

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE

Chatham and Societies. The Episcopal Church...

St. Valentine's day they after to-morrow (Saturday). The Methodist donation will occur Wednesday, February 25th 1874.

W. C. Knight is selling dry goods and groceries cheaper than any other man in the business in this section of the county.

Barrows & Young shipped from this station last week 10,622 lbs of dried apples, taken over the counter for goods.

Several foremen, bosses and other employees of the Erie railroad have been discharged for malfeasance in office by overcharging for labor and in many petty ways defrauding the company.

The Mansard roof with a cupola for ladies hats is one of the late styles. Ayring on front of business places will have to be removed for the benefit of the fair creature who perambulate our streets.

George Tibbitts, a well known engineer upon this Division of the Erie Railway, was badly injured by the breaking of a cable, while endeavoring to draw it upon the track, near Belmont.

W. C. Knight is selling dry goods and groceries cheaper than any other man in the business in this section of the county.

Barrows & Young shipped from this station last week 10,622 lbs of dried apples, taken over the counter for goods.

Several foremen, bosses and other employees of the Erie railroad have been discharged for malfeasance in office by overcharging for labor and in many petty ways defrauding the company.

request that she had never seen Mr. Tompson and that she had no recollection of being taken into the barn. Under these circumstances we cannot see why Mr. Tompson should hang himself, unless driven thereto by the fear of being punished for a crime he had not committed.

On Christmas day Mr. Daniel Halo of this town, received from Seth Green a package of salmon trout upon which he immediately placed in a large water tank in the machine shops at the Erie Railway depot.

The following singular advertisement we take from the last number of the Outlook Recorder: $1,500 WANTED—On first bond and mortgage on property situated in the village of Catskill, worth at least three hundred dollars...

On Christmas day Mr. Daniel Halo of this town, received from Seth Green a package of salmon trout upon which he immediately placed in a large water tank in the machine shops at the Erie Railway depot.

request that she had never seen Mr. Tompson and that she had no recollection of being taken into the barn. Under these circumstances we cannot see why Mr. Tompson should hang himself, unless driven thereto by the fear of being punished for a crime he had not committed.

On Christmas day Mr. Daniel Halo of this town, received from Seth Green a package of salmon trout upon which he immediately placed in a large water tank in the machine shops at the Erie Railway depot.

The following singular advertisement we take from the last number of the Outlook Recorder: $1,500 WANTED—On first bond and mortgage on property situated in the village of Catskill, worth at least three hundred dollars...

On Christmas day Mr. Daniel Halo of this town, received from Seth Green a package of salmon trout upon which he immediately placed in a large water tank in the machine shops at the Erie Railway depot.

request that she had never seen Mr. Tompson and that she had no recollection of being taken into the barn. Under these circumstances we cannot see why Mr. Tompson should hang himself, unless driven thereto by the fear of being punished for a crime he had not committed.

On Christmas day Mr. Daniel Halo of this town, received from Seth Green a package of salmon trout upon which he immediately placed in a large water tank in the machine shops at the Erie Railway depot.

request that she had never seen Mr. Tompson and that she had no recollection of being taken into the barn. Under these circumstances we cannot see why Mr. Tompson should hang himself, unless driven thereto by the fear of being punished for a crime he had not committed.

On Christmas day Mr. Daniel Halo of this town, received from Seth Green a package of salmon trout upon which he immediately placed in a large water tank in the machine shops at the Erie Railway depot.

The following singular advertisement we take from the last number of the Outlook Recorder: $1,500 WANTED—On first bond and mortgage on property situated in the village of Catskill, worth at least three hundred dollars...

On Christmas day Mr. Daniel Halo of this town, received from Seth Green a package of salmon trout upon which he immediately placed in a large water tank in the machine shops at the Erie Railway depot.

request that she had never seen Mr. Tompson and that she had no recollection of being taken into the barn. Under these circumstances we cannot see why Mr. Tompson should hang himself, unless driven thereto by the fear of being punished for a crime he had not committed.

NOTICE! Crockery offered for the next 10 Days at 10 per cent. Discount. On all purchases over one Dollar. We extend this offer in order to reduce the stock before its removal to the CASH EMPORIUM.

N. B.—This lot of Crockery is the stock formerly owned by G. B. Herrick.

Readers Wanted. The advertiser is a respectable...

TELEGRAPH. THE TELEGRAPH CO. OF NEW YORK.

THE HEAVENS AND THE EARTH. Tribune Extra No. 9.

DENTAL. I desire to express my thanks to the citizens of Andover for their liberal patronage during the past year.

GOOD NEWS TO THE Farmers in and around Andover. Old Hard Times has got His Head Broke in! P. VANSICKLE