A PROGRESSIVE FAMILY NEWSPAPER FOR ALLEGANY COUNTY PEOPLE — IN POLITICS INDEPENDENT BUT NEVER NEUTRAL

VOL. 65, NO. 17. For the Week Ending Thursday, April 27, 1950 $3.00 year; 7c copy

Local Diner First to Co-operate in Milk Program

The Bungalow Diner at Andover, operated by Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Prior, is the first restaurant in the county to cooperate with the "Milk for Health" program, according to Ira H. Blixt, Allegany County Farm Bureau agent. It all came about likt this:

A few weeks ago Herald Ford of Ford & Peckham of Andover, stopped at the Bungalow Diner for lunch. When ordering his dinner the waitress kindly suggested coffee as a beverage. This prompted Mr. Ford to discuss the milk situation with Mr. Prior, explaining that by suggesting milk rather than coffee, they would possibly increase the sale of milk, thus helping the main industry in this area, as well as his own business, as the profit on a tender glass of milk is more than on a five-cent cup of coffee.

Mr. Prior agreed to try the suggestion and the results were convincing. In the first week milk sales were up twelve per cent and three weeks later when Mr. Prior was interviewed, milk sales were up about one and one-half times. This was good business for the diner and for local dairymen, the diner getting a larger financial return and the dairymen having a greater market for their top product, fluid milk.

Mr. Blixt, in commenting on this experiment, said that in visiting a local store regarding the dairy situation that he also got some enlightening figures. The sale of oleo topped the sale of butter in that store by 66 pounds in a two-week period. The grocer admitted that if the "Golden Goodness of Butter" was personally pushed and advertised both in the store by store signs and nationally as was oleo the gap in sales between the two commodities could be greatly reduced.

Mr. Blixt also commended Mr. Ford on his interest and work for the dairy industry in this county. The old slogan we used to hear much oftener than of late "the prosperity of the businessman depends on the prosperity of the farmer" is still true in this area to a great extent.

Would you like milk, mister? This seems to be a tasty drink for the many truck drivers who stop at the Bungalow Diner.

Cub Scouts Hold Kite Flying Contest

The annual kite flying contest of the Cub Scouts made a colorful display Saturday afternoon at the athletic field. Robert Phelps was Master of Ceremonies and J. Robert Common, James Mulholland and Kenneth Alvord were judges.

Prizes were awarded as follows:

Box Kites
Craftsmanship:
John Common, 1st
Robert Conde, 2nd.
David Loescher, 3rd.
Distance:
Robert Conde 1st.
John Common,, 2nd.
David Loescher 3rd.
2 Stick Kites
Craftsmanship:
Charles Whiting, 1st.
Willian Slocum, 2nd.
Clarence Carson, 3rd.
Distance:
James Mulholland 1st.
Leo Alvord, 2nd.
Lee Storms, 3rd.

James Mulholland sent his kite nearly out of sight.

The prize for the most unusual kite went to David Loescher, the largest kite to Leo Alvord and the smallest to Dennis Joyce.

Sixteen Cub Scouts took part in the contest which gave the judges plenty to think about and a large crowd of spectators a good show.

Ann Marie Greene Receives Cap at Sayre

A very impressive candle light capping ceremony of the Robert Packer Hospital Training School for nurses at Sayre Pa., was held Sunday evening April 23rd at the Church of the Redeemer in Sayre at which Ann Marie Greene daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Greene of Andover was one of a class of 51 to receive their caps. A reception was held at the nurses home following the ceremony for parents and guests.

Stage All Set For Local Exchange Minstrel Show

Dear Friends and Neighbors.

It brings a bit of sorrow to our tired old hearts to think this is going to be the last column that we are going to be writing to you. As the show is Friday and Saturday nights we will have to sing our Swan Song with these words in this week's paper.

To begin with, we would like to thank all of you people for taking the good natured ribbing that we have been handing out, and we sincerely hope that nobody's feelings were hurt, as that definitely was not our intentions. We would also like to take credit for the publicity that we have given one certain person, and that is none other than "The Old Coon Dog of the Patch," F. E. Cable. Since last week's column, after reading the statements of his wife, he has been deluged from admiring women. We wonder if Mrs. Cable fully realizes how very, very fortunate she is, to be able to call Francis "her man". Just think people, you are going to see that self-made man in person at the minstrel show. That should be worth the price of admission alone.

During the past week we were fortunate enough to find another act for the show which we are sure that you are going to enjoy. And that is "The Dixie Land Band" made up of local talent. This home made talent is none other than "Paul Banker Kilbane" at the piano, "Murlyn Hot Lick Conde" on the drums, with "One Note Harrison," "Half Beat Huffcut," and Maestro McClure, "Honkin Holden" giving out with the brass, violins, wash tubs, mouth organs, flutes, zithers, and anything else they can find. They have had three practises and they wouldn't sound bad if they would all start at the same time. Better come up and hear them folks, because they might not be good but at least they will be loud, and I do mean loud.

Along with the Dixie Land Band, you won't want to miss hearing and seeing "Big Chuck" Holt doing the Minstrel Strut. As you remember, in past years "Big Chuck" has darned near lost his pants while singing his song. The boys in the circle are betting two to one that he will lose them on this Minstrel Strut that he does. He does just about everything but jump through a barrel hoop. If "Bud" Trowbridge can find the barrel hoop "Chuck" said that he would even do that.

"Ding" Baker and "Mike" will be as good as ever this year. "Mike" is going to give his rendition of "That Lucky Old Sun" and if you think that Billy Eckstine is good on it, wait until you hear our boy. Preceding this number "Ding" Baker is going to give a follow up of last years number with "Somebody Else, Not Me," and believe me folks, he'll bring the house down.

Our two newcomers to the end-men class, Holden and Milligan are going to do "Breakin In a New Pair of Shoes" and "Chattanoogie Shoe Shine Boy". These boys put both of these numbers over with a bang.

That old Black Face, Trowbridge is going to have a fight with the "Preacher and the Bear" and it's going to be interesting to see just who wins out. "Bud" has managed to keep ahead of them in all of the rehearsals, but he might slow down Friday or Saturday night. And as an added treat, you'll swear that we've got Al Jolson himself there on the stage when "Bud" does "Toot Toot Tootsie Goodbye."

Folks, if you add all of the above together, mix it with the several jokes and gags that we have got lined up, you'll find that it will amount to a very enjoyable evening. And for good measure we have talked "Muscles" Ennis into putting on a short skit. Oh yes, I nearly forgot, my old pal "Art" Genung. If he has the nerve to show up either night we are going to see that he is well taken care of too.

We have just received the latest word from Porter Richardson and Fay Brown and they assure us that the quaretette is red hot and rarin' to go. By the way folks, in case we haven't told you, this quartette is made up of Dick Potter, Jug Dunham and Earl and Johnny Richardson. They have promised us that they will either take tickets, act as ushers, or sing. Come on up and find out which they decide on. Regardless of which they decide on, they are still going to have to pay to get in.

Our only regret about the whole show is the fact that the offer from the telephone girls came too late for us to accept. We understand that they have been practicing a little dance for quite some time. Beah and Helen have been practicing on a duet of that popular snog "They Don't Answer, Do You Want Me To Keep Ringing". It's some sort of a Western ballad which calls for yodeling in two part harmony, and I understand that these two girls can do just that. Oh well, maybe they will offer next year a little sooner and we will be able to take advantage of their talents. In the event that you want to hear that song, just drop up to the telephone office and maybe Beah and Helen will oblige.

Well folks, Backus told me to leave enough space this week so he can put a few other articles in the paper so I guess that we have had it for another year. We'll be expecting to see all of you Friday or Saturday night and we'll guarantee you a good time.

Sincerely Yours,
"The Man With A Shovel"
