Firemen's Meeting This (Thursday) Evening

Due to the Andover firemen taking part in the parade held at Dansville this Friday evening, the regular meeting will be held tonight (Thursday) at the regular hour.

Class Reunion

The Class of 1939, A. C. S. will hold a class reunion at the West Greenwood Grange Hall, next Sunday, July 9. Tureen dinner at noon.

Andover Old Home Week Successful

The Andover Firemen's and Firemen's Auxiliary Old Home Week celebration ended Saturday and proved very successful this year, according to Howard Nichols, general chairman of this year's event.

Parades were held during the week with the big firemen's parade held Friday evening at which five organizations and pretty Rose Marie Luppino won prizes. Miss Luppino, who marched with the Addison contingent, was judged the best majorette.

Others awarded prizes include: Wellsville took prizes for the best appearance and the most men in line.

Addison for coming the longest distance.

Belmont drum corps.

Belmont ladies' auxiliary.

Scio band.

Sixteen companies, four drum and bugle corps, seven bands and numerous pieces of equipment participated in the parade.

The firemen wish to thank all who had floats in the parades during the week and those who helped in any way in making the annual event a success.

Firemen to Meet At Belmont on July 10-15

The 35th annual convention of the Allegany County Volunteer Firemen's Association is to be held July 10-15 in Belmont this year. The B. & C. Exposition Shows will play Belmont throughout the week.

The business session opens at 2 p. m., Wednesday, July 12, in the new Belmont fire hall, to be followed by an outing at Belmont Conservation Club grounds at 6 o'clock.

The annual parade of county departments will move at 7 p. m. on Thursday, July 13, and cover the principal county seat streets.

Saturday evening will be visiting firemen's night.

Prizes totaling $165 will be awarded to fire companies, drum and bugle corps, etc.

Appreciation

We wish to thank all those who were so helpful at the time of the fire at our house, especially Edward Kent, William Woodruff and the Andover firemen.

Mr. and Mrs. George Blank

Appreciation

I wish to express my appreciation to Andover friends for the cards and other remembrances sent me while in the hospital.

Dairymen's League to Meet in Angelica

The regular meeting of Allegany County Sub-Dist. 19A of the Dairymen's League will be held in the Angelica Grange Hall, Angelica, Monday evening July 10 at 8 o"clock. Refreshments and speaker.

Always a good investment—U. S. Savings Bonds.

Fire Badly Damages Blank Home Friday

Fire of undetermined origin called Andover firemen to the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Blank on Pingrey Hill about 10 o'clock Friday morning.

The lack of water badly hampered firemen but tanks of water brought in by Edward Kent's and William Woodruff's tank trucks of about 1000 gallons each enabled firemen to save the building.

No cause for the fire can be determined as there had not been a fire in the house for some weeks. A member of the family went upstairs to get a pair of shoes and discovered the blaze in the second story. Much of the contents of the lower floor was removed by firemen and neighbors.

The roof and most of the second floor walls were destroyed with considerable water damage to the lower floor. The damage is estimated at $1,000 to the building and $400 to the contents.

Andover Wins From Greenwood

Mulconery struck out seven men and walked one to gain his fifth straight victory of the season in the Tribune league, when Andover defeated Greenwood at Greenwood Sunday by a score of 18 to 8. James Smith and John Howland were the power hitters for Andover, collecting seven hits between them.

This win puts Andover in second place and a win over Arkport this Sunday can place them in a first place tie. The players will meet at the drug store at 12:30 Sunday to go to Arkport.
