

Local Intelligence

Local Intelligence section containing various news items, including mentions of 'The Herald' and 'The Standard'.

Canal Board meets in Albany

Canal Board meets in Albany on July 25th. Several of our farmers are claiming the largest yield of potatoes in years.

Some persons or persons entered the house of Mr. John Baxter

Some persons or persons entered the house of Mr. John Baxter on Monday night last, and took therefrom everything they could find in the line of articles.

Mr. B. had on Monday some large packages of cake, etc.

Mr. B. had on Monday some large packages of cake, etc., expecting many friends during the S. Convention and the week took all Mr. B.'s pants were found in the kitchen minus his pocket book.

One man killed and several badly injured

One man killed and several badly injured in a railroad accident. The following account of the accident is taken from a correspondence to the Herald.

St. Nicholas for August

St. Nicholas for August is an excellent "hot-weather" number. It contains "The Affair of the Sanluis," a story of adventure on the water.

Branch of the community to their own

Branch of the community to their own liking, and not exactly according to the prescribed rules of the established order.

Home Markets

Table listing various market prices for commodities such as wheat, corn, and other goods.

Western N.Y. Fair

Advertisement for the Western N.Y. Fair, including details about the wool sale and other exhibits.

NEW INVOICE OF GOODS

Large advertisement for Porter & Barney's, featuring the text 'NEW INVOICE OF GOODS' and 'PORTER & BARNEY'S'.