To Friendly Town Hosts

Everybody these days is pretty busy. That is why we are proud of you who invite a Fresh Air child to your home, for we know that you must believe heart and soul in doing a good turn or you would not take the trouble to be a Friendly Town host.

As a real American, we know, however, that you are also interested in our country—and in helping others to be better Americans. Friendly Town hosts have been doing this for three generations.

If you take one or more children who so much need a vacation in the country for at least two weeks, the Fresh Air fund believes you will find it rewarding not only for your guest but for you and your family as well.

Improved highways and automobiles have made it safer to drive, but you can still get killed on the highways.
