HAPPENINGS of Local Interest

According to a survey recently completed by Cornell University, the age of houses on the 183,000 farms in the eight states in the Northeastern section averaged 79 years.

Snow fell in Allegany county in March 1950 of 33.8 inches shattered a 60-year area record according to Dr. Paul Saunders of Alfred.

The daily oil production last week in the Allegany field was 9,422 and in the Bradford field 12,303.—Bolivar Breeze.

George B. Rooth, Jr., of Wellsville has been named a director of the Air Preheater Corporation. Mr. Rooth is the only Wellsville man on the board.

The total gross farm value of milk produced in New York state last year is placed at $366,955,000 according to a Department of Agriculture report. There was nine percent more milk produced in 1949 than in 1948 but a lower price sent the value down 12 per cent.

A total of 591,603 dog licenses were issued in New York State in 1949. This figure does not include New York City, which has its own dog licensing system.

Andover firemen were called out Friday afternoon to extinguish a grass fire on the M. V. Lynch farm on South Hill.

The Farmers' Museum and Fenimore House operated by the New York State Historical Association, at Cooperstown will begin their summer schedule Sunday, May 30. The two museums have been greatly enlarged this season.

New York's 48 Agricultural fairs drew 1,091,707 cash customers through their gates in 1949. Premium money paid by the fairs totalled $582,606.61. Most of the fairs, which includes the Allegany County Fair, were reimbursed by $10,000 from the state.

Fire of undetermined origin did an estimated $300 damage to the Sweet garage in Wellsville Wednesday morning.

Woman's Relief Corps

Edward Seaman Woman's Relief Corps, No. 155

Regular meeting of Edward Seaman Relief Corps, was held April 21, at the Grange Hall with 26 members and two guests present. Honored guests at the birthday dinner were Mrs. Emily Caple and Mrs. Mizpah Greene.

The May executive committees are Mrs. Dema Ackerman, Mrs. Eva Crowner, Mrs. Beatrice Whiting and Mrs. Edithe Green.

Contributions were made to the Corps child welfare fund and to the Cancer drive.

Corps president Mrs. Jessie Whiting was appointed an aide and will represent the Andover Corps at the state convention in Utica in June.

The May dinner committees are Mrs. Floye Lever, Mrs. Ruth Dunham, Miss Agnes Fisher and Mrs. Leona Slocum.

Mrs. Albert V. Durand

Andover friends were grieved by the news of the sudden death of Jean G. Durand, wife of Albert V. Durand, that occurred April 17, 1950, at Rochester, N. Y.

She was a member of the Third Presbyterian Church and the Century Club. During World War II she was active in Red Cross work.

Mr. Durand, a native of Andover, is a prominent business man in Rochester, being president of Smith, Gormly Company and a director of Genesee Valley Trust Company.

Home Bureau

Home demonsration week will be observed April 30 through May 6. There will be on display in the Folsing store window articles of general work done by the members of the West Greenwood Hill Unit, the Andover Day Unit and the Andover Evening Unit.

Members having articles to display are asked to please have them at the Folsing store Saturday, April 29.
