YOUR SOUND EFFECTS

by Eunice Hall

Have you noticed lately that your friends have started running with their fingers in their ears when you are talking? If so, it is probably time you retuned your voice, especially if yours falls in one of the following categories:

Are you making six-year-old sounds with 16-year-old lungs? May be because your relatives used to think that the cute baby voice was too cute for words. Can't blame you for prolonging the cute age, but it's time you grew up.

Do you sound as if you have a clothes pin on your nose? Or if everything you say sounds like you were discouraged and complaining about it? Using your nose as a voice box instead of what Nature provided is a lazy habit.

If you have a soft, low voice and run all your words together you could practice certain voice exercises which the English department will gladly give you.

YOUR HANDS

By Colleen McAndrews

How often do you look at your hands? I don't mean just an occassional glance at them during study hall or lunch period. I mean how often do you give your hands and fingernails a thorough inspection?

Beauty experts say that it only takes a few minutes every day to show your hands the kindness they deserve.

There are nine important points to remember in regard to care of your hands and nails.

1. Cleanliness: Wash your hands thoroughly in warm soapy water, and scrub around and under the nails with a good stiff brush at least once a day. For stubborn grime or stains well under the nails, use a cotton-tipped orange stick, dipped in lemon juice or polish remover. When hands and nails are as clean as can be, rinse off all of the soap and dry them very carefully.

2. Softness and smoothness: Use hand cream or lotion on your hands every time after you have them in water. When you go out of doors in the cold, gloves or mittens help the hands to stay smooth.

3. Chipped polish: If your nail polish gets chipped get out the remover and remove it because patched jobs seldom look good.

4. Nail biting: If you have carried this problem over from your childhood days, it would be best to break yourself of the habit before you do real harm to your hands.

5. Cleaning and shaping the nails: First remove all old polish with an oily remover and then shape the nails with an emery board. Soak fingertips several minutes in warm, soapy water, then scrub with your stiff nail-brush and dry them thoroughly.

6. The cuticle: Push it back gently with cotton-tipped orange stick dipped in cuticle remover. Do not cut an unbroken cuticle.

7. Base coat: To protect your nails and help to prevent chipping apply clear base coat to each nail.

8. Polish: Apply polish, if any with a not-too-full brush. Dip brush for each nail.

9. Sealing coat: Apply a sealing coat after polish is dry remove any smears with an orange stick dipped in remover.

If you don't use polish it is a good idea to buff the nails with a good chamois buffer.

SCHOOL CLOSED FRIDAY AND MONDAY

Last Friday, February 9 school was closed on account of snow and Monday, February 12, it was closed in observance of Lincoln's birthday. It reopened on Tuesday for regular school.

The next school vacation will be the Easter vacation recess which begins March 22.

PANTHERS TAKE RICHBURG 40-31

by "Doug" Wheaton

Last Thursday night the local hoopsters took on Richburg on the locals' stamping ground. It was the last league game of the Purple and White season and they were out to win.

In the first half it was hard and fast with neither team giving any ground. But at half time the local basketeers were enjoying a one point lead over the visitors. In the second half the game began to get out of control a little and the Andover boys took over the game 40-31.

High man for Andover was "Duke" Snyder with 11 and for Richburg it was Kenyon with 12.

The box score:

Andover	field	foul	ttl.
Fisher	1	0	2
Snyder	5	1	11
Monahan	3	1	7
Atwell	3	2	8
Davis	3	0	6
Dailey	3	0	6
Totals	18	4	40
Richburg	field	foul	ttl.
Kenyon	4	4	12

"HARVEY

Where's Harvey? That was my question early one morning. I had hunted all over for him and on my last trip about the school I found him playing with my bottle of ink. Rather, washing his face in it.

Harvey seemed very anxious to tell me a bit of news that might concern all students who would like to receive their daily mail at noon. It seems that Laura Croyle has recently announced she has become mail man. Her main customers at the present are Thelma Mickle and Marion Milligan.

It also was brought to Harvey's eyes that no one was crying about not having any school last Friday or Monday.

Harvey and the student body were sorry to hear the sub team lost a hard fought game to Arkport on the Arkport court. The final score was 43-33. "Skyrocket" Harkenrider was high with 18 points.

"Oh, boy, cake!" Those were the words of Harvey when he learned that the Senior 4-H girls were going to meet on Monday, February 19 at 7 in the home-making room to bake a cake. This will be the first official meeting and all 4-H members should attend. It will be held under the supervision of Miss McCarthy, our leader.

Harvey wants to congratulate the J.V. and varsity teams for the victories against Richburg.

It seems that Gay Rogers and Abe Davis have broken up. Gay is now going with Pat Howland of the third grade.

The sophomores hope "Jimmy" Conde will hurry and climb aboard the recovery train and scoot back to school.

The J.V. and varsity cheerleaders are planning to have a team party in the near future.

The musical show held Tuesday afternoon was loudly applauded by all students.

All those who attended the eighth grade skating party reported to have had a "simply marvelous" time.

Jackie Vickers has David Conde's ring so Harvey's roving eyes reported. Jocelyn Joyce is having a hard time deciding between Jerry Green and Mike Smith.

Harvey reported seeing Mary Ellen Connor of the St. James Mercy hospital and Ray Smith of Geneseo State Teachers College home for the holiday.

Arlene Edwards and Ann Marvel journeyed to Rushford over the week-end to visit Freddy Morse.

With Valentine's Day upon us we wonder why so many boys have been counting their pennies?

CANISTEO EDGES J.V's 42-39

By Dean Fisher

Tuesday night the Canisteo Junior Varsity took a very close, hard-fought game from Andover on the Andover court by a 42-39 score.

The visitors got out in front and led 8-5 at the end of the first quarter. They made it 19-13 in their favor at half-time. The locals lagged behind in the third quarter while Canisteo got hot and led 36-20 going into the final session. By virtue of a full court press the locals came on fast as they scored 19 points in the last quarter but it wasn't enough and Canisteo won out 42-39.

Slim "Slug" Slocum was high for the locals with 11 points followed by "Moose" Wheaton and "Les" Monahan who scored eight and seven points respectively. Schnurle and R. Terry were tied for top honors for Canisteo with 12 each and T. Shartz was next with nine.

TOT SPOT

by Mary Brown

As I walked into Mrs. Robison's kindergarten, I found all the kindergarteners enjoying pleasant dreams as they lay on their tiny cots.

Mrs. Robison tells me that all of the children but two are back after having the chicken pox. Charlotte Mead is the only pupil in this room who has perfect attendance. Congratulations, Charlotte.

Traveling downstains to Miss Evans' kindergarten I found another group of peaceful sleepers.

Miss Evans tells me that her pupils enjoyed helping Beverly Lusk celebrate her birthday. Beverly treated them to cup cakes, candy and ice cream.

If any one is wondering about the illustrations in Mrs. Connor's first grade, they are pictures of George Washington as he chopped down the cherry tree and they were drawn by the children in art class. The entire class is enjoying reading from Fun With Dick and Jane.

There will be many pleased mothers when the valentines made by the first graders in Mrs. Hall's room are delivered.

This class had perfect attendance Tuesday for the first time since December 11.

Three girls and four boys have perfect attendance in Mrs. Carmody's second grade.

The children in Mrs. Tompkins' room wish to welcome Merton Genung, Lynda Matison, Kenneth Heselton and Carol Clarke back to school. These pupils have been absent due to the chicken pox.

Betty Jo Barney, a pupil in the third grade, had her tenth birthday, February 12.

As I walked into Mrs. Helmer's third and fourth grade I noticed a very attractive bulletin board. Upon inquiring about this I was told that it is composed of valentines with silhouettes of the children.

The children in this room have made telephone directories containing the numbers of their classmates and they are learning to dial.

Shirley Vickers, one of Miss Jordan's fifth grade pupils, celebrated her 12th birthday by a party at home on Saturday and by treating her class at school Tuesday.

Ronald Glover has erected a post office of orange crates and shoe boxes for the fifth and sixth grade valentines. Their valentine party was held Wednesday and the class enjoyed valentine cookies and ice cream furnished by Miss Church.

This class wishes to express thanks to the Wellsville Brooklyn school for sending them a copy of their sixth grade newspaper the "Brooklyn Beavers."

Two of the sixth grade pupils, Sally Clarke and Karl Gavin had birthdays last week.

JUNIOR VARSITY BEATS RICHBURG

Last Thursday night the Wildcats tied the Richburg juniors for the league lead by taking a 34-21 decision from them on the home court.

In the first part of the game the score was very close but as the game progressed the locals began to pull away. The J.V.'s played what was probably their best game of the year. Their ball handling was superb and they rebounded very well against a team which had the height on them.

Lanky "Les" Monahan, the Wildcat steady playing center, and "Points" Pelton, the smooth playmaker, were tied for top scoring honors with 10 points each and mighty "Moose" Wheaton their hard-driving forward was second with six. Wilkins was high for the visitors with 15 points.

SCOTTY McLEAN ENTERTAINS A. C. S. STUDENTS

Scotty McLean "The Canny Scot," entertained the ACS students in the school auditorium Tuesday at 3 p. m.

Mr. McLean played many instruments some of which were the bag pipes, saxaphone, clarinet, drums, shepherd pipes and harmonica.

He is a pipe major and his program had much variety and novelty.

In addition he interpreted some of the Harry Lauder songs and dialect stories and featured many of the old Scottish classics with a true Scotch swing.

This program was immensely enjoyed by all who attended it.

MEET OUR TEACHERS

Mrs. Laura Hall who teaches first grade, was born in Whitesville. She has three children, Lucille, Kenneth and Elma. She enjoys doing needle work and listening to the radio.

Since yellow is her favorite color, she might some day own a yellow Plymouth. Rudyard Kipling's "Kim" is her favorite movie. If Mrs. Hall could have her choice of singers, Bing Crosby singing "On Moonlight Bay" would be her favorite. Her pet peeve is slippery highways.

Mrs. Hall went to school at Whitesville Union, Wellsville High, Geneseo State Teachers College and Alfred University. She is now living in Hallsport.

COMMUNITY LETTERS

From News Correspondents

Elm Valley

Mrs. Nellie Mead, Reporter

Feb. 13—The Elm Valley Community Club will meet Wednesday, Feb. 21, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Mead. Tuneon dinner at noon and everyone cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Phelps of Rochester spent Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. Howard Burdick's.

Mrs. Pearl Mesler and son, Orville were Sunday evening callers at Francis Mead's.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Carmody were in Leroy over the week-end visiting relatives.

Mrs. Lawrence Goodridge and Mrs. Maurice Goodridge attended a wedding in Alma Saturday evening.

Floyd Pierce is visiting his daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Goodridge.

South Hill

Mrs. Earl Schoonover, Reporter

Feb. 12—William Joyce trucked a load of cattle to Earlsville, N. Y., Tuesday for Lewis Waters of Whitesville.

Mrs. Anthony Dougherty and sons, William, Charles and John, were Saturday business callers in Hornell.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Clark and son Bruce were Tuesday callers of their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Cora Clark in Wellsville.

Harold Scott underwent an operation on his knee Wednesday at Strong Memorial hospital in Rochester.

Ora Gleason was a Sunday evening supper guest of Mr. and Mrs. Newton Clark. Mrs. Gleason plans to return from Duke Center, Pa., at a later date where she has spent some time due to illness and the death of her mother, Mrs. Joyce McGee.

Howard Dean and daughter Mary were business callers in Hornell Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Casey were Friday afternoon callers of Lewis Dean and sister, Mary.

William McNeill spent the week-end with his sister, Mrs. James House at Shongo.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Schoonover and grandson, Elwin Hoose, attended the funeral of Miss Minnie Clair at Andover, Sunday afternoon and were supper guests of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Heselton and family. Elwin remained with his mother, Mrs. Heselton while Mr. and Mrs. Schoonover motored to Hornell to see her mother, Mrs. Bertha Green at the hospital where they found her much improved.

Mrs. Newton Clark was a Sunday morning caller of Mrs. Russell Fanton of Fulmer Valley.

Voorhees Hill

Mrs. Raymond Church, Reporter

Feb. 13—The community was saddened when the word came of the death of Mrs. Mary Phillips Simkin at her her home in West Dennis, Mass., Sunday.

She came to America when a young woman from her birthplace in Weldon, England and married George A. Simkin while they were both student nurses in the Battle Creek Sanitarium in Michigan. Soon after their marriage they came to the Simkin farmstead here where they lived until about five years ago when they moved to West Dennis. Our sympathy goes out to the sorrowing family.

Mr. and Mrs. Claire Church and family of Knoxville, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Stout and family of Hallsport were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards of Andover spent three days last week at the Raymond Church home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carrol Church were guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Moore in Rochester Sunday.

At the Zoo

MacDonald had just arrived in New York from Glasgow and was taken on a sightseeing trip to the zoo. Pointing to a herd in one of the enclosures, he asked: "And what might that animal be?"

To which his host replied, "That's an American moose."

The Scotsman opened his eyes in astonishment. "An American moose!" he exclaimed.

"Yes," said the host, "that's an American moose."

The visitor grasped his host by the arm and asked: "Hoots, mon, kin ye show me an American rat?"

The diamond cannot be polished without friction, nor the man perfected without trials.

DID YOU KNOW THAT...

THE GRANGE NEWSLETTER

by E. Payson Smith

MEMBERSHIP drive under the Goss Memorial plan seems to have sparked a large number of Granges into definite action, and there are probably a great many more we haven't heard about. Idea to keep in mind is that the goal of ten per cent net increase must be met by the 31st of March to be counted in the second quarter figures. This means that some Granges will have to do some tall hustling in the next six weeks. Another to bear in mind is that new members should be appropriately welcomed and properly schooled in ritualism, lecturer's work, community service and the three guideposts as an expression of what Grange stands for and should mean to them. Only by fully understanding our high ideals and principles for the advancement of the farm family and agriculture in general, will the new member become an old one. The Grange should be stressed as a way of life, not a quickie, lip-service organization.

HIGHWAY Safety essay contest for 1951 has been announced by State Lecturer Florence Pickett. Rules are similar to former years, with state and national awards and cash prizes. Subject this year is "What Kind of a Driver Do I Want to Be", and should be of 800 words or less. Contest is open to any Subordinate Grange member not older than 18 years of age by June 15, 1951, closing date. The winner will have an all-expense trip, with one parent, to national sessions at Atlantic City this coming November, plus a $100 Savings Bond. Three other national cash prizes will be awarded, as well as three in each state. Also bear in mind that Subordinate and State lecturers sending in a winner will be rewarded with a $100 Savings Bond. — Worthwhile, so get busy.

REGIONAL conferences will wind up next week with visits by State Master Henry Sherwood, State Secretary Harold Stanley and Juvenile Superintendent Mrs. Ruth Thew, to the western part of the state. Mark the dates in your locality, and all interested plan to attend: Feb. 19, the Rochester area at Webster Grange Hall; Feb. 20, Hamburg Grange hall; Feb. 21, Westfield Grange hall; and Feb. 22, Olean House in Olean. All meetings are in the evening, beginning at 7:30.

Better Health For Children

A Community Service Issued by Children's Hospital of Buffalo, N. Y.

Recently the Children's Hospital of Buffalo received the following letter from a reader of this weekly column which said in part: "Won't you please tell us young mothers what to do about mothers, grandmothers and our friends who keep advising us how to bring up our children? I know they give advice because they are interested and want to help, but they only make our problem worse than ever. When we try to follow our doctors' advice, they jump on us and say it's a lot of folderol and that children have been successfully brought up for generations by 'good old horse sense.' When our babies are sick it's the same way. Such and such a remedy was used when we ourselves were babies and if it was good then it must be good now. Maybe you can help us. While we appreciate interest in our children, we would like to be able to do as our doctors say without having a family argument."

This mother has pointed to one of the most bothersome problems the medical profession has to contend with. Such well-meaning but unwanted advice not only confuses the patients but often actually does harm. The only way to solve the problem that we know of is to keep reminding misguided advisers that times have changed, that if you don't do as your doctor tells you he cannot be held responsible. Treating any illness as it was treated 20 years ago, before modern technique and miracle drugs were developed, is not even "good old horse sense." In the past few years medicine has progressed perhaps more than any other science, and more than at any other period.

The present day concept of treating the whole child, his mind, body and emotions, was not thought of 20 years ago. Today psychiatry plays an increasingly important role in the treatment of both children and adults. Doctors now recognize that the job is only half done if they cure a physical illness but disregard the emotional or mental conditions associated with it.

Just as the knowledge of the whole person has increased, so has the science of the treatment of individual illness. Constantly friends and family will recommend us of some medicine simply because it cured some other child. This is exceedingly dangerous. No non-medical person is equipped to judge suitable medicinal care. Remember — "what is one man's meat may be another man's poison."
