MEMORIAL DAY

Memorial or Decoration Day is set aside each year to commemorate the services of the soldiers and sailors. Today it is observed in nearly all states, North and South alike, and in most of them on the same day, May 30.

The custom arose from the practice in the South of decorating the graves of the Confederate dead. In many localities the day has come to be the commemoration for all dead since the graves of those who were not soldiers are decorated with flowers and wreaths.

The states which observe the day have adopted it by themselves, for there is no national law on it.

Memorial Day is observed on April 26 in Alabama, Florida, George and Mississippi; May 10, in North and South Carolina; June 3 in Louisiana; May 30 in all the others but New Mexico, Tennessee and Texas, which have none.

HOMEMAKING NEWS

Since the end of the year is in sight the ACS homemaking department is finishing the various projects.

In Homemaking A the pupils have been studying "How to remove stains from different fabrics."

In Homemaking II busy fingers have been at work trying to make rugs and lamp shades to beautify the home.

In Homemaking 8 the pupils have made trips to the kindergarten to observe the procedure of the young children at play study.

In Homemaking I many different kinds of bandages are demonstrated by the students, who have practiced plays and put them on for the class.

Homemaking 7th grade: When summer comes this year you will see the pretty red and white shorts, the skirts and blouses which the girls completed for their projects.

Don't forget to look for the beautiful masterpieces coming from the homemaking department. DC

KID BANKERS DEPOSIT $50,000,000

Some 2,000,000 school children in Cleveland, Boston, Franklin Square, Long Island, and Benton, Ill., deposited $16,500,000 in special children's banks last year.

The desks and tellers' windows are kid-sized. Any kid with 10c may open an account and the bank pays one and one-half per cent interest. The banks also have uniformed guards in them to help the children make their deposits.

To keep the kids interested in their banking, they are sometimes handed small presents such as balloons.

These banks are designed to be attractive to children. The bank in Cleveland has murals painted on the walls showing happy young depositors with bankbooks. CVM

LOCALS TOP SCIO 6 TO 4

by Dean Fisher

The Panthers took an important victory from the Scio nine Monday night by a 6-4 score as Don Mulconery turned in another fine hurling job.

The game was a tight pitchers' duel until the fourth inning when Mulconery blasted a basesloaded triple for three tallies. Scio threatened in the last inning as they scored three runs on Andover misplays but their rally fell short by two runs.

Mulconery was the star of the day as he struck out 13 batters and belted three hits in three appearances at the plate.

The box score:

HARVEY

By Dale Pelton

As I pulled Harvey out of my stuffy locker the other morning, he told me what on exciting time he had had at the senior play Friday night.

After stretching quite a bit he told how Joan McAndrew (disguised as the snowman that walked) scared the Simpkins and Gordon's out of their make up so Harvey could tell who they were He soon discovered that Joan Jackson was Betty Lou Gordon. Harvey told me how easy he relaxed when joe Smith held Joyce Linza so gracefully in his powerful arms. Harvey began to have a troubled look on his face as he continued by telling how Ken Nye as Winster Pickeral had the gout in the play but he hoped he would rid himself of it very soon. Harvey didn't recognize sophisticated Ronald Atwell in his suit and sophisticated mustache. His part on the stage as Delworth a rich son of Wiston Peckeral was well played. Harveys foot-of-face lit up with surprise when Ken Milligan, as Brain Barday was bossed around by a woman, Joan McAndrew, his daughter, was truly a scream. Gloria Clair, a rich and sophisticated fiance of Joe Smith played her part very well with her Boston drawl, Bob Carpenter must have had some Irish as well as French in him to play a part so well as the lady cook who is supposed to be hired as he takes the place of her as Clint Purdy. It's hard to imagine Nedra Burrows as the motherly type but she was in the play, mother of Betty Lou Gordon (the adorable imp). Harvey's "Durante" nose was shining bright as he told how funny Aquinas Lynch was as the maid who ruled off some grand expressions.

Harvey and I congratulated the seniors on a splendid three act comedy. Each act was packed with thrills and laughs.

ROVING REPORTER

Here once again is "Roving Reporter" asking the question—"Should parents allow their teenage sons to take the car?" Here are a few answers:

Eunice Hall: If it runs.

Frances Baker: It makes no difference. I'd just as soon walk if it's not too far.

Jim Conde: Sure.

Colleen McAndrews: If they know how to handle it carefully.

Janice Hall: It's okay if parents don't value their car.

Carol Briggs: Just as long as they use it carefully.

Wayne Atwell: Sure, they have to get some fun out of life, and you're only young once.

Mary Fowler: Sure, it's all right for the sons, but what about the daughters too?

Barbara Wintemberg: By all means! Living in a small town like this, there isn't much you can do without a car.

TOT SPOT

This week we wish happy birthdays to three tots. They are Allen Skinner and Harold Peters of the kindergarten and Richard Rifenburg of the fourth grade.

The eighth grade class is having a picnic May 27th if the weather permits.

In Mrs. Robison's kindergarten each child has a small dish of flowers or twigs on his table to learn new words. Several of the children have brought birds' nests.

Miss Church's fifth and sixth graders are having a card shower for Sherry Graves from Wellsville, who is in Warm Springs, Ga., having treatments for polio.

The fifth grade has completed the work in social studies on Mexico and the sixth grade has started on Australia.

The pupils of Mrs. Schwarzenbach's sixth grade have drawn pictures of the countries they have been studying in social studies.

Mrs. Loescher substituted for Mrs. Corwin May 15 and 16.

The kindergarteners have been having tests given by Mr. Mandel, the guidance teacher.

Mrs. Connor's first graders are enjoying two books for review reading, "Hello, David" and "Peter's Family."

Congratulations to the boys of Mrs. Hall's first grade. They had perfect attendance during the week of May 15-19.

Group I have finished their readers.

Mrs. Carmody's second graders are erecting a feeding station for birds to put on the school lawn.

The third grade of Mrs. Helmer has been making stencil drawings of iris.

The tots of Miss Schermerhorn have been doing some traveling. Teddy Deming motored to Batavia; Anne Church went shopping in Hornell; Billy Slocum visited in Belmont; Carol Howard went shopping in Wellsville; Claudette Corwin went to Hornell Saturday; James Mulholland visited in Wellsville and Judy Baker enjoyed the film "Cinderella."

We are glad to welcome Lynford Bledsoe of the first grade and Billy Rifenburg of the kindergarten back to school and sorry to hear that Karen Stocking of the first grade and Harry Campbell and Jean Rifenburg of the kindergarten are ill. GFR

Farm Bureau Trip to Alaska Arranged

Ithaca, N. Y., May 22—A 9,000 mile summer trip to Alaska, arranged by the State Farm Bureau Federation in cooperation with the Farm Bureaus of the Northeast, has been set for August 4-25. The announcement was made here today by E. S. Foster, general secretary of the organization.

Planned exclusively for farm families in the Northeast, those making the trip will have an opportunity to visit the rich farm areas and scenic wonders of the Northern United States and Alaska.

Travel by train and bus across the nation, a steamer voyage through the Inside Passage to Alaska and sightseeing visits to out-of-the-way points in Alaska will highlight the three-week trip.

Reservations for the trip must be made within the next month and interested farm people should contact the Federation's office at Roberts Hall in Ithaca, or their local county Farm Bureau for descriptive folders.

While in Alaska, vacationists will visit Glacier National Park and make a daylight cruise up the spectacular Garden canal with scenery "rivalling the fjords of Norway." Other stops in Alaska will include Prince Rupert; Ketchikan, the salmon canning capital of the world; Juneau and nearby Mendenhall Glacier; Skagway and Sitka, the old Russian capital of Alaska.

Sightseeing trips in and around Detroit, Chicago, Billings, Montana, and Seattle will feature stateside stops.
