Poetry.

UNFORGOTTEN DEAD.

By Mrs. J. N. Wilson.

No honor will we find in our lives...

We need faith, with grief and joy...

Our boys will tell, with grief and joy...

Many dear ones, which we daily prize...

And there's a sleep the sleep of death...

And there's a sleep the sleep of death...

And there's a sleep the sleep of death...

And there's a sleep the sleep of death...

And there's a sleep the sleep of death...

And there's a sleep the sleep of death...

And there's a sleep the sleep of death...

And there's a sleep the sleep of death...

And there's a sleep the sleep of death...

And there's a sleep the sleep of death...

And there's a sleep the sleep of death...

And there's a sleep the sleep of death...

And there's a sleep the sleep of death...

And there's a sleep the sleep of death...

And there's a sleep the sleep of death...

And there's a sleep the sleep of death...

And there's a sleep the sleep of death...

And there's a sleep the sleep of death...

And there's a sleep the sleep of death...

And there's a sleep the sleep of death...

And there's a sleep the sleep of death...
