Miserable Mike

"Sure, Mike, me boy, and what's the idea of wearing a mourning band on your left leg?" asked Cassidy, wonderingly.

"Me mither has passed away, an' all an' all," said Mike miserably.

Cassidy scratched his head puzzled. "Why, then, do you wear it on your leg, instead of on your arm?" he asked.

"Well, she was my stepmother," said Mike.

"Willie" Answers

motors, the place could be twice as popular during the summer.

Too bad you are up in the wilds as we know you would cast your vote in favor of this subject when it comes up at the special town election December 6th.

You were telling us also, Superman, that you had an agent working for you who covers Lake Placid and had shown you most of the spots in that vicinity. We have been in Lake Placid village and were in some of the spots while deer hunting, but you forgot to mention what spots he had shown you, but perhaps you'd better not say anything more about it as some wives are so non-understandable.

Perhaps you can tell us how the phone system is up that way, Boy, or do they have phones there? Down here a lot of the folks are wondering (especially we fire boys) how we are going to manage the fire siren and emergency call work when the dial goes in, as we will be on our own after completion of same. It would not be fair to make the firemen stand 24hour duty at the hall free of charge, or would it be fair to have to pay a three-man shift by the village for this purpose. And it also wouldn't be fair or safe to depend on one person or another answering the phone at their home as there is a chance that an emergency call would come in while that person was taking a trip to the John or skipped down cellar after a beer.

So, Shovel Man, let us know if you can what some of the other burgs up that way do when they go dial, at least that would partly square you with Andover for the things you have done in the past.

Still your friend,
"Willie"

P.S.—We did see Prior the other day and he told us to let you know his cabins are well stocked for the deer season, but like "Paddy" he also hesitates to go to Saranac Lake for his vacation. (Can't understand what is the matter with that place as lots of Andover folks used to go there and liked it). He did tell us to let you know that he would be glad to serve you over at the Diner any time you're in town at the same rate as you stipulated, and also in advance. He too wants you to take up skiing.
