Autobiography of Will Rogers". Donald Day has selected the best of the writings of Will Rogers, which were actually recording his life. Many of Will's comments on the American scene are remarkably applicable today, and some are strangely prophetic.

"Seven by Chance," by Peter Levin. Sketches of our seven vice presidents who entered the White House because of the death of their predecessors, with estimates of their careers. The author's emphasis is upon the interplay of men and events — events whose starting point is coincidence.

"River to the West," by John Jennings. An exciting story of an untamed wilderness and one man's ruthless ambition to conquer it; of another man's unwise love and a woman who felt bound to no man.

"Tobias Brandywine" by Wickenden. A novel about an American family, warm, humorous, substantial.

"Gus the Great," by Thomas Duncan. In this novel is the tremendous life story of a newspaperman, showman and promoter on a grand scale. Much of the story is of life in a city in the midwestern farm belt.

Barber Shop Quartet Coming Here February 25

On Saturday evening, February 25 the Andover Grange will bring to the Andover Central School a group of singers who will entertain and thrill the music lovers of this vicinity with their beautifully blended harmony, that will bring back memories and songs of the nineties through to the present songs of today. This type of harmony, known throughout the country as barbershop harmony, is a type of harmony that originated in our own country and sung as only a true barber shop quartet can sing them.

This group of men are known internationally by the organization they represent. It is the "Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, Inc.", one of the most democratic societies in the world. It is composed of men from all walks of life, doctors, lawyers, senators, supreme court judges, mayors, farmers; grocery clerks and others and not to exclude the most famous Harry S. Truman, President of the U. S., a very good member.

It was started in 1938 by Owen C. Cash of Tulsa, Oklahoma, an attorney who invited 14 friends to his home to a peaceable assembly and an evening of quartet singing, and to his amazement 50 men appeared to take part in the singing. From this group of men the society has grown so that today it has over 30,000 members and over 400 chapters in the United States and Canada which makes it truly international.

Mr. Cash wrote that "the aim of the society was to safeguard the last remaining vestige of human liberty, guaranteed by the bill of rights that hasn't been limited in some way." That was the birth of S.P.E.B.S.Q.S.A., and its fine barber shop quartets that followed.

You must hear these quartets to appreciate what has been done in quartet singing, and once you hear your favorite songs done in truly beautiful barber shop style it will make you want to join in and sing.

The slogan of the society, "Keep America Singing," has done much to induce people to forget their burdens of everyday life, and help them to complete relaxation with a night of harmony such as the Andover Grange will present on the 25th. Don't miss this "Night of Harmony." Your friends will thank you too, if you will remind them of it.
