OPS Regulations To Be Explained At Wellsville

All merchants of Andover and Allegany County are invited to attend a meeting at the Wellsville Municipal Building Tuesday April 17 at 7:30 p. m. to hear a discussion of the various regulations of the Office of Price Stabilization. The discussion will include Regulation No. 7.

Attorney John A. Lynch of the Buffalo OPS office will be present to discuss the regulations and answer questions. He will also bring an ample supply of copies of all regulations.

The meeting is being sponsored by the Wellsville Chamber of Commerce and every merchant in Allegany County is invited to attend.

It will be held in the Village Trustees Council Room at the Municipal Building.

Chinese Missionary To Speak Here

Dr. Edward Aeschilman, a return missionary from China will speak at the Methodist Church this Sunday evening, April 15, at 8:00 p. m.

Dr. Aeschilman has spent a good part of his life living among and ministering to the Chinese people. He knows the Chinese people well, and he knows the political situation in that torn country today. He is well acquainted with the conditions which made it fairly easy for the Communists to come into control in China. Don't miss this opportunity to hear about the Chinese situation today. In his talk he will speak about the future of Communist rule and the future of Christian missions in China.

Dougherty-McCarthy

A pretty spring wedding was soleminized Saturday, April 7, at 11 a. m. at St. Catherine's Church in Addison, when Miss Mary McCarthy became the bride of William Patrick Dougherty of Andover. The Rev. Francis H. Turner, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass with the Rev. John R. Shea, pastor of the Blessed Sacrament Church of Andover in the sanctuary.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. McCarthy of Addison and the groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony L. Dougherty of Andover.

The altar was decorated with white gladioli and snapdragons, Easter lillies, palms and lighted tapers in gold candlesticks, Reserved pews for the relatives of the bride and groom were roped off with white satin streamers and nosegays.

Miss Jogene Hickey, organist played the wedding marches and the Nuptial Mass music rendered by the choir under the direction of Miss Catherine Blood of Rochester.

Attendants were: Miss Ellen McCarthy, sister of the bride, as maid of honor and Miss Lois Hadden of Rochester and Miss Norma Keagle of Cooperstown, college friends of the bride, were the bridesmaids. Charles Dougherty, of Andover brother of the groom, was best man and the ushers were: Ensign William A. McCarthy, Jr., of the U. S. Naval Air Station at Norfolk, Va., brother of the bride and John Dougherty of Andover, brother of the groom. John Morris and Herbert Kelly, Jr., served as altar boys.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, was lovely in a bridal gown of white satin, fashioned with a bodice of chantilly lace, sweetheart neckline, long fitted lace sleeves ending in points over the wrists and the full hooped skirt fell into a graceful Cathedral train. Her fingertip length bridal veil of imported illusion fell from a Chantilly lace bonnet with seed pearl trim and she carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid tied with a cascade of knotted satin ribbon. White satin slippers and a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom, completed her ensemble.

The maid of honor wore a strapless floor-length gown of yellow nylon marquisette over yellow satin, styled with wide circular shoulder cape of same material and bouffant skirt worn over hoops. She carried a colonial bouquet of sweetheart roses tied with yellow satin streamers and wore a matching floral headdress.

The bridesmaids dresses were made in identical style as the maid of honor with Miss Hadden wearing pink nylon marquisette over pink satin and Miss Keagle blue nylon marquisette over blue satin. They carried colonial bouquets of sweetheart roses, tied with pink and blue satin streamers and wore pink and blue floral hearddresses.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. McCarthy chose a navy blue print dress with which she wore navy and white accessories and a corsage of white rosebuds. The groom's mother wore a navy blue crepe dress, navy and white accessories and a corsage of red rosebuds.

A wedding breakfast followed at the home of the bride's parents for the bridal party and immediate families of the bride and groom.

Two hundred attended the reception held at the McCarthy home where pink and yellow snapdragons were used. The bride's table featured an arrangement of white roses in a large silver bowl, and yellow lighted tapers in silver candlesticks.

When Mr. and Mrs. Dougherty left in the afternoon on their wedding trip by motor to Washington, D. C., the bride changed to a navy blue and white checked suit, with which she wore navy accessories, a gold colored top coat and corsage of violets.

The bride is a graduate of Addison High School and Cornell University and is vocational home economics teacher at Andover Central School.

The groom is a graduate of the Andover Central School and Alfred University and is a member of the faculty of the Friendship Central School.

Upon their return from their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Dougherty will take up their residence in Andover.

Guests attended the wedding and reception from Rochester, Buffalo, Ithaca, Batavia, Wellsville, Hornell, Andover, Elmira, Binghamton, Painted Post, Endicott, Belmont, Dundee, Cooperstown, Bath, Bolivar, Cameron Mills, Addison and Towanda, Pa.

Pre-nuptial events honoring the bride included a variety shower in Andover given by Misses Lois Winkleman and Dorothy Sager, members of the Andover Central School faculty; kitchen shower by Mrs. Leo Aug of Addison and a variety shower by Mrs. Francis Hill of Addison.

Andover Red Cross Over the Top

Mrs. Frank Holmes, chairman of the Andover Red Cross drive reports the drive in Andover over the top with $806.58 raised against a quota of $778.00.

Mrs. Holmes, who was also chairman of the Community Chest drive in Andover which recently closed its drive for $3,000, wishes to thank her workers and express her appreciation of the support given these worthy causes by Andover people.

Notice to Sportsman

The local Rod and Gun Club has liberated 1200 undersized brown trout in Dyke's Creek the past week. The trout were distributed from the Indian Creek stream below Stearn's Crossing down stream for about a mile. These trout are all illegal fish and for the benefit of future fishing sportsman are requested not to fish this area as they will only kill illegal trout.

The Club is sorry that this shipment of undersized trout came at this time, but you have to take them when you can get them. The fish ranged from four to six inches in length.

Appreciation

I wish to thank all my friends for the cards, flowers and many acts of kindness, which made my stay at the hospital more cheerful.

Mrs. Carl Tracy

Appreciation

I wish to express my appreciation and thanks to the American Legion Auxiliary for the sunshine basket sent me during my illness.
