Local Legion Bows To Alfred-Almond By 52-42 Score

The Andover Legion basketball team lost its first league game of the season to Alfred-Almond 52-42 on the local court last Thursday night. This loss put Andover, Alfred-Almond and the Modern Cleaners in a three-way tie for first place. Alfred-Almond was led by big Dale Lorow, who has seemed to be Andover's jinx for the past five years. Lorow took scoring honors with 20 points.

Alfred-Almond got off to an early lead in the first quarter but the locals came back and were only two points behind at the intermission 24-22. Alfred-Almond broke loose with 10 quick points on fast breaks early in the third quarter and Andover could never get them back. Carl Witzel and "Bob" Baker led Andover with 12 points each and it was Witzel's great team play and rebound work that kept Andover in the game. The locals looked ragged at times due to many defensive blunders and not moving the ball, missing many lazy two pointers right in under the basket.

Legion Nips Jasper 67-59

The Legion team won its seventh league game against one defeat Monday night by edging Jasper 67-59 in an overtime game on the Jasper court.

"Dick" Foster, last year's Allegany-Steuben league high scorer, poured in 31 points to keep Jasper in the lead most of the game. Andover was behind 11 points going into the last quarter. They switched to a man-to-man defense and went ahead only to have Jasper tie up the game with only seconds remaining. "Jim" Burgett was awarded a foul shot with 20 seconds remaining. Andover waived the foul shot and took the ball out of bounds playing for only one shot in the final seconds. Karcanes, with four seconds remaining, missed a shot that rolled off the rim and was laid up and in by Witzel, but the referee ruled the gun went off before the shot left Witzel's hand so the game went into overtime.

Andover scored 12 points in the overtime and Jasper notched four. Baker, Gorsuch, and Witzel had 16, 14 and 13 points respectively for Andover.

The Andover Legion second team, playing their last game as a second team because there are only ten men left, have combined into one team. Andover trimmed Scio 74-68 at Scio with Karcanes and "Bob" Baker scoring 45 points between them. Karcanes netted 28 and Baker 17. Buckley scored 24 for Scio.

The seconds swamped the K. of C. from Wellsville 52-29 on the local court with "Whitey" Gorsuch scoring 20 points and Karcanes netting 14. Merrick was high for K. of C. with 10 points. The preliminary team won games and lost two.

Legion Goes to Greenwood Monday Night

The legionnaires will journey to Greenwood next Monday night for one of their toughest tests of the year. Andover defeated Greenwood 73-72 in their first meeting and Greenwood will be out to knock the locals out of their place tie spot.

The Legion will be playing two games for the next three weeks and will not be home until mid February.

The Legion team has been invited to Wellsville to play an all-star community league team on the night, February 2nd. The proceeds of this game will go to the March of Dimes drive. There will be a little-league game prior to the main game. The main game will start around 9:30 p. m. The all-stars will feature some of the best ball players in the county.
