Hunting Season Dates Set For Oct. 20 Opener

Albany, Sept 19—More than a million New York State hunters will be hanging onto their hats Friday, October 20. For that's the day the Empire State's annual autumn harvest of its wildlife crop begins in earnest after a few preliminary skirmishes in its northern hunting zone. This year harvest should be a pretty good one too. At least increases in the pheasant and grouse populations were reflected by Conservation Commissioner Perry B. Duryea's announcement today that bag limits for the two species would be more liberal this fall. Supplies of most other stocks also were reported up.

As last year, pheasant hunting will be limited to two days (Oct. 20-21) in one group of counties and five days (Oct. 20-25 with Sunday out) in another, Commissioner Duryea revealed. The season's bag limit was increased to four cock birds in all open counties except on Long Island where regulations are established by the Legislature.

The season's bag of ruffed grouse (partridge) was upped from eight to ten in the State's Western Zone and shaved from twelve to ten on Long Island. Elsewhere last year's season's total of fifteen and the daily take of three grouse remains effective. In the Western Zone, grouse hunters also were given one week more than last year. Running for grouse starts in the Northern Zone Oct. 9; in the Southern and Western Zones Oct. 20 and on Long Island Nov. 1. New Zone boundaries, incidentally, have been established.

The daily limit for cottontail rabbits was set at four, Commissioner Duryea also announced today with an unlimited season's take permitted.

Upland game and woodcock hunting hours remain the same as last year: 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. on opening days and 7 a. m. to 5 p. m. thereafter. For water fowl, says the Federal Government, don't begin until 12 o'clock noon on opening days; thereafter begin your shooting a half-hour before sunrise and cease firing an hour before sunset.

The major seasons in brief for this area:

Pheasants (cocks only): Two Days Region-Oct. 20-21; limits, 2 per day and 4 per season in 29 counties as follows-Allegany, Broome, Cattaraugus, Chautauqua Chemung, Chenango, Cortland, Cayuga, Erie, Genesee, Jefferson Livingston, Lewis, Madison, Monroe, Niagara, Orleans, Ontario, Oneida, Oswego, Onondaga, Seneca, Schuyler, Steuben, Tioga, Tompkins, Wayne, Wyoming and Yates.

Grouse: Western Zone (from Penn. line west of Route 11 through Syracuse to Onondaga Lake, to Seneca River, to Oswego River, to Lake Ontario)- Oct. 20 through Nov. 23; 2 per day, 10 per season.

Woodcock: Northern Zone-Oct. 9 through Nov. 1; Rest of State except Long Island-Oct. 20 through Nov. 12; Long Island-Oct. 23 through Nov. 15; Limits 4 per day, 8 in possession.

Ducks, Geese, Coots, Rails, Gallinules-Oct. 20 through Nov. 4 and Dec. 8 through Dec. 23: limits-(ducks) 4 per day, 8 in possession except 1 wood duck only.

Squirrels (grey, black and fox)-Oct. 20-Nov. 17, limit 5 per day.

Most of us say "happy birthday" ten or twelve times a year to friends or relatives. But Uncle Ralph Krueger of WWHG's Birthday Bandwagon figures that he says birthday greetings about 100 times a week or 5,000 times a year. Uncle Ralph invites all younger listeners to join his Birthday Bandwagon and then when their date of birth arrives, a personal greeting goes out over the air from Uncle Ralph. The Birthday Bandwagon can be heard on WWHG every day Monday through Friday at 5:15. — WWHG is at 1590 on your AM dial and 105.3 on your FM dial.

Home Bureau

Over a hundred women acting as unit officers of the Home Bureau met in the auditorium of the David Howe Library in Wellsville, Tuesday afternoon. The purpose was a training school to help officers in questions arising concerning reports, policies and attendance. Miss Hazel Reed, assistant state leader of Home Demonstration Agents of Ithaca was the guest speaker. A very interesting history was given of the educational and cooperative program of the Extension Service which includes the County Farm Bureau, the Home Bureau and the 4-H Club. This volunteer service started with George Washington who was interested in exchange of seeds. More interest was established by Thomas Jefferson in founding Virginia College. With the exchange of knowledge, information and skills a government agency was established.

Thus State Schools of Agriculture and Home Economics in the States were approved and information made available to all persons through correct channels. It is through the Home Bureau unit that plans are made to arouse interest in better home and community living, in clothing, family management, nutrition, family life, civics and home furnishing.

Price For August Milk At $4.03

Dairy farmers will be paid a uniform price of $4.03 per hundredweight for their August deliveries to 427 pool-approved plants in the six-state New York milkshed, it is announced by Dr. C. J. Blandford, Market Administrator of the New York metropolitan milk marketing area. The uniform price in July was $3.57 a hundredweight, and in August a year ago $4.18 a hundredweight.

The Administrator also announced a producer butterfat differential for August of 5.8 cents for each tenth of a pound of fat above or below the 3.5 percent standard.

Despite a decline of seven pounds from a year ago in daily output per farm, August milk production was at its highest level for the month in the history of the federal-state marketing order, Dr. Blandford reported. Receipts last month totaled 534,183,620 pounds, an increase of 13,426,228 pounds, or 2.58 per cent, from August, 1949, the previous high. The Administrator said the gain was due to the larger number of producers supplying the market.

Total farm value of last month's production is $22,163,253.77, made up of $21,527,599.89 at the uniform price and $635,653.88 in butterfat and location premiums.

September Milk Price Is $4.34

A uniform price of $4.34 per hundredweight will be paid to dairy farmers for their September deliveries to pool-approved plants in the six-state New York milkshed, according to Dr. Blanford.

He estimated at the same time that the producer butterfat differential for September would be 5.6 cents for each tenth of a pound of fat above or below the 3.5 per cent standard.

School Bus in Accident at Elm Valley

Andover Central school bus 1 was damaged to such extent as to have to be taken to the body shop at Bath for repairs in an accident involving two cars and two trucks last Thursday afternoon in front of the Jackson farm in Elm Valley.

The bus traveling west had stopped to discharge pupils and a car driven by Mrs. Arabell Graves had stopped behind it. A second car driven by Mrs. Gertrude Mattison traveling toward Andover, failed to stop until past the bus and following her was a truck to which a second truck was saddle-hitched.

When the Mattison car stopped the truck behind her was unable to stop and struck both the bus and her car. The force of the impact threw the truck hitched onto the rear off and it fell onto the hood of the Graves car back of the bus.

One child had gotten off the bus when Mr. Skuse, driver of the bus, seeing that the cars were not going to stop, closed the door to prevent others from getting out. There were 12 pupils on the bus but none were injured as the bus was struck just in front of the rear wheels.

Mrs. Mattison suffered a bruise on the head, Mrs. Graves a severely bruised left elbow and forehead and her son, who was riding with her, had brush burns on the left knee and several teeth loosened.

Firemen's Sales Campaign Ends October 2nd

If sales to date are any indication, more than 70 per cent of the homes in the Andover fire district will be equipped with carbon dioxide (C02) fire extinguishers by the time the Andover Fire Department's current extinguisher campaign comes to a close. The interest is proving so great that the teams set up to cover the area are found to be entirely inadequate in manpower to do the job. It is requested that any firemen not already taking part in this worthwhile drive contact the chairman, Phil Hackett immediately, to greatly benefit both the fire district and the department.

Firemen have been "making the rounds" evenings this week, calling on homes in the area with samples of the six protective devices in their line. Reports coming into the campaign indicate that a large majority of the persons on whom they had called were glad of the opportunity to buy a reasonably priced effective extinguisher for use in their homes, cars and outbuildings.

The local "extinguisher in every home" campaign comes to a close on October 2nd, by which time the firemen have hopes of calling at every home in the district in which they serve. Because of insufficient personnel to date, less than half of the homes in the village alone have been covered, but more than 70 per cent of homes contacted have ordered one or more of the protection devices.

Firemen are not using "high pressure" selling methods in showing these extinguishers. If a home is already equipped for fire protection, no attempt is made to persuade the prospect to buy. The fire laddies do, however, recommend the C02 line of fire fighters to be the most effective, least messy, and fastest outfits obtainable.

Homes which have not been called on to date can expect a visit within the next week or so.

If, by any chance, anyone is missed in these home calls, orders can be taken 9-12 a. m., or 1-5 p. m., at the drive headquarters at Niagara Electron Laboratories on Main street between the Market Basket and Red and White stores.

I have been instructed by the Board of Education to add 5% to all taxes after October 25, in compliance with Chapter 687 print 3215 of the Education Laws of the State of New York which provides that tax return to the county treasurer must be made on or before December 1st following the tax levy.
