Cornell Ready For 40th Farm And Home Week

Cornell University is ready to welcome several thousand visitors to the 40th annual Farm and Home Week, March 19-23. In addition to hundreds of talks and demonstrations, more than 150 exhibits have been prepared in agriculture, home economics, nutrition and veterinary medicine.

Featured afternoon speakers include Dr. Richard Bissell of Washington, D. C., new deputy administrator of the Economic Co-operation Administration; Miss Mary Donlon, chairman of the State Workmen's Compensation Board, Prof. Knight Biggerstaff, an authority on the Far East; and Dean W. I. Myers, nationally known economist and specialist in farm prices and credit.

The annual event is geared to meeting farm and home problems in relation to world conditions, says Prof. L. D. Kelsey, general chairman. There are events for dairymen, fruit and vegetable growers, poultrymen, homemakers, gardeners, livestock owners, rural youth, and others. Many statewide farm and home organizations will also meet on the campus during the week.

Scores of forums and panel discussions, popular in recent years, will be held. Rural church Day will be observed on Wednesday, culminating in a combined concert by the Cornell University orchestra and the Sage Chapel Choir rendering Haydn's Creation.

The homemakers' program will start on Tuesday, March 20, and continue for four days.

William Joyce Buys High Bred Calf

Ceylon R. Snider, Ceydermead Farm, Fillmore, N. Y. has sold to William Joyce, Andover a baby son of Ceydermead Ormsby Roberts, the sire by Cornell Ormsby Pride out of Roberta Sylvius Posch. The dam of the calf is Joyside Princess Buttergirl who was purchased by Ceylon in Mr. Joyce's dispersal in May 1947. She freshened as a 2-year-old in November 1949 and in 323 days made 16,370 lbs. of milk with 607 lbs. fat. She freshened again on Christmas day, 1950, and is milking 70 lbs. a day. She is a daughter of Piebe Jewel Buttergirl with 17,839 lbs. milk, 597 lbs. fat at 5 years and 620 lbs. fat at 6 years. Princess Buttergirl is a daughter of Pebble Beach Prince Lyons, Mr. Joyce's former herd sire that sold in the dispersal for $1,800.

Kitchen—Not Zoo

The mistress was giving the new cook some instructions.

"We'll have to get a new griller for the kitchen," she said.

The cook stared vacantly.

"Don't you know what a griller is?" asked the mistress.

"I should think I do," was the reply. "It's a big, hairy monkey the size of a man, an' if you want one of those in your kitchen, I'm leavin' at once."
