September Milk to Return $4.40 Uniform Price

A uniform price of $4.40 per hundredweight will be paid to dairy farmers for their September deliveries to 428 pool-approved plants in the six-state New York milkshed, it is announced by Dr. C. J. Blanford, market administrator of the New York metropolitan milk marketing area. The uniform price in August was $4.03 a hundredweight, and in September a year ago $4.20 a hundredweight.

The administrator at the same time announced a producer butterfat differential for September of 5.6 cents for each tenth of a pound of fat above or below the 3.5 per cent standard.

Total September milk production was 496,699,666 pounds, a decline of 5,826,179 pounds from a year ago. The 50,943 dairymen supplying the market, largest number for the month since 1944, averaged 325 pounds daily. Last year's record output of 502,525,845 pounds came from 48,743 producers averaging 344 pounds daily.

Dr. Blanford reported an increase of 4.28 per cent in fluid milk consumption last month, compared with a year ago. Total fluid sales rose from 293,188,659 pounds in September, 1949, to 305,744,364 pounds last month for a gain of 12,555,705 pounds.

Total farm value of last month's production is $22,657,421.10, made up of $21,854,785.30 at the uniform price and $802,635.80 in butterfat and location premiums.
