

Local Intelligence

Advertisement. The order of Good Templars in this place are in a very flourishing condition, never better. They are initiating new members at every regular meeting. Let the good work go on.

Chamber and Societies. M. E. Carter, Rev. D. D. Cook, Pastor, Services every Sunday at 10 A. M. Sabbath school at 12 P. M. Free meeting each Thursday evening at 7 o'clock.

Bring home that wood. Good wood to-day at 1 1/2. Good time just now to repair sidewalks. They are sawing wood again at the depot.

Everything looks favorable for a lively trade this spring. Drawing of Juries will take place at Belmont on Saturday next.

Another change in the weather is in the air, with a prospect of snow. An act extending the time for collecting taxes has passed the Senate.

LOCALS FROM OTHER COUNTRIES

Coal has fallen eighty cents a ton in this place. A Farmer's Club was organized at Little Valley, last Thursday.

Johnny Steele ("Old John") runs a meat market at Jamestown, Pa. On the night of the 18th inst., a paper mill in the town of Elkhart, Pa. burned and the proprietor, Mr. Debitzinski, perished in the flames.

A meeting of the Masonic fraternity was held at Port Jervis recently to take steps to form a Masonic Relief Association. The Association will be known as the "First Masonic Relief Association."

We are glad to learn that Congress has invited the European powers to send representatives to the Centennial Exposition in Philadelphia. Not to have done so would have been a disgrace in the extreme.

William A. Johnson, of Collins Center, Erie Co., manufactured a quarter million dollars worth of cheese, the last year. He controlled the business of the county and was the richest manufacturer in the state.

LOCALS FROM OTHER COUNTRIES

Coal has fallen eighty cents a ton in this place. A Farmer's Club was organized at Little Valley, last Thursday.

Johnny Steele ("Old John") runs a meat market at Jamestown, Pa. On the night of the 18th inst., a paper mill in the town of Elkhart, Pa. burned and the proprietor, Mr. Debitzinski, perished in the flames.

A meeting of the Masonic fraternity was held at Port Jervis recently to take steps to form a Masonic Relief Association. The Association will be known as the "First Masonic Relief Association."

We are glad to learn that Congress has invited the European powers to send representatives to the Centennial Exposition in Philadelphia. Not to have done so would have been a disgrace in the extreme.

William A. Johnson, of Collins Center, Erie Co., manufactured a quarter million dollars worth of cheese, the last year. He controlled the business of the county and was the richest manufacturer in the state.

LOCALS FROM OTHER COUNTRIES

Coal has fallen eighty cents a ton in this place. A Farmer's Club was organized at Little Valley, last Thursday.

Johnny Steele ("Old John") runs a meat market at Jamestown, Pa. On the night of the 18th inst., a paper mill in the town of Elkhart, Pa. burned and the proprietor, Mr. Debitzinski, perished in the flames.

A meeting of the Masonic fraternity was held at Port Jervis recently to take steps to form a Masonic Relief Association. The Association will be known as the "First Masonic Relief Association."

We are glad to learn that Congress has invited the European powers to send representatives to the Centennial Exposition in Philadelphia. Not to have done so would have been a disgrace in the extreme.

William A. Johnson, of Collins Center, Erie Co., manufactured a quarter million dollars worth of cheese, the last year. He controlled the business of the county and was the richest manufacturer in the state.

LET THE KITE FLY!

READ! READ! READ!

BURROWS & YOUNG,

OF THE CASH EMPORIUM

Have purchased the stock of G. B. Herrick, Grocer. But where's Herrick? "You bet" Herrick has tendered his services for one year to the CASH EMPORIUM for BUSINESS.

Former friends and Patrons of Mr. Herrick are invited to give him a call, and he will soon convince you where it is policy to do your trading. The Grocery department will always be found full and complete. CASH paid for BUTTER and EGGS.

The Stock of Mr. H. will be transferred to the Cash Emporium and the other store closed to business until March 1st, 1874. Come on! BY. will stand ready to serve you.

The following offer is made for the next Thirty Days, to close out a large stock of

W-I-N-T-E-R F-U-R-S.

Table listing winter furs and their prices: Coney Sets, formerly worth $6 00 for $3 50; Alaska Stripes, 7 00 for 4 00; Siberian Squirrel, 13 for 7 50; Genuine Mink, 20 for 12; Children's Sets, 5 for 3; Ladies' large bertha, 6 00 for 3 50.

Cents' Muffler and Cloves, very cheap.

Fall and winter TRADE FOR '73 & '74

Go to the Cash Emporium and buy your Flour, a tin stock of all kinds at bottom prices. Smoked Hams and Shoulders at the Cash Emporium.

DENTAL. Through-out the city you can expect to find almost anything DENTAL kept in a General Variety Store.

No Trouble About Prices. The Best and Cheapest grades of FLOUR, PORK, SALT, FISH, ETC.

Operative AND Mechanical Dentistry. A charge which cannot fail to please! Charges in all instances, REASONABLE, and guaranteed as good as equivalent for the cost of country.

Gold-Fillings. Any work not proving satisfactory not good, but money will be refunded. C. B. RANDALL, Dentist.

Items of Interest. No better can sell better factory for a million 1/2 yard stuff can be found at the Banner Store.

Great Inducement to Cash Buyers AT H. E. MINER'S. Ten per cent off for CASH for the next thirty days.

TRUNKS. Or any thing in the harness line at the very lowest figures. Customers will always find a full stock of the following: HORSE BLANKETS, ARMY BLANKETS.

DRY GOODS, GROCERIES, BOOTS & SHOES, Hats and Caps. MERCHANDISE.

Moore's Rural New-Yorker. Rural, Literary & Family Weekly.

ABOVE THE FIRE. J. W. Fuller is the hardest kind of fellow out of business by an extraordinary stroke of good fortune.

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY. Bibles and Prayer Books, and the sum of $100 will be paid for any work or goods.

THE FARMER. THE HOUSEWIFE, &c. In the future no man will be spared under the paper indispensable to the Rural and Industrial Population of the country.

Money Not Refused! When Offered. CLOTHING. Special attention given to the clothing trade.

Jobbing Shop. In prices for the next thirty days. From now on, the price of goods will be 10 to 15 per cent lower than the price of the market.