William Joyce Cows Have High Record

Brattleboro, Vt., Feb. 3.—Sylvdale Nell Montvic Pietje, a registered Holstein-Friesian cow owned by William F. Joyce of Andover has completed a 345-day production test of 538 pounds of butterfat and 15,073 pounds of milk made in Herd Improvement Registry. She was milked twice daily and was three years seven months old when she began the test period.

During the last test year, the 14-cow herd of registered Holstein-Friesians owned by Mr. Joyce produced an average of 437 pounds of butterfat and 12,275 pounds of milk in the official Herd Improvement Registry program. Milking was done twice daily and testing was supervised by Cornell University in cooperation with the national Holstein headquarters.

Faisant Brothers Honored in Depew

Ernest X. Faisant and Julian A. Faisant of Albert Godde, Bedin, Inc., were honor guests recently at a dinner tendered by the company employees of the Depew silk mills.

Ernest X. Faisant retired on January 1st after 53 years in the silk business. He had served as superintendent of the Depew mill since January 23, 1934. Mr. Faisant will still continue his connection with the company as a technical adviser.

He is succeeded by his brother, Julian A. The latter is the fourth member of the family to be superintendent of Albert Godde, Bedin, Inc. The first was their father, John B. Faisant, who came to Depew after the mill was built in 1917 by the older son, John H., who had been in charge at the Andover mill from 1910, and who later took over the Depew mill.

Both Ernest and Julian Faisant are known to many Andover residents.

Legion Wins Three For 16th Straight Game

The red hot Andover Legion basketball team took three wins this week to make their record 16 victories, 16 straight against one defeat.

Last Wednesday night the highly tooted St. Bonaventure Bombers, a team made up of stars all over the state came to town.

It was one of the most exciting games seen on the local court this year. Andover won 50 to 48. Karl Witzel, taking a pass from "Jim" Burgett dropped in the winning basket as the final gun sounded. Witzel led the locals with 20 points. Scully was high for the visitors with 17.

In the preliminary Andover took a strong Belmont team 52-42. Leo Fulkerson again led the locals in scoring with 15 points. McQueen was high for Belmont with 14.

Last Thursday night the boys journeyed to Bath, taking the Bath Legion for the second time this year, by a score of 57-47. Gorsuch and Lynch were high for Andover with 14 and 11 points respectively. Brundage was high for Bath with 12.

Tuesday night the team went to Friendship where they won their eighth straight league game 45-35. It was a low scoring game. Andover not being able to get used to the Friendship court.

Witzel led Andover with 12 points and Hanks was high for Friendship with 16 points.

Andover meets Wellsville next Friday night on the local court.

All the proceeds of the game will go to the Boy Scouts, they need your help. There are 4,000 boys in this Council area, so attend this game and do your part to help.

Baker—Miller

Miss Betty LeClare Miller, daughter of Mrs. Ruth E. Miller of 104 Olean street, Bolivar, and the late Joseph B. Miller, was united in marriage to John O. Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Baker of Andover at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, February 4. The double ring ceremony was performed before lighted candelabra in the living room of the bride's home by the Rev. Victor W. Skaggs of the Seventh Day Baptist church of Little Genesee. The couple's attendants were Miss Jean L. Lewis of Alfred Station and Joseph F. Collins of Obi.

The bride's dress was of ice blue tissue faille with deep rose crushed velvet belt. Her corsage was of white roses. Her attendant wore a dress of navy blue tissue faille with a corsage of pink roses and white hyacinth. The bride's mother wore brown moire taffeta; the groom's mother chose a gown of gray crepe. Both wore gardenia corsages.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for 65 guests. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake with miniature bride and groom, flanked with white tapers tied with green ribbons in silver candlesticks. Guests from out of town were from Olean, Portville, Little Genesee, Richburg, Wellsville, Andover, Almond, Alfred Station, Buffalo, Friendship, Nile, Perry, N. Y., and Shinglehouse, Pa.

After a wedding trip to New York the couple will make their home in Bolivar where both are employed by Ferris & Forbes, Inc.

Mrs. Baker is a graduate of Bolivar Central School and attended Westbrook Academy in Olean. Mr. Baker is a graduate of Andover Central School.
