Belmont Man Killed By Train 7 Monday

Charles S. (Stub) Jones of Belmont was instantly killed Monday noon when Erie train 7 struck the telephone company truck which he was driving on the Noble street crossing in Belmont, about 400 feet from his home.

His body was thrown 80 feet along with the truck engine, into the dooryard of the Edward Rouse home and parts of the truck were thrown over 150 feet.

Mr. Jones had been an employee of the New York Telephone Company for the past 35 years and is well known in county Odd Fellow circles where he has been active for many years.

He is survived by his wife, a daughter, a son and two grandchildren.
