Price and Unshackled.

GANNON & GALATIAN, Editors.

Thursday, June 18, 1874.

Any one reading the Sun now... would naturally form the opinion that we were to have a Presidential campaign this summer.

The Rhode Island Legislature... is having a happy time... over their halcyon days and every variety of useless apoplexies.

Secretary Robinson is making... investigation in the Treasury Department... He is "digging up" extra facts and every variety of useless apoplexies.

It is proposed to use a portion of the $200,000 appropriated by Congress for the relief of the Louisiana Territory... to employ those who are in want and able to work in rebuilding the levees.

A bill has passed the House relative to delegates from Territories... which says no person shall be a delegate to the House from any Territory unless thirty-five years of age.

The comments of the press of the Western States upon the Independent Convention held last week in Indiana and Illinois are again being taken up.

The House Committee on Territories... has reported a bill setting forth the qualifications of the Delegates from Territories.

A new committee has been appointed by Congress upon the Currency question, but undoubtedly will not amount to much.

The Chicago Times gives no longer any use in trying to continue the political Bourbon the world over.

The Democratic party press who entertain fear of Gen. Dix as a candidate for re-nomination.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

The Ohio Herald has been disposed to doubt the validity of the submission of the constitutional amendments this year.

It was clearly within the province of the Legislature to propose amendments to the Constitution.

The Herald concludes that this argument makes a stronger case in favor of the constitutionality of the amendments than it had supposed.

Nothing is submitted to the people which has not passed two Legislatures.

The bill amending the bankruptcy law now goes to the President for his approval.

A great deal has occurred at Philadelphia, and the result was not very satisfactory.

Several hundred and seventy-three men were arrested at New York for the purpose of raising a regiment for the war.

The session of the American Institute of the city of New York.

The Potato Blight. This blight has become so numerous and so extensive in its nature.

The habits of this blight ought to be understood. It has three stages of growth.
