HARVESTING.
The white snow covered the mountain path. The grass was faded and dull. When the sun's rays look over the scene, and the white snow is a month gone, and the grass is faded and dull.

THE LOVER'S LEAP.
A CORNER SCENE.
"The Lover's Leap," said I, as I stood on the north shore of Cornwall, looking up at a picture of a headland, a considerable number of feet above the sea level, and hanging threateningly over its foaming surface, now there was a full tide, and I added, "decidedly original, and—"
