A new house is being built on Third Street.

"Home again,"—Those young folks who went off last week.

Geo. Wescott is building an addition to his house on Pleasant ave.

Joel Mowhenes and wife have returned from their trip to Europe.

We were favored with quite a frost in this vicinity on Monday night.

The dance at Hunt's Hotel on Thursday evening last, was well attended and enjoyed by all.

The largest funeral procession we have had here for some time, was that of Mr. McGinty, on Sunday last.

Rev. D. D. Cook has gone to conference. We understand that he does not expect to be returned to this charge again.

The frame of W. B. Bronson's new residence on Pleasant ave. is up. It will make a very fine looking building when completed.

We are pleased to learn that C. C. Allen, of Whitesville, is fast improving and will soon be able to again see to his business in person.

Mr. Kemp has 130,000 brick burnt and ready for market. They are the best brick that he has made, and will be sold at a bargain.

E. W. Kemp is running a new threshing machine this season, which we hear pronounced as doing first-class work, and does it fast.

The delegates chosen at the Chemung County Republican Convention are instructed to cast their vote for Patrick Flood of Elmira, for Congress.

The new depot just completed at East Buffalo by the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Company, cost about $100,000, and is an elegant specimen of architecture.

Rev. F. Shaver has returned from his vacation of about five weeks, looking very much improved by his rest. He will occupy the pulpit at the Seventh-day church on Sunday.

The business of drying potatoes for use in the navy is carried on in Rochester. A bushel of potatoes makes about ten pounds when dried. Why not beat the potato bug next season by drying half of this year's crop?

The ice cream and pooch festival of the Good Templars last Thursday evening, was a success in every respect, and much credit is due to the young ladies who had it in charge.

A new addition sixty feet in length and two stories high is being built to the tannery. If Richardson keeps on he will have one of the largest tanneries in the county. Let her grow.

The Republicans of Cattaraugus County have re-nominated Hon. C. P. Vedder for Member of Assembly. Mr. Vedder has made a good representative, and we are glad that he is to be returned.

There will be so much snow by-and-by that you cannot repair your sidewalks; then you will be sorry that you put it off so long. Now is just the time, in the fall of the season, and this season in particular, for the lumber will wear full as long, if not longer.

There is no question but what the Whitesville plow has the largest sale of any plow in Western New York, for the simple reason that it is the best made from the best of iron and polished. The manufacturers, C. C. Allen & Son, are men of honor and integrity, and what they tell you may be depended upon.

By invitation of Porter & Barney we visited their hardware store the other day, and was shown through their stove department. We never have seen an exhibition in any hardware store, a greater variety, or finer lot of stoves in our life. They have every variety of cook, parlor, and office stoves, both wood and coal, from the best factories in the United States. It will well pay any person to visit their store and look over their display of stoves. Call and see for yourselves.

Notice to the Public.

We are unable to furnish our usual amount of reading matter on account of a large amount job work, which we were obliged to get out, and the great amount of advertising which we have been obliged to set this week.

Correction.

By an error, the statement made in our last issue, in reference to the marksmanship of John C. Cartwright, read fifty yards, instead of eighty, as it should have read. We make this correction and invite marksmen through the county and vicinity, to equal the shots made, if they can.

"Stedman Hussey," and "Shadowy Hand."

Rev. Henry Morgan's new book "Shadowy Hand," published Sept. 1st, 460 pages, illustrated, is a story of real life, abounding in incidents both pathetic and comic. It is predicted that its sale will exceed that of "Ned Nevins," which reached over 20,000 copies the first year. Grand chance for agents. Price of the book, $1 50. Agents favorably dealt with. Address (at this office), or Morgan Chapel, Boston.

Mr. Morgan's new lecture, "Hidden Hand; Facts and the Stage," is not from Mayhew's drama "Hidden Hand" with the pretended work over the "Hidden Hand," of Miss Braddon's "Captain," but the "Hidden of God's Power in real facts."

Advertisers will be found the new advertisement of Barrows & Young. Mr. Barrows is now East after a new supply of goods. They now have on hand a large stock of dress goods just received. Call and see them.

We, the official board of the 1st M. E. Church, in Andover, N. Y., do take great pleasure in commending the labors of our pastor, Rev. D. D. Cook and his estimable wife, for the past two years. Their labors as pastor and S. S. Superintendent have been attended with abundant success. One of the finest churches in our county is nearly ready for use; scores of souls have been converted, and the society greatly increased in strength and spiritually, through their untiring labors; and it is the providence of God they should be removed from us this conference year, will carry with them our unanimous good will and best wishes.

By the official Board and others.

Andover, Sept. 21st, 1874.

It has been generally reported and understood that the duplex ticket business has been discarded by the Erie—But it seems such is not the fact. However, the company is adopting another plan which is more stringent than any heretofore adopted. An order went in effect two days ago that a train shall be boarded by an officer of the company at some particular station—say Patterson for eastward-bound trains, who goes through the cars and takes up all the tickets. If a ticket has not been punched, if a passenger has paid his fare and the conductor has not given the necessary duplex ticket, or if any other irregularity has occurred, of course it is at once detected. This special conductor or officer boards trains at other places, as at Brokenaxon, or Middletown, or Deposit, &c., or may get aboard at any other point where the conductor is not expecting him. It will be seen that this last order is more severe than any of its predecessors, and hopes the conductors in a more direct manner.—Port Jervis Gazette.

The First District of Steuben.

The following from the Elmira Advertiser in reference to the Convention of the First District of Steuben:

The Republican Convention for the election of delegates to the State and Congressional Convention from the First Assembly District of Steuben was held at Bath on Saturday. It has already become known that in that district, as in the other, double or contesting delegations to the Congressional Conventions are chosen. This, of course adds to the complications already existing, and is to be regretted.

We state the facts of the case as they are represented to us, and our columns are open, as in the case of the Second District, to bear the other side. The statement which is made to us is substantially as follows:

Towns elected delegates for Hull as follows:
Bath	8
Prattsburgh	7
Wayland	7
Bradford	3
Urbana	0
Wayne	0
Total	25

Towns elected delegates for Hakes as follows:

Fremont	3
Dansville	4
Avoca	4
Cohocton	5
Howard	3
Fulteney	4
Total	25

The town of Wheeler, not included in either of the foregoing lists, pursued the unusual course of electing State delegates, and another and separate set to vote on the question of electing Congressional delegates. Both sets were elected by the same caucus, and furnished with credentials separately to each set, setting forth which was to vote for Congressional delegates. The Congressional delegates were elected for Hakes, were three in number, and therefore would have made a tie in the Convention, giving each candidate twenty-eight votes.

Hull had twenty-eight votes independent of the town of Wheeler, and without the town of Wheeler Hakes had only twenty-five. On the question of admitting the delegates from Wheeler to vote as they had been elected by the caucus to do, the convention by a vote of twenty-eight to twenty-five refused to allow those who had been chosen to vote on the Congressional question to take their seats for that purpose, but held that those who had been chosen to vote for State delegates should vote for the Congressional delegates also. The friends of Mr. Hakes regarded this decision as unjust, and as disfranchising the town. They therefore withdrew, twenty-five in number, and together with three from Wheeler, making twenty-eight, retired to another room and organized another Convention. Of this Convention the venerable General C. P. Marshall, of Wheeler, was one of the delegates so elected who was one of the delegates so elected was chairman. The delegates chosen by it, in favor of Mr. Hakes, are as follows:—John W. Davis, C. K. Minor, George Bennett, and Andrew W. Cook.

The other Convention, with the twenty-eight regular Hull delegates, and the three State delegates from Wheeler in addition, making thirty-one in all, proceeded to the election of delegates from Wheeler in addition, making thirty-one in all, proceeded to the election of delegates favorable to Mr. Hull as follows:—C. D. Champlin, O. J. Averill, H. H. Foskett and George W. Morehouse.

That is the state of the case, without paint or varnish, just as it has been represented to us. It is unfortunate that the difficulty has occurred, but it is right that the facts should be known. If these, as here given, are disputed, the Advertiser will freely give the benefit of its circulation to the other side.

Horse Trotting

Has been exceedingly lively in this place, the past week, and some were sold very cheap. We saw one—that was called a horse—sold for $12.75, and it really was a wonderful animal, he would scone walk, then go, but nevertheless, its owner claimed him to be a "wild driver." And we noticed as we were driving through Greenwood, crows sitting on the fence weeping over its contemplated death.

A young son of Dr. Charles Meine, met with a very painful accident on Monday last, while attempting to remove some hard powder from an old gun with a heated iron rod. An explosion took place during the rod through the right hand nearly in the centre, the heated rod remaining in the hand until removed by the Doctor. It is the same old story of the careless use of fire arms.—[Potter Enterprise.

Watch Your Carpets.—A New Trick.

Considerable outcry is being made in neighboring villages concerning the ravages of a new pest that has lately arisen, namely, the carpet bug. These bugs are described as being about twice the size of the common cimex lectularius, or bed bug, and covered with hair. Their color is a muddy black.—The first time these bugs were heard from in this section was in Dansville last year, where they did considerable damage. This year they have increased and extended their territory, for it seems that they have become a source of extreme annoyance in Brockport. A lady who resides in that village informed a reporter of this paper yesterday that there is not a single house that has escaped their depredations. In her house, she said, every room was infested with them, and they had eaten large holes in every carpet in the house.—Their favorite mode of procedure is to follow the seam of the boards and eat their way clear through. In some instances their way clear through. In some instances the carpet has been eaten through so clean that it looks as if it had been cut with a very sharp knife. In other rooms they had eaten large patches out or it, generally picking out the centre of a breadth. The lady referred to says she has tried everything to get rid of them, but without avail. Tobacco seems to make them livelier than ever, and as for bug poison, they regard it as a luxury, and grow fat on it. We have not as yet heard of their appearance in this city, although, being so close to us, it would be reasonable to expect a visit from them at any time. In the meanwhile, perhaps some of our scientific men will have a remedy prepared for them.—[Rochester Union.

A Navy Needs an Admiral.

ANDOVER, Sept. 24th, 1874.

Here is a whaling vessel in the harbor, her anchors up, and her sails unfurled. This ship left here a few days ago with a party of unmarried people, and sunk at ———, which caused the hearts of those who are dearest to them, to bleed! All that eye sees, is that she is a bad ship, and that it will cost years of labor to refit her. To those that were on board the profit of the voyage will be distributed as the case may be, to be squandered, or to be added to already existing hoards. But we shall not give a published history, which could it be revealed, and brought too vividly would transfigure her, and enshrine her in an almost awful light.

A little advice to parents, concerning their daughters, will not injure them a particle; as there are many that think they are too strict with them, and want them to enjoy this world of pleasure. I say, do not allow them too much freedom, don't be afraid to do your duty, as this is a season when the youthful must cease to be young.

Not a few of the evils of the present day arise alone from the various shows, games, and dances, which are intended to be exhibited in it, but, from the very reason that they will allow their daughters to stay away from home nights, to pass them with another girl, and while the mother thinks her out of danger and asleep with her friend, she is roaming the streets, and there flirting and seeking for an acquaintance with some strange wild-fire—agent. Be careful to know with whom you let them associate; don't let them run the streets till mid-night, as there are many bad boys and girls that are just delighted in such foolish nonsense. And when too late she will cry, "Oh, father place me once more in the entrance of life, and let me choose a better way."

We do not intend to conclude without a few remarks about our young men who pride themselves in the downfall of our girls, and are always ready to deceive them; because they think no one will say anything about their rascalities. What can they think of themselves, and what will people say of them, when parties leave here, for a day, and stay three or four? Is it because they have any respect for themselves or the girls? Some of them think they know more than their grand-fathers, and allow nothing sensible or reasonable to get into their numbskull. The only way they can be cured of this idiocy, is with a repeated State prison shower bath.

Now, would it not be well, if we should reflect over these facts, and think that we have to educate not only rational, but accountable beings; and, remembering this, should we not be solicitous to let our daughters learn of the well-taught, and associate with the well-bred? In training them, should we not carefully cultivate intellect, implant religion, and cherish modesty? Then, whatever is engaging in manners, would be the natural result of whatever is just in sentiment, correct in principle; softness would grow out of humility, and external delicacy would spring from purity of heart. Then the decorums, the proprieties, the elegancies, and even the graces, as far as they are simple, pure, and honest, would follow as an almost inevitable consequence.

From Steuben County.

We the undersigned farmers of Greenwood beg leave to state that on the 6th of August, 1874, we attended a trial of the mowing machine, so called the Eureka, manufactured in Towanda Bradford County, Pa. The trial was on a steep side hill of 7 acres, rough and stony and the farm of Mrs. Manning & Son, Greenwood. The ground was quarter pitch, the machine done its work splendidly adapted itself to the unevenness of the ground, left the grass in good condition for curing, easy on team, and durability of machine. We thought it impossible for any machine to mow on the ground. It is a direct draft machine which principle admits the cutting of a five feet swath with less labor for team than is required to cut a four feet swath on the old side draft principle. The Eureka machine being reversible is peculiarly adapted to cutting on side hills and in lodged grass, therefore we unanimously recommend it to all Farmers for the year 1875, for further proof call on the Agent, Levi Pease, Greenwood, Steuben County, N. Y., or at the works in Towanda, Bradford county, Pa

Utica and Little Falls Cheese Market.

UTICA, N. Y., Sept. 7.—8,000 boxes of cheese were offered here to-day, and sold at prices from 13 1-2 to 14 1-4 cts. 1,000 boxes were sold at the outside figure.

AT LITTLE FALLS.

8,500 boxes were offered, and 8,000 sold chiefly at a uniform price of 14c.

Dairy Manufactures.

The Utica Herald prints tables containing condensed reports from a large number of the cheese factories and creameries of New York State, of the August manufacture. For the purpose of comparison we have summarized the reports from the different counties, using those reports only which admit of full comparison. The amounts are not given, as estimates of the full production in the counties.

General increase, in August 1874, over August 1873, 3 per cent. Average date to which cheese is sold, Aug. 5.

From the foregoing it appears that the general increase throughout the dairy counties of the State has been 3 per cent. over the make of August 1873. There has been a slight disposition to hold the cheese as compared with a month ago, for then it was sold on an average up to July 9, while now, with a month's progress in time, the date of average sale has only moved to August 5. The last column of the above table, showing the falling off in the daily make from August 1 to September 1 this year, marks the shrinkage of milk from the cows. That this is not uniform is because of different conditions affecting the flow in different counties, and by a greater disposition in some to withdraw the milk from the factories and indulge in a little old-fashioned butter-making at home. This disposition will continue so long as the present high prices for butter shall be maintained.

Barrows & Young of the cash emporium are making extensive preparations for the fall trade. Their store is being filled from cellar to garret with new and fashionable, making the almost preparations to obtain goods at bottom prices in order to meet the demands of the times. Only a reference to their trade of the Fall and Winter of 1873, need be made to ensure what their intentions are for the coming Fall. The campaign has already commenced, by throwing their plans of business, and show by their willingness to operate, that goods are sold at bottom prices, great inducements are offered in every department. In the second story will be found a large stock of boots, crockery, glass and stone ware. Carpeting, oil cloths, baskets, &c. Therefore call and see for yourselves, and you will acknowledge that truth has been spoken.

Nothing so Successful as Success.

Magnetism a Matter of Science in its Application for the Cure of Disease.

Extraordinary Cures by Dr. J. P. Bryant, the Magnetic Healer, Rooms Nos. 35, 37, and 39 Powers' Block, Rochester N. Y.

Probably in no department of science have species and pretenders so injured the reputation and success of true scientists as in medicine. The efforts of reformers and discoverers in this branch of learning to use new principles and theories, are perpetually hampered by their abuse in the hands of impudent ignorance. The progress came to take, in regard to the remarkable advances which pathological science is making, is not to reject alike all pretentions who make use of new and valuable development, but to patronise only those who give indubitable proof in the success of their practice, and the testimony of the press and people, that they stand the true pioneers of medical science, and appreciate the scope and power of the methods and remedies they employ

Dr Bryant possesses a full and complete acquaint ance with the principles of psychology, which must ever form the basis of correct medical practice, added to his remarkable magnetic power, complete in theory, aided and perfected by fourteen years of practice, and it is evident that his present increasing patronage is attributable, to some extent, to the wonderful cures he performed at the Waverly House in this city during in the years of 1868, '74 and '75.

While not professing to work miracles, or cure all diseases, Dr. Bryant can and does claim to reach many diseases heretofore thought incurable, and as the doctor is no stranger in Rochester, invalids need not exercise caution in consulting him.

We append a few names of persons cured by him from five to ten years since, who are living advertisements in his favor, all of whom were cured during his former visits to Rochester—and prove the permanent effect of his mode of treatment:

Hon. A. G. Wheeler, Police Justice, Rochester, N. Y. Partial Anchylosis of the Knee Joint. Cured.

Mr. Gideon Leavenworth, 130 Lake avenue, Rochester, N. Y., Rheumatism—Cured with one treatment.

Mr. Frank Wakerman, 43 King street, Rochester, N. Y. Inflammatory Rheumatism. Confined to his bed six weeks, unable to move a finger or toe. Had tried the most celebrated of treatment without success. Made to walk with one treatment, and cured.

Mrs Martha N. White, Hinsdale, Cattaraugus county, N. Y. General Weakness, Spinal Disease and Female Weakness.—Had been confined most of the time for two years and was unable to sit up a few moments at a time. Cured.

Miss Jane Sheridan, 29 Edinburgh St. Rochester, N. Y. Hip Disease eight years. Obliged to use crutches all the time. Left crutches and walked away, without assistance, after a single operation.

Miss A. Morris Wait, Walworth, Wayne county, N. Y. Sciatica of long standing. Unable to walk without crutches for three years. Cured in one minute. Left her crutches and walked away.

Rev. George E. Havens, Avon, Livingston county, N. Y. Chronic Inflammation of the Knee Joints. Unable to walk without crutches. Made to walk as well as any one in two operations.

Miss Maria Dart, Johnson's Creek, Niagara county, N. Y. Hip Disease and Spinal Affection. Obliged to use crutches 31 years. Instantly cured, and left her crutches.

Mr. Jesse Blake, Livonia, Livingston county, N. Y. Stiff Ankle, caused by a wound from an ax. Very sensitive, and for two years unable to walk naturally.—Perfectly cured.

Mr. Alonzo Miles, Monroeville, Jefferson county, N. Y. Great Nervous Debility, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia three years had been given up by his physicians as incurable, and advised to resort to a foreign climate as the only means of comfort.

Miss Hester Fuller, Mexico, N Y Paralysis of Optic Nerve. Made to see perfectly clear and distinct with two operations.

Mrs. Eliza Pitcam, 58 Blandina street, Utica, N Y Scrofulous Tumor eight years. Cured with two treatments.

Mr. Joel Hinman, Willowvale, Oneida county, N Y When 25 years standing.—Perfectly removed with one treatment.

Miss Rosa Waterman, Walworth, Wayne county, N Y Catarrh. Cured with three treatments

Miss Mary E. Seely Elbridge, N Y Hip Disease eight years; seven years unable to walk without crutches. Has left her crutches, and can walk as well as any one.

Mr. Charles Gerham, Elbridge N Y.—Chronic Inflammatory of the Knee Joint. Cartilage badly thickened. Four months unable to walk, except on crutches. Left crutches and walked away after one operation of ten minutes.

Mrs Welcome Spooner, Collamer, N Y Fever Sore. Great suffering for years.—Perfectly cured with four operations.

Miss Milla E. Short, Hemlock Lake, Livingston county, N Y Hip Disease, five years. Cured and left crutches.

Mr Edwin H. Yates, Syracuse, N Y Cured of Hip Disease, and left his crutches in one treatment

Miss Mary Barker, 176 State street, Rochester, N Y Bronchial Congestion Cured.

Mr John McPherson, Mumford, N Y Diseased Liver and Kidney. Spinal Irritation and bad Constipation for eleven years Cured.

Mrs H S Colwell, Portville, Cattaraugus county, N Y Fatty Tumor. Cured.

Mr. Theo S Watkins, 24 Stone street, Rochester, N Y Ovarian Tumor, Cured

Mr. John Scales, Clay, N Y Chronic Inflammation of the Kidneys and Bladder—Perfectly cured.

Mrs Harriet Lincoln, Spencerport, Monroe county, N Y Asthma, Perfectly cured in one minute

Mr. H Tift, Pierrepont Manor, Jefferson county, N Y Bad case of Bronchitis, and Bleeding of the Lungs, Perfectly cured.

Mrs Catherine Flint, Linchfield, Herkimer county, N Y Spinal Irritation and Nervous Debility, of long standing. Cured.

In fifteen minutes was restored to her natural condition, and perfectly free from pain

Mr William Kent, 191 Niagara street, Buffalo, N Y Blindness. Eyes and eyeballs terribly diseased, Poor Invalids unable to bear a ray of light. Perfectly restored with five operations

Mr F Hubbell, postmaster at Geddes, Onondaga county, N Y Rheumatism, or Inflammation of the Lungs, with hemorrhage or bleeding or partial loss of voice Perfectly cured

Mrs Nathaniel Knight, Webster, Monroe county, N Y Complete loss of voice Instantly cured.

Mr J T Bloomfield, conductor on Detroit and Toledo railroad. Deaf fifteen years. Made to hear distinctly in five minutes.

These are facts beyond controversy, the people named and thousands of others, were sick, as stated, and were cured by a natural process, far preferable to nauseous medicine and painful operations, and are a few of the living evidences of the superiority of this method.

The great power employed in magnetism which power the doctor possesses to an immense extent and this constitutes the healing principle, an inexhaustible supply being communicated through the physical organization by this unseen but not unfelt influence. Dr Bryant is aware that such things will be regarded by most readers as idle tales, as every new development in the world's progress, whether in religion, science or morals, ever has been, and probably always will be, by the many who have ever been prone to substitute the fractious-ness of educational dogmas of the day for the living and universal truths that each successive wave of progress is perpetually dispensing and offering to the acceptance of mankind.

Dr. Bryant is candid, and may be trusted for integrity, and should not be slandered or discouraged as a deceiver. Medical science is not yet perfected. The alchemy of human life and of health is yet much of a mystery. If Galileo should be imprisoned for his astronomical innovations, Fulton laughed at, while inventing his steam navigation; Morner, a skillful physician, for his biological eccentricities, Dr Bryant need not think to escape the shaft of obloquy as a universal prevalence of his system, which he innocently and enthusiastically athleistes. 200w4
