NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, pursuant to the statutes of this state, and of the following notice from the Secretary of State, that the general election in this State will be held in the several districts on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday of November next, at which election the officers named in the following notice will be elected.

STATE OF NEW YORK, } ss.
SECRETARY OF STATE'S OFFICE,
Albany, August 1st, 1874.

Sir:—In behalf of the State of New York, I hereby give notice that, at the general election to be held on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday of November next, the following officers will be elected, to wit:

A Governor, in the place of John A. Dix;
A Lieutenant Governor, in the place of John C. Robinson;
A Canal Commissioner, in the place of Alexander Stevenson;
A Canal Commissioner, in the place of Nelson K. Hopkins;
A Judge of the Court of Appeals, in the place of Charles J. Folger, whose term of office will expire on the last day of December next;
A Supreme Court Judge in the place of Charles Andrews, whose term of office will expire on the last day of December next;
A Representative in the Forty-fourth Congress of the United States, for the district now composed of Steuben, Allegany, Cattaraugus and Chautauqua;
Also to be elected for said County
A member of Assembly;
A District Attorney for said County;
Two Justices of Sessions, in the place of William C. Mathews and Orson D. Carpenter;
A Coroner, in the place of William M. Trumbull, whose term of office will expire on the last day of December next.
Also, two Coroners in the place of Horace H. Spencer and Frederick Spalding who failed to qualify.

The attention of Supervisors and Town and City Assessors is respectfully directed to chapter 325, section 2, of the Laws of 1874, entitled "An act to provide for certain amendments by the Constitution, to be submitted to the electors of the State at the general election, the Electors Public Statute," passed May 5, 1874, which provides for submitting at the said general election, on the third day of November next, proposed amendments to sections two, three, four, seven, eight, ten and twelve, of article one of the Constitution of the State of New York, and adding thereto two additional articles to be known as articles fifteen and sixteen, and prescribes the form of ballot for voting thereon, also proposed amendments of the Constitution, with and act prescribing form of ballot and manner of voting thereon, and providing for publication and posting of said proposed amendments designated by the Board of Supervisors of Allegany County, to publish the Session Laws of the year 1874.

In pursuance of law, etc.
HENRY C. WELLES, Jr.,
Secretary of State.

Mortgage Sale.

By virtue of a mortgage bearing date the first day of April 1871, duly executed by Alonzo Hopkins, late of the town of Almond, county of Allegany, and State of New York, deceased, and delivered as the executor of said deceased, to the undersigned, to secure the payment of the sum of eight hundred dollars, with interest thereon from the first day of April, 1874, according to the condition of said mortgage, and default having been made in the payment of said sum of eight hundred dollars, or any part of said interest thereon, for more than six months after the same became due and payable, and no action or proceeding at law having been instituted to recover the said debt or any part thereof, notice is hereby given that by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises described in said mortgage, at the time of the first publication of this notice to all bidders at the office of the Sheriff of Allegany County, in the village of Belmont, N. Y., on the 23d day of April, 1874, at twelve o'clock at noon, in the forenoon of that day, which said premises are described in said mortgage as follows: Beginning at the south east corner of lot number fifty-three, thence westerly on said south line of said lot one hundred and sixty-two (162) rods to the place of beginning, containing fifty-three acres of land more or less, and now known in the records of said Almond as
