Commencement Activities Start Here Saturday Night

The Andover Central School Commencement activities start this Saturday evening, June 24 with the annual alumni banquet to be held at 6:00 o'clock in the Masonic Temple, at which the 1950 graduating class will be honored guests.

Dr. H. O. Burdick, Dean of the Liberal Arts College at Alfred University will be the speaker of the evening and Stanley Ruger of the Scio Central School faculty will act as toastmaster.

Sunday evening, June 25, at 8 o'clock the Baccalaureate services will be held in the Central School auditorium. The program will start with the school orchestra playing "Entre De Procession" by Batiste, the invocation and Lord's Prayer will be led by Rev. Edward Poser. Two musical selections "Prayer from Hansel and Gretel" and "Bells of St. Mary's" will be sung by the High School Girl's Chorus.

The Baccalaureate address, "The Challenge of the Unfulfilled" will be given by the Rev. Chester Whitt and the benediction by Rev. John R. Shea. The High School Orchestra will conclude the program with the "Grand March from Aida."

The 75th Annual Commencement will be held in the Central School auditorium Monday evening at 8:15 at which time a class of 27 will be graduated.

The program will start with the High School Orchestra playing "Entre De Procession" by Batiste, the invocation will be given by the Rev. Albert N. Rogers, the salutatory "The Next Three Years" will be given by Robert Baker, the High School Girl's Chorus will sing "This is My Country" and the "Bells of St. Mary's" and the Valedictory "The Road Ahead" will be given by Barbara Wintemberg.

S. E. Gerard Priestley of New York University will be the Commencement speaker and following his address Principal Kessler will present the school awards and S. B. Crandall, president of the Board of Education will present diplomas to the graduates.

The exercises will close with benediction by Rev. Rogers and the recessional "The Grand March from Aida" by the school orchestra.

Andover Rings Up Another Shut Out

The Andover Legion baseball team handed Angelica a shutout at Angelica Sunday when they defeated that team by a score of 7 to 0.

Mulconery notched his third straight win and second shutout in three starts. Don struck out nine men, allowed six hits and received good support from his teamates, who made but one error.

Andover started their scoring in the third inning when they netted three runs from a walk, a fielder's choice, three hits and a passed ball. They added two more tallies in the fourth and two in the ninth innings.

This Sunday Andover plays Canisteo here. This should be a real ball game as Andover and Canisteo are in a three way tie for second place in the league.

Score of Sunday's game:

Andover	ab	r	h

Temple — Mawyer

The wedding of Miss Constance Loving Mawyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Mawyer, of North Garden, Charlottesville, Virginia, to Arthur Ralph Temple, son of Mrs. Ralph Temple of Andover and the late Mr. Temple, was solemnized Wednesday morning, June 14th at 11 o'clock at Holy Comforter Catholic Church, Charlottesville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Bernard Moore.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin fashioned with a sheer yoke outlined by a scalloped design of pearls, long tight sleeves, and a fitted bodice. The full skirt ended in a wide, circular train and her full length veil of imported illusion was held in place by a halo of satin and pearls. She carried a Colonial bouquet of white rosebuds and baby's breath which was caught in sprays by white satin streamers.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Robert Remington, of Charlottesville and the maid of honor, Miss Ruby Payne of Middleburg, Va., wore dresses of blue printed organza, made with a cape effect and a deep ruffle at the hemline. Matching mitts and picture hats of horsehair were worn and they carried baskets of mixed Spring flowers.

The other attendants were Mrs. James Backus of Andover, sister of the groom, Mrs. Harrison Kite, Jr., of Raleigh, N. C., Mrs. Melville Fountaine of Covington, Va., cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Allen Carter Jones, III, of Charlottesville. They wore identical gowns and also carried baskets of mixed Spring flowers. Miss Gladys Marie Walker of Charlottesville, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a gown of blue organza identical to that of the honor attendants with matching halo and mitts, carrying a basket of white rose petals.

Robert Remington of Charlottesville, was best man for the bridegroom. The groomsmen were Jay McIntee of Wellsville, Rial Rose of Charlottesville William Leavens and Jack Gedney of Wellsville and Wallace Lippincott of Baltimore, Md.

Following the wedding a reception was held at Huntley Hall, Stribling avenue, Charlottesville, after which the couple left on a Southern wedding trip.

The bride's mother was attired in a tailored dress of light brown with matching Queen Mary hat and white accessories, while the bridegroom's mother favored a chocolate colored chiffon dress fashioned with a full skirt, an eggshell straw hat trimmed in mauve velvet and matching accessories. Both wore an orchid corsage.

After June 23, the couple will be at home on East Pearl street, Wellsville.

O. E. S. Notice

On Monday evening, June 26, the regular meeting of Anna W. McArthur Chapter No. 242 will be called at 7:00 p. m. sharp in order that those who wish to attend the commencement may do so. This will be the last meeting before summer recess.

Dear Friendly Towners

Wouldn't 1950 be a brighter year if you should invite a Fresh Air Child to your home where he can find "a few weeks of good growing weather?" If you wish to entertain a Fresh Air Child get in touch with your local Friendly Town Committee chairman, Mrs. Helen Beach.

Andover Band Rehearsal

Tuesday, 7:30 p. m., at the school cafeteria to prepare for Old Home Week parades.

If attendance is good rehearsals will be changed to Friday nights, if not further activity will be postponed until fall.

Plans Complete for Andover Firemen's Old Home Week

The stage is all set for the Andover Firemen's and Firemen's Auxiliary Old Home Week which opens on the Andover athletic field Tuesday, June 27th and continues through Saturday night July 1st, with the Eastman Shows having a fine midway all week at the athletic field.

Committees for the event appointed include:

Howard Nichols, general chairman.

Parade committee: Roger Tuttle and Harold Lehman.

Game committee: Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Howe.

Eating stands: Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Barlow.

Canvassing: Mrs. Howard Nichols.

For the opening night, Tuesday, a water fight has been scheduled to take place on Main street at 7 o'clock between Andover and Scio "Lady" firemen.

Wednesday night at 7:30 the usual business and fantastic parade will be held. Everyone having a novelty or business float or decorated vehicle are invited to participate in this event.

Thursday night has been set aside as Boy Scout night and business parade.

Friday night, the big night of the week will feature the firemen's parade with a large delegation of firemen, auxiliaries and drum corps and bands participating.

Saturday afternoon the kiddie pet parade will take place with a special matinee at the midway for the little tots.

Remember to meet your friends in Andover all next week at the Andover Firemen's Old Home Week Celebration.

To Speak at C. & M. Alliance Church

Margaret Lambert Wiesenberg, A. B., of the New York Jewish Evangelization Society is to speak Sunday at the Christian and Missionary Alliance church. Mrs. Wiesenberg has just completed a tour of the United States. She has been ministering in churches, Bible schools, and five day conferences bringing our responsibility to this negelected people before great audiences.

Mrs. Wiesenberg's 30 years experience in this field offers a very inspiring and informative time for those who attend her meetings. She will show pictures of her work.

Elm Valley House Damaged By Fire

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stocking at Elm Valley was gutted by fire Monday afternoon doing an estimated damage of $1,500.

The house was unoccupied when the fire broke out about 3:40 o'clock in the afternoon. Miss Agnes Greeman, a niece of Mr. Stocking, was across the highway getting water from a spring. When she returned a pot holder near a lighted burner on the kitchen range was burning together with curtains at a window over the stove.

Miss Greeman tried to throw water on the blaze, but a breeze coming in the window fanned the flames and they spread rapidly up the curtains, across the ceiling of the kitchen and up an open stairway leading from the kitchen to bedrooms above.

Firemen from Wellsville, who answered the call, carried some of the contents of the house outside but most of the families' clothing was lost.

The Stockings have five children ranging in ages from five to 12 years.

Notice to Alumni

Reservations for the Almuni Banquet must be in by Friday noon at the latest. If you are unable to attend the banquet please pay or mail your yearly dues to any of the following officers: Paul Kilbane, president; Mary K. Cannon, vice president; Norma Crowner, secretary; Phyllis T. Backus, treasurer.

Hospital Notes

Larry Yannie was admitted to the St. James Mercy hospital in Hornell last Thursday to undergo grafting surgery on his heel. His room is 287, South Wing.

Miss Betty Jo Barney of Independence was admitted to Jones Memorial hospital in Wellsville Saturday.

Celebrate Twentieth Wedding Anniversary

A party of about 100 friends and neighbors gathered at the West Greenwood Grange Hall Saturday evening, June 17 to help Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ryan celebrate their twentieth wedding anniversary.

The evening was enjoyed in dancing with a lunch served at midnight.

A purse was presented Mr. and Mrs. Ryan, who very generously turned it over to the Andover Fire Co. Building Fund.

Episcopal Confirmation Held in Wellsville

A class of 15 persons was confirmed last Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service in St. John's Episcopal church, Wellsville, by the Rt. Rev. Dudley Scott Stark, Bishop of the Rochester Diocese.

Those who received the sacrament from Andover included: Mr. and Mrs. Everett Clark, Mary Lou Clark, Lewis Donald McLean, Mrs. Christine Scott, Mrs. Florence Greene, Charles Loescher and David Loescher. They were presented by Dr. Clark of Alfred, Lay Reader in the St. Andrew's Mission.

Grange News

The meeting planned for Andover Grange on June 28 has been postponed until July 5th when the Grange will hold a special meeting to confer degrees.

Notice Area Potato Growers

There will be a meeting upstairs in the Grange Hall for all those interested in having potatoes sprayed this year, Wednesday evening, June 28, immediately following the scheduled parade.
