October Milk Price Is Set at $4.63 Per Hundred

New York, Nov. 13—A uniform price of $4.63 per hundred will be paid to dairy farmers for their October deliveries to pool-approved plants in the New York milkshed, it was announced today by Dr. A. J. Pollard, Acting Market Administrator. The uniform price in September was $4.40 and in October a year ago was $4.18 a hundredweight.

At the same time the acting administrator announced a producer butterfat differential for October of 5.6 cents for each tenth of a pound of fat above or below the 3.5 per cent standard.

Dr. Pollard also reported that daily average production per farm last month dropped 22 pounds below a year ago to 321 pounds.

Total farm value of last month's production is $24,311,209.75, made up of $23,425,762.43 at the uniform price and $885,447.32 in butterfat and location premiums.

The iron dome of the Capitol in Washington, D. C., weighs a total of 8,909,200 pounds.

Christmas Seal Campaign Opens Next Monday

The 1950 Christmsa Seal Sale will officially open on Monday, November 20, when Allegany county residents, along with millions of others throughout the United States, will receive sheets of the seals in their mail. The seals will bring greetings from the Allegany Health and Tuberculosis Association, and a reminder that the continued work of the association in fighting tuberculosis in this county depends upon the use local residents make of the seals.

The annual seal sale, which will continue through Christmas, is the only appeal during the year for funds to carry on the year-around tuberculosis control program of the Allegany Health and Tuberculosis Association. Quota for Allegany county, the minimum needed to carry out the association's 1951 program, is set at $10,200, according to Mrs. Wayne Stout, county seal sale chairman.

Of the money raised in this county, 82 per cent will be used within the county to fight tuberculosis while the remainder will be forwarded to the state association, which, in turn, allocates six per cent to the national. Thus, 94 per cent of seal sale funds are used to support tuberculosis control programs within the state.

Seal sale money finances such services in the county as: case-finding program; health education services to schools and community in tuberculosis; mental health, social hygiene and general health protection; services to Allegany county patients at Mt. Mororis tuberculosis hospital and cooperation with other agencies.

"Great progress has been made in the conquest of tuberculosis,' said Mrs. Stout, "but there is still a great deal to be done if we want to make our communities and our nation safe from the scourge of tuberculosis. Even today there is one American dying of tuberculosis every thirteen minutes. The disease is still killing over 40,000 people in the United States annually. And tuberculosis leads the causes of death from disease among our young people between 15 and 35."

"A great deal has been accomplished since the first seal sale. Yet the toll of lives and suffering and economic loss which tuberculosis still exacts in this country leaves no room for complacency. That is why the 1950 seal sale is as important as that first one in 1907. That is why I urge everyone in Allegany county to buy Christmas seals. And when you buy them, use them. They carry with them a health message that is vital to every county resident."

Sister Kenny Drive To Be Held In This Area

"Seven Western New York counties will launch Sister Kenny campaigns Nov. 20 through Dec. 15 to help provide Kenny treatment for area polio victims and maintain the two local Kenny clinics," Theodore Richmond, Jr., President of the Western New York Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation, Inc., announced this week. Participating counties include Allegany, Cattaraugus, Chautauqua, Genesee, Niagara, Orleans, and Wyoming. Erie county is excluded from the drive since Buffalo and Erie county residents already have contributed to the Foundation through the recent Community Chest campaign.

Pointing out that since August 1947, the Kenny Treatment Center has cared for a number of polio victims outside the immediate Buffalo vicinity, Richmond said that volunteer workers throughout the seven counties were "more than willing and anxious to lead Kenny Campaigns in their communities in order to contribute financially to Western New York's Kenny clinics."

In addition to the Kenny Treatment Center, the Foundation now maintains another outpatient clinic at the Sisters of Charity hospital. Funds raised in the Western New York appeal will help defray expenses at both clinics as well as provide the Kenny Treatment for polio victims who reside outside Erie County.

These expenses include services of trained nurses, trained Kenny Technicians, ambulance and station wagon transportation of patients, equipment and maintainence of both Kenny clinics, lunches and other meals provided patients in accordance with special diets as prescribed by attending physicians.

For the past five years, the Western New York Kenny Foundation has conducted a fund-raising appeal covering the entire Eighth Judicial District. Now, with Erie County residents contributing through the Community Chest, the Kenny Foundation will set up a seperate Western New York Fund to care for polio victims who are non-residents of Erie County.

C. P. Duggan of Wellsville is the chairman of the campaign for this area.
