Tribute to Willie From "The Man With The Shovel"

Dear Willie:

As I know you are still with us in spirit, I am going to jot down these last few lines to you of thoughts and memories that have been passing through my mind since I received word that you have left us.

Now that your struggle is over Willie, we all realize that we have lost a true friend that will never be able to be replaced. What a great world it would be if more of us could have the characteristics and courage which were always a part of you.

Few of us can realize how much you have suffered in the past 12 years, as it was one of your convictions to keep this information to yourself and not burden others with your own troubles. No Willie, instead of burdening others with your troubles, you were always trying to make everyone else's life just a little bit happier.

We shall never forget, and now I am speaking for all of the World War II veterans from Andover, the number of little things that you did for us while we were overseas. You never knew Willie, how much those humorous cards, presents, news from home, etc., meant to us. You were making us see the lighter side of life, trying to give us a little something to laugh about, when all of the while you were fighting for survival yourself.

I received your last letter to me just two days after your death, and although I couldn't detect it in your letter, I feel that you must have known that you would soon be leaving us. Your letter, as always was full of fun and cheerfulness, but you also mentioned that you were concerned about the fact that at the present time there were lifelong friendships being broken in Andover because of one thing and another. I realize now just how much Andover must have meant to you for you to be worrying about that, when you knew your time to go was drawing near. I hope, as you did Willie, that some day those friendships, whoever they are, will be renewed and all passed differences will be forgotten. In these troubled times friendship is about the only true thing that we have to fall back on, and if we can't enjoy it in a small town we certainly can't expect it to exist in the rest of the world.

Andover and her people are going to miss you Willie, and in saying good-bye for the last time, I want to tell you that having known you was one of the best things that ever happened to me. Over the past years it has been a happy, unforgetable journey, to have "Wandered With Willie."

Your Old Pal,
The Man With the Shovel.

Andover Road Plan Under Erwin Law

The Town Board of Andover met with a representative of the Highway Department last Wednesday to discuss the improvements to the town roads under the new Erwin Law which was signed last year by Governor Dewey. Under this law, the Town of Andover can improve certain of its highways over a period of ten years at an expenditure up to $7,000 a mile, and in Andover the State will reimburse the Town for 75 per cent of the amount spent. In other words it will cost the taxpayers of the Town $1,750, for each mile of improved road.

The road to be constructed is to be built according to State specifications and at present the specifications call for a road 16 feet wide with 12 inches of gravel, seven foot shoulders and sufficient ditcher and slope to the road to carry off surface water. However, it is believed that the State will modify the width of the road and shoulders where it is necessary because of the conditions.

The following is a list of roads which are proposed to be done in the next ten years It will be noted in the list that there is a three-quarter mile stretch to be built in Fulmer Valley in 1952. The reason for the building of this small stretch is that it is to connect up with the Wellsville-Independence roads and Wellsville is to construct their portion in 1952.

East Valley, 2.6 miles, in 1952
Fulmer Valley, .75 miles, 1952
Indian Creek, 2.4 miles, 1953
Davis Hill, 2.3 miles, -- 1954
Part of Pingrey Hill and Barrett road, 2.9 miles ----1955
Bal. Pingrey Hill and Baker street. ex., 2.5 miles 1956
Swain Hill and Baker road 2.5 miles ---------- 1957
Quigg Hollow, 1mile, -- 1958
Kilbane road, 1.3 miles 1958
Willis road, .65 mile --- 1959
Pixley and Duffy Hollow 1.70 miles ---------- 1959
Pixley and Duffy Hollow 1.45 miles ---------- 1960
Warfield Gully, .8 mile - 1961
