Holiday Thoughts.

The Holidays are close at hand. First, bright, happy Christmas, the day which gave a second birth to the Savior of the world, and a day on which all hearts are overflowing with joy and the festivity; although the joy of many in our midst shall be greatly saddened by thoughts of the poverty and want surrounding them, which debars them from giving full indulgence to their natural impulses on this festal day. But those whocan do so, give their spirits unbridled license to enjoy the fleeting moments are they pass into Eternity. How happy were spent those sunny Merry Christmas' in the Long Ago. The reunions, where dear friends met to enjoy a few hours' congeniality, and those delightful sleighrides by moonlight, when toll never be paid by the girls and received by the boys at every bridge. We look back at those happy days, each like an oasis in the desert of life, and then turn from the view with a sigh that they can never come again.

And then too, come New Year's. Gold made this day. Of that there can be no doubt. One might submit the question to the village council, and they would not smother the remnant of their religion by a decision in the negative. The spirits are freer on this day than usual, the pulse beats quicker and we seem to have taken a new lease of life. It is a day for brushing up old acquaintances and forming new ones. On this day we stand as it were between two lives, and even while we are enjoying the Present, Memory will turn backward, and wander far down into the dim vistas of the Past, lingering here and there to cull a few happy hours spent with those we so dearly loved, or sweet mementoes stored in other places, and with those there came a gushing of heartfelt gratitude to — which will be carried in the heart till death. But though the mind may be occupied by these retrospective thoughts for a time, it cannot long remain so, for the Present seeks us back, and Pleasure holds us its drink of the cup she holds to our lips, and give ourselves up to the merry, merry phrenzy of the occasion. Hope, too, most delusive, yet most charming of the Graces, calls our attention to the future as with a light touch, she paints in glowing colors the "Yet to Be."

Many a Merry Christmas, and Happy New Year to all.

Bigamy.

About three weeks ago, Mr. Leonel Davis ran away to Wellsville with a Miss Perkins, of this place, and went before Justice Blackmun, and was married. Mr. Davis then having one wife living in this village. The father of Miss Perkins was absent in New York at the time. Mrs. Davis came home the next day without the company of her husband, but told no one of what had transpired. Upon the return of Mr. Perkins some two or three days afterwards, he was informed of what had taken place, and immediately offered a reward of fifty dollars for, and went himself in search of his new son-in-law. A warrant was placed in the hand of deputy sheriff Wolcott, and a diligent search was made for the soo-much-married man. On Sunday night Jude Thompson returned with the little gentleman, and delivered him over to the proper officer. He was taken before Justice Easterbrook. The renowned gentleman waived examination, and for want of bail in the sum of $1,000, was committed to jail to await the sitting of the next county court.

Christmas Eve.

There will be the usual interesting entertainment given by the M. E. Sabbath School on Christmas Eve. As always has been in the past, so we may expect at present, a good time. No pains will be spared to make it a treat to all interested in the Sabbath School cause. Exercises of a literary character will commence at seven o'clock, consisting of Recitations, Essays, Singing, etc., after which a beautiful Arch on which the presents will be displayed, is to be relieved of its burden. Come and enjoy a pleasant time. All wishing to use this opportunity to give presents are requested to bring them at an early hour on Tuesday.

Fire.

On Friday of last week, at about 11 o'clock in the forenoon, Mrs. Burrows' house, on Main street, just north of the railroad, was discovered to be on fire. The Alarm was given, and in a few minutes a large number of people were on the spot. The fire took from the pipe near where it entered the chimney, between the upper joists and the rafter in the roof. Water being handy the fire was subdued in a short time, and with but little damage is estimated to be $145. Fully insured.

Pretty Good.

One day last week, while a Justice's Court was in session, a little girl was called upon the stand as a witness, and one of the Attorneys requested that she be placed on her oath, and then the Justice asked her if she understood what an oath was. In answer to the question whether she understood the nature of an oath, she said:—Any one that disregards an oath turns their back upon Heaven.

Dancing Party.

Remember the Dance at Ellis' Hall, on Christmas Evening.

This is just the time to guard against fires.

Saving Coal.

By saturating your coal pile with tar water you will triple its heating power. This is one of the most bold devices practed by the English poor in the present scarcity of coal.

Read This.

If you want a good daily paper subscribe for the Elmira Advertiser. It will furnish the news one day earlier than any other paper you can get. Leave your order for subscriptions at this office.

M. H. Mourhess.

We would call the attention of our readers to the splendid stock of Jewelry for Christmas Presents, on exhibition at the Store of M. H. Mourhess, in the Post Office building. If you wish to make a nice Holiday Present there is the place to make your purchases at very reasonable figures.

Porter & Barney.

We would call the attention of everyone to the advertisement of Porter & Barney, which will be found elsewhere in the paper. They have without exception, the best stock of Shelf Hardware, Tin Ware, Stoves, &c., that can be found, and they are offering them at much lower prices than the same articles can be purchased for at any other establishment in the county. Examine their stock and prices.

Frozen to Death,

An elderly lady, named Lancaster, residing with her daughter and son in-law at Shongo, in this county, went out one cold day last week to get a pail of water from a neighboring spring. Not returning in good time, the daughter went after her, and found her lying near the spring, frozen stiff and dead. It is supposed she slipped and fell while at the spring, and not being able to rise, was chilled into the sleep of death.

Turkey-ish.

A Glens Falls editor makes the confession of high living: "Our Thanksgiving turkey was a fine bird; it had scales on its back, and we taken from a barrel labeled No. 3. Mackerel."

We are not very familiar with "No. 3. mackerel," but we did not know before that they had scales on their backs. We fear, however, that we will be compelled to visit that barrel for our Christmas turkey.

Benton & Crandall.

We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the stock of Holiday Goods at Benton & Crandall's. They have a fine display of Silver Ware of the very latest patterns. It will pay you to call and examine it whether you purchase or not. They have a very fine assortment of Albums, Ladies' Fancy Boxes, Books suitable for Holiday Gifts, and Toys of every description to please the children. They have also a fine lot of lamps of most beautiful designs. Don't fail to call and examine their stock before purchasing elsewhere.

Rochester Evening Express.

We are in receipt of several copies of the daily issue of this valuable and interesting paper. We did not receive its Prospectus for the new year, or we should have published it for the benefit of our readers in this vicinity, but we will now say that the Express is one of the leading dailies in Western New York. It is a staunch party paper, and for general news, market reports, etc., it is up to the highest standard. It is ably edited, and constantly increasing in popularity. When the R. N. & P. Railroad shall have been completed, which we believe will be at no distant day, the people of this section will receive mails direct from Rochester, and the Express will give them the very latest news as soon as any daily. Terms of Daily, $7 00; Weekly, $1 50.

The Aldine.

This beautiful Magazine is truly the representative work of its class. The publishers have labored hard and incessantly to bring the Aldine to its present state of perfection, and it is their intention to render it still more beautiful and attractive. As the publishers truly say "It has been reserved for The Aldine to inaugurate a movement that shall mark an epoch in the history of Art." In a few years, valuable Chromos will illustrate volumnes of the most ordinary cost, and the influence of true art will be felt in the humblest homes. We have received the two elegant Chromos "The Village Belle," and "Crossing the Moor," and they are truly gems of art. The publishers announce that they have on hand a sufficient number of Chromos to supply a large subscription list, and that in any event they will supply all dues with the February number. Try it a year.

A baptist brother, not many miles distant, on going into the water to be baptized replied to the suggestion that he had better take his pocket book out of his pocket during the ordinance, "No, I want my pocket book baptized with me."—Elmira Advertiser.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company have receded from its recent decision to diminish the premium rates.

In Williamsport they run saw mills on the Sabbath day, and the Bulletin raises its hands in horror at the desecration. Rum mills are also in operation on the holy day, but no remedies are suggested to punish them.

A brakeman named White, fell from the cars at Harrick Centre, Pa., Erie railway, and was run over by a pusher, cutting one leg and one arm off, from which injuries he died the next day. His remains were taken to Smithport, Pa., for burial.—Elmira Advertiser.

The Elmira Advertiser is responsible for the following: "An absent minded man entered Weller's store the other day and wanted his boy measured for a pair of boots. 'But where is the boy?' said L. 'Thunder,' said the man, 'I've left the boy at home. I'll go bring him,' and he started for his house, two miles away."

Escape.—A telegraphic dispatch on Friday announced the escape from Sing Sing prison of the notorious Robert Hapgood, chief of the Perry bank burglars,—the desperate and dangerous character who was sent from here to Auburn two years ago. He or "his friends" in New York had influence enough with the authorities to secure a transfer from Auburn, for the purpose of escaping. He nearly regained his freedom once before, and is probably now back to his old haunts. Hays, one of his companions, was pardoned out some months ago, and shortly thereafter died of consumption.—New Yorker.

Country people always know live merchants by seeing their names in papers frequently. The names of constant advertisers are like household words in the rural districts.

Mr. Berry, the Division Operator at Elmira, was presented with a magnificent service of silver by the operators of the Susquehanna Division, on Wednesday evening of last week.

West Union.—A man named Higgins, and a boy named Cornwell, were scoring timber in this town last week. The boy was scoring behind Higgins and accidently struck Higgins on the fleshy part of his hip, cutting a gash seven inches in length, not serious however.—Advocate.

The Wellsboro Democrat says: "A gold mine has been discovered within thirty miles of Wellsboro. Specimens of the ore have been tested by physicians in this village. It is of crystalized gold bearing quartz, and is rich in the precious metal. The party who made the discovery will prospect the mine.

The Batavian insists that "Sawmillers," or those persons who insist, when riding in the cars, upon keeping their windows open, to the annoyance and discomfiture of the other passengers, ought to be provided with platform cars to ride on." But what ought to be did with the leather-lunged chaps, who like to sit in a car so thick with burnt up air and the "smells of humanity," that the atmosphere could be eaten with a spoon, and who dread a breath of fresh air as the devil is said to hate holy water?

The Cattaragus Republican says: "A Historical Society ought to be formed in this county. Much of the pioneer history of the county will be lost if some such organization does not collect it ere the early settlers are taken away by death." Ditto in Allegany, say we.

The following is interesting to people living in towns along railroads:

"The Supreme Court of Massachusetts has decided that firemen while quenching a fire, have a right to lay their hose across railroad tracks, and if the hose is cut or damaged by passing trains, the railroad company must pay for the property consumed for want of the hose so destroyed."

A Boston paper pertinently suggests that if ladies must wear tall hats surmounted with feathers, laces, and other ornaments at concerts and theatres, they should take them off during the performance as men do their "stove-pipes." We would amend the suggestion by proposing that if they must wear tall pyramids of hair surmounted with braids, puffs, etc., they also take them off during the performance.

The New York Standard has been revived as a two cent Sunday paper, the first number appearing on Sunday morning last. The editorial management is to be in the hands of Mr. St. George, formerly of the daily Standard, who will be assisted by Mr. Allen Schultz and Mr. Gillet. The intention is to make the Sunday Standard a family paper of pure tone and character, filled with interesting sketches, notices of passing events, lively paragraphs, literary miscellany, and all the elements of a cheerful, readable paper for the Sunday fireside. Success to it.

Market Report.

New York, Dec. 16th.

Flour is moderate, with less call for lower grades. Superfine and good No. 2 are in more active demand and irregular.

Superfine	$5 60 @ $6 10
State, Extra	6 25 @ 7 00
Choice Spring	7 75 @ 8 30
Ro Flour, State	5 75 @ 6 50
Meal, State, bbls	3 20 @ 3 90
" Western	3 20 @ 3 50
Buckwheat, State	4 00 @ 4 25

Wheat.—Winter wheat is not being offered to any extent, holders are confident. The Market closed very dull and very quiet. The want of freight room greatly retards business.

Chicago Spring	$1 55
Red Western	1 80
Michigan White	2 05
State White	$2 00 @ 2 10

Rye is quiet at 90 @ 95.

Hay.—The market is quiet at $1 10 for shipping; $1 40 for retailing lots.

Straw is in good demand and firm at $1 80; Oat Straw, 90 @ $1 00.

Pork is steady, but less active; buyers are only packing for present wants, at the following prices:

Old Mess	$14 00
New "	$13 87 @ 14 00
Prime	11 50

Wool.—The market is quiet and nominal unchanged. Domestic are in light stock. Fine Wool are in moderate request. Pulled Wool are in good supply, at about 37 @ 42; unwashed 30 @ 32.

Receipts for the week, 14,593 packages, or 5,107 less than last week. With these lighter arrivals while the demand continues very good, the strong tone of last week continues and we make the bulk for up 1852 c. Dealers are disappointed in not getting the Fall make of Western, that being used up at home. This throws the trade almost wholly upon State, and the question is as to whether it will carry them through. One or two shipments have been made from here to Germany, and now we find a German house taking 200 packages low grade at 10 @ 11 c., to send this week. In the excitement of the present market there is a possibility that the out of town buyers will load up and so draw off, while receipts are likely to increase, and they may have a lull soon, but dealers do not anticipate a decline. A good, healthy trade is coiled for. Choice State dairies have been sold at 26@28 c., a fine Welsh at 42 this cutting at 32@c., with selections of half tubs at 2-@30c. A lot of Canadian, but seldom sold at 28c. Fine Western rolls are scarce and have a good inquiry. Sales are made at 25@26 c., with a lot half bbls Michigan at 30c., very fine.

Poultry and Game.—The supply of dressed poultry is large just at present, and demand moderate. This causes a heavy, dull market. There is considerable speculation as to the prospect for the holidays. The demand will undoubtedly be large, but whether farmers will send in freely, or remember in low poverty they did for Thanksgiving, hold back, is entirely problematical. Some Canada stock is arriving. Game birds are in fair supply, and only such sport. Some poor lots of geese sold at $1, with soft quail at same price. Most sales of sound quail were at $1 75—a few reaching $2. Venison is not plenty, but large lots are on the way. Several black bears sold at 20c.

Potatoes are dull, prices ranging as follows:

Rose, bbls, $2 50 @ $2 88; Goodrich, $1 75 @ 2 00; Peach Blows, $2 75 @ $3 25.

Beware of Counterfeits!!

JOB MOSES' SIR JAMES CLARKE'S FEMALE PILLS

are extensively counterfeited. Dishonest Druggists endeavor to sell the counterfeits to make a greater profits. The genuine have the name of Job Moses on each package. All others are worthless imitations. The genuine Pills are admitted in the cure of all those painful and dangerous diseases to which the female constitution is subject. They moderate all excesses and remove all obstructions, from whatever cause.

TO MARRIED LADIES

they are particularly suited. They will in a short time bring on the monthly period, with regularity; and in this respect are powerful, causing nature back to a healthy action. In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, Pains in the Back and Limbs, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysterics and Whites, they will effect a cure when all other means have failed. The circulars around each package give full directions and advice, or will be sent free to all writing for them, sealed from observation.

N. B.—In all cases where the genuine cannot be had, $1 00 will be forwarded to the Sole Proprietor, JOB MOSES, 18 Chatham St., New York, with name & address of the patient, containing Fifty Pills, by return mail, securely sealed from any observation of the contents.
