TENNIS COURT ETIQUETTE

Tennis courts are now ready for public use. Many of you enjoy playing, so in order to continue on the courts, obey the following rues:

Sneaks must be worn.

One set allowed at a time if people are waiting.

Doubles must be played if requested.

No bicycles allowed.

People without tennis racquets are not allowed on the court.

Let's have a good time playing tennis and follow the rules.

JUNIOR CLASS BAKE SALE NETS $30.00

A bake sale, which netted $30, was held by the junior class on Saturday morning, May 13 at Sackett's store, to raise money for the junior class fund.

The whole junior class responded to the bake sale by bringing delicious baked goods.

An angel food cake which was baked by Mrs. Leonard Briggs was awarded to Mrs. Mary Burns.

AROUND THE SCHOOL

Did You Know That:

Gloria Clair and Nedra Burrows went skating last Saturday night?

Clarice Nye and Thelma Mickle had their hair cut?

"Ronnie" Howland and Laura Mae Croyle are on unspeaking terms?

Andover Legion beat the Hornell Legion baseball team last Sunday?

"Ronnie" Atwell and "Skeet" Milligan have something new again—bow ties?

Lois Ruger and Mary Brown have new blouses?

Ann Wood is back in school from a long illness with mumps?

Beverly Sutor will not be in Andover next year?

Agnes Davis enjoyed riding on a motorcycle last Sunday afternoon?

Mary Lou Clark and Mary Ellen Connor each have a new dress?

The senior class play "The Adorable Imp," will be presented Friday?

Marcella Smith is looking for a book on child psychology that may help her in controlling her little brother, Eddie, at baseball games?

Gay Rogers and Charity Howland had a wonderful time at the skating rink Friday night?

Thelma Mickle is sporting a new hair style?

The Freshmen are holding a class party on May 26 from 7 to 10 p. m.?

Laura Mae Croyle and Mary Jane Sackett were at the Legion ball game?

The Freshmen received their cancer fund prize Tuesday afternoon?

Phyllis Perry is having her hair cut today?

John Atwell and Doris Burdick were at the show together Saturday night?

Carl Atwell and Dick Davis are still the playboys of the freshman class?

Danjaan Crandall spent the week-end in Olean.

Anita Nichols and Richard Hancock spent Saturday evening at the "Clouds"?

Have you heard of the new budding romance from the halls of ACS? Have you guessed yet? Why, it's Joyce Linza and Joe Smith!

Why was Gloria Clair so happy Monday? Was it because she saw an adorable little black and white goat that was named after her?

Congratulations to the seniors for excellent acting in the play.

We were afraid that we would lose Maxine Filler wher we heard she had to move. But the bus will pick her up at her new residence and we shall still have her in our company as always.

Bob Marsh is sporting a very beautiful gold watch which is a graduation present.

SENIORS TO PRESENT CLASS PLAY TOMORROW

Friday, May 19, the senior class of Andover will present a three-act comedy "The Adorable Imp" in the school auditorium, under the direction of Mrs. Mary Baker.

The play will begin at 8:15 p. m., and the band under direction of Mr. Holden, will play between scenes.

There are 11 seniors participating in the play, of whom Joyce Linza, the adorable imp; Robert Carpenter, an old bachelor; Nedra Burrows, a gay young widow; and Aquinas Lynch, a busy-body maid, play the leading parts.

Tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 the pupils in the grades and high school will be given an opportunity to see the senior play by making a donation of ten cents.

STUDENTS PRAISE MUSICAL PROGRAM

A program of accordion music which was held in the Andover Central School auditorium at 9 o'clock this morning was praised by the students from the kindergartin through the 12 grade.

The students and teachers enjoyed the popular and classical music, and the variety of musical selections given by the musicians with their accordions. The colorful costumes of the entertainers added much to the program.

TOT SPOT

Here is your new reporter, Mary Brown, bringing you news of the activities of the tots in Andover Central School.

In Mrs. Robinson's kindergarten the pupils were tested after finishing their red books.

The tots in Mrs. Corwin's kindergarten made Mother's Day cards and are also doing some painting. Two of these tots had birthdays, they were: Bryan Frizell on May 5 and Robert Clarke on May 10.

Mrs. Connor's first grade children have been making a study of the gold fish and the frog for science. They also made Mother's Day booklets in art class.

In the first grade Miss Lynford Bledsoe is ill with whooping cough and they were pleased to welcome Barbara Hawks back after a long illness.

In Mrs. Hall's first grade the tots made booklets for their mothers containing verses. They are also making a folder for their year's work. The tots hope that Karen Stocking, who is ill with whooping cough, will return to school soon.

As you walk into Miss Helmer's fourth grade you will notice a very attractive bulletin board on "Sea Life." Another attraction in this room is a collection of colorful sea shells brought by Robert Conde. The fourth grade tots are studying "Cris of Courage Cove," and in their recent election Beverly Smith was chosen president of the class.

One of the tots, Ellen Balcom, told her second grade teacher, Miss Tompkins, that her grandfather "went fishing and caught a great big carpet." Wasn't that quite a fish story? The Brownies reading group of this class has started reading "What Next?"

Mrs. Church's fifth grade social studies class is studying Canada and her club program committee is planning a play for English class Friday afternoon.

The sixth graders made Mother's Day booklets with poems.

Mrs. Gath's seventh grade has a new bulletin board committee, Ray Halsey and Robert Sherman, who have chosen baseball as their subject. Many of the seventh graders were entertained on May 11 at Sandra Bostwick's birthday party.

In Mr. Carmody's eighth grade Ann Wood has been absent with the mumps. The class is planning a picnic. MCB

PANTHERS SHUT OUT WHITESVILLE

by Dean Fisher

The Panthers journeyed to Whitesville to down the Blue Jays 3-0 last Thursday night with a fine pitching job by "Don" Mulconery and clutch hitting by the Andoverites.

The Panthers garnered two tallies in the first inning on a triple by "Joe" Smith, a single by "Charlie" Snyder, and a triple by "Don" Mulconery. They got another in the later innings on a single by Carl Atwell and a triple by Kent Harder.

Whitesville threatened several times throughout the game but Mulconery rose to each crisis with fine hurling.

The boys are off to a fine start having now won three straight contests.

PEERING AT THE PEDAGOGUES

Mrs. Connor attended the Mother's Day breakfast given by the Holy Name Society at the Catholic club house.

Miss Schermerhorn visited her sister in Nunda.

Mrs. Schwarzenbach went to Dansville Sunday. Her mother returned with her and is remaining here this week.

Mrs. Gath went to Buffalo and Silver Creek.

Mr. Bartz and Mr. Witzel spent their week-end painting the lines on our tennis court.

Miss Church went to Coudersport over the week-end.

Mrs. Conde, Miss McCarthy and Miss Block went to their homes at Montour Falls, Addison and Great Valley respectively.

ROVING REPORTER

The question for this week's Roving Reporter is "How do the girls like the red suspenders?"

Teresa Joyce: "They are very becoming."

Maxine Filler: "They certainly are loud."

Agnes Davis: "I think they are pretty sharp."

Margaret Daley: "Too flashy."

Mary Brown: "I think they look cute, especially with bow ties."

Doris Burdick: "They are getting around. They'll do."

Alice Bostick: "They are quite flashy, but rather becoming."

Lois Ruger: "I think they are pretty snazzy."

Joyce Spicer: "I go along with Lois' viewpoint."

Beverly Sutor: "I think they are real cute."

Annabelle O'Dell: "They look nice if the boys would continue to wear them and more of the fellows would join in the fad."

Donna Nobles: "I think they are rather cute. Nothing like lots of color, so they say."

Anita Nichols: "They're all right, I guess. Better than some of the brush cuts the fellows have."

Colleen McAndrews: "Personally, I think they are foolish."

JoAnn Marsh: "They are something new and different."

Mary Ellen Connor: "I like 'em. The fad is getting started like the girls' sailor hats."

—Mary Lou Clark

—ACS—

Bob Baker: "I'm terribly worried about Betty."

Joe Smith: "What's she got?"

Bob: "The car."

"Skeet" Milligan: "What is a waffle, Ron?"

Ronald Atwell: "A pancake with a non skid tread."

HARVEY

By Dale Pelton

As I pull Harvey from among battered books, his "Duante" nose was exceptionally blue After asking him I found out why he was so blue, Beverly Ann Sutor, one of Andover's gay young sopomores will leave for Wilmington, Delewarc as soon as school ends this semester.

Harvey told more through broken sobs and wiping tears from his eyes with his rat-like tail that Beverly will attend Pierre South Dupont High School, where she will probably take chemistry, English, history III and shorthand.

"Ronald, her brother," Harvey said "will try getting a job there." He was recently discharged from the Navy.

Mr. Sutor, Beverly's father, is at the present time working at the Studebaker Sales & Service.

Harvey and I with the rest of the school wish Beverly and her family lots of luck and we know she will continue to be a popular and as good in school work as she has been in Andover.

New York Close Second In Maple Sweets

Albany, May 15—New York maple production, estimated at 632,000 gallons this spring exceeded last year's disappointing crop by 17 per cent, while the 49,000 pounds of sugar made was nearly double, according to a federal-state market report.

The season opened relatively late, but the cool March and April weather permitted the flow of sap to continue about four weeks and a product of high quality to be made.

Asparagus is a cousin to both the orchid and the Easter lily.
