BE MY VALENTINE

by Eunice Hall

Getting valentines is the most enjoyable thing in February. The biggest trouble that boys can find with Valentine's Day is that it comes out of hiding only once during the year. There are the other 11 months, of course, but February 14th is the easiest day on which to say I-like-you-fine.

Girls should be even fonder of the holiday than the boys are. For one thing, many girls enjoy making pretty valentines. Moreover, the only other occasion when they can come right out and tell a fellow what a swell guy he looks like to them is Leap Year.

I think it is a good idea to send valentines. It's one of the best uses for the post office department since Benjamin Franklin came up with the idea for one.

Don't stop to worry whether or not any given guy is going to send you a valentine. Just in case he doesn't know, Valentine's Day is a day when you should see how many people you can happily surprise.

Sending a valentine doesn't automatically make everything hunky-dorey. Some valentines are downright embarrasing. You know the kind that look as if they were intended for a wife to send to a husband after five years of marriage. Certainly, not for a girl to send to a fellow she's dated a few times, if at all.

The comic valentines, on the other end, are even worse. Many of them aren't funny, but just cruel. If you want to make a hit with the one you're sending a valentine to, stay as far away from the comic valentines as you would from a piece of sticky candy.

But, by all means, send a valentine. Don't try for anything new and unusual. When a fellow gets a card, the simpler it is the sweeter it seems. Valentines are a smile, and maybe a wink, but not a pledge of devotion. You can feel free to send them as you would feel free to wave at a friend as you pass in the hall.

IN MY OPINION

By Anita Nichols

What do you think about drafting women?

Bill Glover: "I think it is a good idea. They want equal rights so they ought to fight too."

Wayne Atwell: "They say men and women have equal rights. If they can draft men, why not women?"

Lois Ruger: "I think if it is necessary women should fight along side the men, but only in case of an emergency."

Joyce Spicer: "I don't think they should be as a woman's place is here at home keeping the home fires burning for our boys."

Dick Hancock: "I think women sould hold some of these desk jobs and send more men over across and do the job the way it should have been done a long time ago."

Eunice Hall: "I don't think women should be drafted unless it is absolutely necessary."

Colleen McAndrews: "It would be perfectly all right to draft women for office jobs so that more of the men will be free to fight."

Janet Hall: "It would be all right to draft women if it is absolutely necessary."

Billie Ryan: "I think women should be drafted."

JUNIORS WELCOME NEW STUDENT

by Colleen McAndrews

Last Monday the junior class welcomed a new student, James Smith from Wellsville. "Jim" lives with his mother, Mrs. Margaret Smith in Wellsville. He was born April 4, 1934 in Newton Falls, N. Y. The subjects that he is taking are mechanical drawing, English III, history, introduction to business and biology.

Some of his favorites are: Color, blue; car, Ford; book, "Hit and Run"; actor, Danny Kaye; actress, Joan Evans; singers, Jo Stafford and Dean Martin; subject, mechanical drawing; song, "Goofus"; food, hot dogs; movie, "Tea For Two"; sport, football; pastime, shooting pool.

When "Jim" was asked how he likes Andover he replied that he likes it very well.

PANTHERS TROUNCE SCIO 47-30

Last Friday night the Panthers downed Scio on their hardwood 47-30. The Purple and White men came out hard and built up a lead so that a lot of substituting could be done. At half-time the Scio Tigers were trailing by a score of 20-9. High man for Andover was Big Ronnie Monahan with eight, who followed by Fisher, Atwell and Les Monahan with six apiece. For Scio it was Corcoran who netted 16 points.

Two junior varsity men also played in the varsity game. They were Slim Les Monahan and Lanky Slug Slocum.

Box score:

"HARVEY"

by Charity Howland

Harvey, shivering with cold, journeyed on the bus going to Scio and was immediately warm. He found that Gay Rogers was with Abe Davis, as usual and Martin Smith with Jackie Vickers. Ann Wood and Carol Nye were harmonizing with Bill McNeill. Roger Phelps was trying to persuade Jocelyn Joyce to sit with him, but Jocelyn wouldn't be persuaded. Rodney Wheeler looked lost without his sidekick, "Millie" Miles. Pat Crandall was remembering all the old songs with the help of Lucille Smith. Sandy Bostwick was keeping her hands warm with some new light blue Angora mittens. Dave Conde, Mike Smith and Avery Mead were just as silly as ever. Jesse Grossman was trying to make everyone believe he was "Hopalong Cassidy" shooting off his cap guns. Ann Marie Joyce and Margaret Daley were as happy as could be.

Early Monday morning Harvey heard that Mary Brown, Wayne Atwell, Marion Milligan, Ronald Atwell, Ann Marie Joyce and Dale Pelton enjoyed the dance at the Clouds. Harvey wants to congratulate Dale Pelton on winning first prize at the Clouds talent show last Wednesday night.

Last week the G.A.A. played Greenwood and lost 30-22. It was a hard-fought game with Harvey rooting every minute. Greenwood comes here in a week. Let's all get out and support the girls.

This coming Friday night the basketball team plays Richburg on the local court. This, Harvey exclaims, should be a very exciting game. Let's all root the teams on to victory.

Harvey recently heard the F. H. A. was selling vanilla and lemon flavoring for 50 cents a bottle.

The senior class has promised that the year book will be one of the best and everyone should have one. The subscription costs a dollar now and a dollar in May. Only a total of two dollars for a wonderful book of memories of 1950-51.

Harvey notices that another senior couple are taking the limelight, Dean Fisher and Theresa Joyce. The F.F.A. boys are sporting new rings with their emblems on them. The F.H.A. girls are ordering bracelets.

Harvey tells all to keep bundled up and not to catch cold. He runs too fast.

WILDCATS TRIM SCIO 50-30

Friday night the J. V's journeyed to Scio to take on the Scio Junior Varsity and came out on top by a 50-30 score.

Andover jumped to the lead at the opening whistle and just kept pouring it on to the tune of 50-30 until the final gun.

The visitors led 13-5 at the end of the first quarter, 30-17 at half-time, 42-26 at the close of the third quarter, and finally won at 50-30.

Rangy "Slug" Slocum led the winners with 15 points and was followed by lanky "Les" Monahan with 11 points and curly "Moose" Wheaton who had 10. Almeter was top for the home team with 13 points and Pitznick was next with six.

BOLIVAR EDGES CUBS 33-29

On the Bolivar court last Tuesday night the Bolivar Junior High team took a gruelling, hard fought game from the locals 33-29.

The first half was very close but the home team held a 20-15 edge at half-time. The cubs kept tying the score repeatedly in the last half but could'nt quite pull ahead and Bolivar took the contest 33-29.

"Skyview" Harkenrider was high for the locals with 12 points and "Whizzer" Howland was next with eight.

B. Barney was top scorer for the winners with 11 points and he was closely followed by Case who netted ten.

G.A.A. LOSE TO GREENWOOD 30-22

The girl's basketball team traveled to Greenwood last Tuesday where they were defeated by a score of 22 to 30. Among the girls who went were Gay Rogers, Charity Howland, Mimsi Briggs, Eunice Hall, Mary Anne Joyce, Beverly Loucks, Patricia Reisman, Ann Wood and Mary Lou Clark.

Practice was held last Friday night and all those wishing to play Greenwood in the near future were required to attend.

TOT SPOT

by Mary Brown

Another week has rolled around and it is once more time to take you on a tour through the halls of A.C.S.

Let's see what's been going on upstairs. In Mrs. Robison's kindergarten 13 tots are absent from school with chicken pox.

Connie Meyn and Louis Fulkerson were appointed to select valentines to decorate the bulletin board.

As I glanced around the room my attention was called to the bulletin board which is now decorated with pictures drawn freehand by the kindergarteners. Petie Gath drew an excellent picture of Donald Duck running away from home.

Down in Miss Evans' room Judy Clarke and Ann McAndrew will celebrate birthdays this week. Robert Vickers and Donald Kemp have perfect attendance. Mrs. Connor is very proud of her tots who gave $3.50 to the polio drive.

Brian Frizell was welcomed back to school recently by his classmates. Brian was ill with the chicken pox. Connie Bronson visited her grandmother in Corning, Sunday.

The children in Mrs. Hall's first grade have been busy making valentine decorations for their room.

In this room I also found some victims of chicken pox. Gail Wightman, Ruth Waters, Gary O'Dell and Alecia Reisman have all returned to school after their illness.

As I stepped into Mrs. Carmody's room, I discovered that second graders also have chicken pox. Eight have been absent for this reason.

Along with this bad news I also found some pleasant news to tell you. Lyle Nye, Virginia Lewis, Maxine Mead, Clifford Grover, Hugh Church and Allen

MEET OUR TEACHERS

by Gay Rogers

Moving our spotlight to the first grade we find Mrs. Monica Connor. She was born in Andover and has four children, John, Mary Ellen, Michael and James. John is in the Air Force in San Antonio, Texas; Mary Ellen is in the St. James School of Nursing, Hornell and Michael and James are in high school.

On the radio she enjoys Doris Day and Bing Crosby, while Paul Douglas and Loretta Young are her movie favorites. If her wishes could be fulfilled, she would have baked ham for dinner and then a quiet evening of reading a book by H. M. Robinson, after enjoying a ride in a blue Buick.

Mrs. Connor dislikes "noisy movies," and she enjoys sewing and reading. She attended Andover High, Canisteo Training Class, and Geneseo State Teachers College. She now resides on East Center street in Andover.

SENIOR INTERVIEWS

By Phyllis Burger

One of this week's seniors is Ruby Helen Ordiway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ordiway of Alfred Station. Ruby, who has attended A. C. S. for ten years, was born February 2, 1932 in Andover. She has three brothers, Kenneth, Paul and Dale.

Majoring in homemaking, the subjects she is taking this year are English IV, history, homemaking and typing.

While in high school, Ruby has been a member of the chorus for three years, the F. H. A. for two, the N. R. A. for one and the library council for two years.

Among her favorites are:
Food: Spanish rice.
Color: Blue.
Book: "Gone With the Wind."
Author: Pearl Buck.
Singers: Margaret Whiting and Vaughn Monroe.
Actor: Dana Andrews.
Actress: June Allyson.
Movie: "Three Came Home."
Car: Chevrolet.
Song: "My Heart Cries for You."
Subject: Homemaking.
Pastime: Dancing.
Sport: Basketball.
Pet peeve: People who try to be comical.
Ambition: To be a beautician.

One Thing Left

The Sunday drivers had picked the farmer's fruit and flowers, and their car was full of plunder. Pointing to an unexplored highway, they inquired of the farmer:

"Shall we take this road back to the city?"

"You might as well," replied the farmer, "you've got almost everything else."

Intelligence is like a river—the deeper it is, the less noise it makes.

Three to One!

Three Boy Scouts were at a Scouts' meeting, and told the Scoutmaster they had done their "good deed" that day.

"Well, boys, what did you do?" asked the master.

"We helped an old lady across the street a while ago," chimed the boys in unison.

"And did it take all three of you to do that?" asked the master suspiciously.

"Yes, it did," again chimed the boys. Then the smallest one of the three added: "She didn't want to go."

Even though you can't win it'll give you a thrill to make the man ahead break a record.
