VOL. XV. ANDOVER, N. Y., APR. 20, 1950 NO. 32

In order to compete with five other candidates for a position as editor and assistant editor of next year's Hi Herald, Dean Fisher conducted interviews, wrote all features, news stories, editorials as well as the leads, headlines and titles for all articles in this week's issue of the school paper.

SPRINGTIME

by Dean Fisher

Spring time is the most interesting time of the year.

Isn't this the time of year when our national pastime, baseball, begins? Isn't this also the time when the great and perplexing problem of cleaning the house is done?

The spring season is when a man's fancy is supposed to turn to thoughts of the feminine sex. In the spring the girls begin to get out their new clothes and walk about with them on. The grass begins to grow, the trees begin to bud, the sap begins to run and the ice breaks up and the streams are beautiful once more.

Another thing which can't be overlooked is the great problem of colds which are contracted because of clothes being taken off too suddenly.

No one certainly can doubt that spring is a wonderful time of year.

It is spring, the gayest and most beautiful time of year — The birds are singing, the grass [illegible] ning green, and the trees [illegible] beginning to bud; but watch your step because it is a very dangerous season also. The melting snow causes high water and people who are not rushed to safety may perish in a flood.

Children throw off their winter garments at the first sign of spring and catch cold. Many people have a great deal of fun fishing, but this is an excellent way to catch pneumonia if you get your feet wet.

So watch your step and take it kind of easy when you sniff the first balmy breezes of spring.

FINAL ASSEMBLY PROGRAM HELD

In the last assembly program of the year Bob Wood, talented artist, amazed and amused the students with his fine drawings. He drew good likenesses of George Washington, Abe Lincoln and Uncle Sam.

Mr. Wood had the auditorium in an uproar with his version of comic characters such as Blondie, Dagwood, and Dick Tracy.

HALL OF FAME

This week the senior who enters the Hall of Fame is a popular girl around the old ACS halls named Barbara Jean Wintemberg.

"Barb" was born June 5, 1932 at Pittsfield, Mass., and came to Andover in 1940 from Bath, N. Y. She now makes her home on West Center street with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Norris. Barbara has a brother Louis and a sister, Doris.

"Barb" has engaged in many activities since her entrance into high school.

She was a cheerleader for her first three years, in Library Council in her third and fourth years, assistant editor of the Hi Herald in the fourth year, in the F.H.A. in third and fourth years, in the Student Council in third year, class secretary and treasurer in the first year, and on the advertising committee of the year book.

Barbara also spoke in the oratorical contest in her third and fourth years. She took second place in this contest when she was a junior.

Her hobbies are knitting, dancing and writing letters.

This year she is taking English IV, business law, biology, typing I, and homemaking I.

"Barb" plans to attend Buffalo

Barbara Jean Wintemberg

State Teachers college to study for teaching the physically handicapped.

Her favorite quotation is: "Smile and the world smiles with you, cry and you cry alone."

"Barb's" philosophy of life is one today is worth two tomorrows.

NATIONAL LEAGUE PENNANT PARADE

by Dean Fisher

1—St. Louis: I pick the Cards to finish at the top because of the tremendous one-two punch of Musial and Slaughter, slugging ability of rookie Steve Bilko, and the pitching staff of Breecheen, Pollett, Munger, Brazle, Wilks and company.

2—Brooklyn: The Bums are in second because of their speed, fielding skill and all around batting ability. However, their pitching staff starts and ends with Newcombe and Roe.

3—Boston: In third we find the Braves who have new outfield strength, having acquired Gordon, Jethroe, and Marshall, but the loss of Stanky and Dark has shot their infield full of holes. They might climb higher if Spahn and Sain both come through with a good year.

4—Philadelphia: The fighting Phillies will round out the first division. The Phils have a great potential team with such young stars as Roberts, Kamner, Jones and Ashburn. Kintzelman, Borowy, and Seminick can't be expected to have another such fine year, but the Phils could also bear watching.

5—New York: The Giants will be battling to get into that first division, but the loss of such power men as Mize, Marshall, ~~Cooper and Gordon plus their~~ unstable pitching will make it difficult. The speed and skill of Stanky and Dark will be a big asset to the Durocher men however.

6—Cincinnati: In sixth place are the Reddys. If Blackwell can come back the Reds may be up among the first four with Big Coop behind the plate. A good pitching staff, a fair infield and a pretty good outfield. New manager Luke Sewell has a chance if he can instill new life in the Rhinelanders.

7—Pittsburgh: Billy Meyer's Bucs look like a seventh place finish because they are the not-so-proud owners of the poorest pitching staff in the league. Kiner, Westlake and Saffell present a fine outfield and the infield could be good if Murtaugh and Rojek can make a comeback.

8—Chicago: It's tough to pick a team last but the Cubs look like it. They must depend on too many young players and their pitching staff is very old and insecure. Handy Andy Pafko is a fine ball player, but that is where the Windy City team begins and ends.

17 STUDENTS RECEIVE HONORS

Seventeen pupils in the Andover high school were placed on the honor roll for the sixth marking period. They are:

First Honors: Pupils having an average of 90 per cent in three major subjects with none below 85:

Maxine Baker, Caroline Briggs, Dewalt Fowler, Gay Rogers.

Second Honors: Pupils having an average of 85 per cent in three major subjects with none below 80:

Mary Brown, Gloria Clair, James Conde, Ruth Curry, Maxine Filler, Eunice Hall, Janice Hall, Charity Howland, Thelma Mickle, Anita Nichols, Lois Ruger, Betty Smith, Joyce Spicer.

To be on the honor roll physical education, music and art marks must be passing also.

Busy in the Spring

"Pa, will you let me have a quarter to give to a poor lame man?"

"A lame man, Tommy? Is he a beggar? You know I do not approve of your giving money to beggers."

"Oh, no, papa, he's not a beggar. He works hard for a living."

"What does he do?"

"Why—er—he sells tickets for the circus."

VETERANS' News Letter

Area veterans who own or who plan to purchase real property may secure additional tax exemption, if was stated today by Raymond F. Shear, director of the Allegany County Veterans' Service Agency.

Mr. Shear cited a recent ruling by the State Board of Equalization and Assessment which provides that real property purchased with the "special dividend" paid by the Federal Government on National Service Life Insurance is entitled to exemption from taxation.

This means that veterans who use their NSLI dividend check towards the down payment of land or a home for their own use, or who use the money towards the reduction of their principal on the mortgage, may claim and obtain such amount for real property tax exemption purposes.

Veterans who use their NSLI refund check to make permanent property improvements are also entitled to claim this benefit.

Further, a veteran's wife, widow, dependent mother or father, or minor children are also eligible for this entitlement under the ruling.

Director Shear cautioned veterans to keep a record of the serial number of their NSLI dividend check and where the check is used toward the purchase or improvement was paid for out of money from the check.

The bank book and ledger would later serve as proof that such money was paid the veteran by the government and would help establish his claim for tax exemption with the local Equalization and Assessment Board.

Veterans, their dependents and next of kin may secure further information and assistance on this, and all other benefits, by contacting State Veterans' Counselor Richard J. Dzimian of the New York State Division of Veterans Affairs on Tuesday at the Allegany County Court House at Belmont.

Keep on buying Savings Bonds.
