AUTUMN LEAVES. tris', ed their lives for the glory of the flag "Come o'er the meadows with pie, and play; Put on your dresses of red and gold; Sammer is gone, and the days grow cold." Down they came fluttering, one and all Over the brown fields they danced and flow, Binging the soft little tongs they knew. "Cricket, good-by; we've been friends so long Little brook, sing on your farewell coug.

Ah! you will uniss us, right well we know. Dear little lambs, in your fleecy fold, Mother will keep you from harm and c Foudly we've watched you in vale and glade; Pancing and whirling, the little leaves went Winter had called them and they were conten - Food fast asleep in their earthy beds, The show laid a coverlet over their heads

The wags of the company had found it adieu!" consented to spare him. He had arrived gle friend among all those young men of province a fact of such importance i

tenance and eyes as gentle as a doe's, and | the sadly, perhaps, but swaggering and that sad, resigned air that never aban- proud. like men who recognized t doned him; but, all the same, from the | honor of wearing the French uniform lour of his arrival at the depot where the land were willing to expose their lives in recruits were uniformed for the different order to preserve the privilege intact. regiments for which they had been Before leaving the barracks, however, drafted, he had acquired for himself the I had forgotten to say that each and all Time, however, had thawed him a little Landais' pardon for their former named for future promotion truly, he and gave him a tender and fatherly biss. was a queer fellow which he hast'ly thrust into his pocket, outer to great was his american. and never once had been known to break the seal before his contrades. But when

One day as, among the others, he came 📉 to receive with his own hands from the enough to deposit the letter in the depths of his pocket, to button his jacket clos about it, and then, like a battering ram with berasing him at a distance without? daring to approach him.

for its onward march.

cotonel had been apprised by telegram); ad struggle had been fierce and rough, the self in readiness to leave that same even- enemy courageous and ten times superi whence he would embark in numbers.

were about to resort to the drawing when at this moment was leading over the ex-Celestin Mauriac, "Jocrisse," the courage of a veteran of 50

Foorture: I have and solemn silence. The pallor o keep me; I should be glad was already upon Maurisc's moved as thus it was settled; they would his features a heartbreaking expression.

a i, too, had learned to love. tehown the way? Why? Becaus.

before them and they had hesitated—crisse had been before them. "I shall see thee off myself, my boy cried the captain, affectionately into the familiar "thee" in his admirati I of Mauriac's resolution and courage: the others in the guard room; and now transfer of "Joerisse," and there was to accompany Mauriac in his self elected the witnesses of this painful scene. nothing of annoyance or torment they exile to Tonquin -as there were two full amounted in all to twenty-six, and by orcruits from Landais, and the only one | tachment was to be conducted to the stafrom his village, lost in that multitude, | tion by an escort of their comrades and had isolated himself and made not a sin- | the regimental bands. In a city of the his own age, in the midst of whom he | quickly known, and it really seemed as if had lived for months. Nevertheless, he the entire population had poured itself lead a good face, this Celestin Mauriac; into the streets in order to honor the pash could never be a bad boy, with a coun- sage of the gallant troop, marching a lit- crisse had concealed himself to read it,

Once a month, almost at this same comma les and his chief, but not a v har and date, Jorniese received a letter mould come not a syllable cod to | haps they would find themselves delivered | that had become a religion, a passion, a fram from that method of teasing at over to a terrible battle, for they would with him since he—the father—had been to their way through.

be compelled from this on to literally cut | so unhappy and the judges had marked | him with the brand of infamy! All those who were not on duty guardwagon master the monthly letter, a little ling and caring for the camp had thrown the letter which the prisoner wrote to him District Telegraph company. He wants themselves down, resting and repairing once a month, who could wonder? They the company to keep people who send freely exercised his wit at the expense of their strength, exhausted by hardship and were truly heartrending. In that last boys out advised of their progress. For the Landais, made a movement as if to corner, where he had retired alone in wars presented by the manuary of his instance, they might have blanks ready MY PRICES ARE AS LINW corner, where he had retired alone, in | ways possessed by the memory of his | to fill up and send them to the expectant order that no one should disturb him, a crime, had recited the particulars of it, customer, say, every fifteen minutes. bloodshot; nevertheless, he waited long soldier was seated on the edge of the path- as he had done more than once before, to "By telegraphic advices from corner leading to the path as he had done more than once before, to "By telegraphic advices from corner leading to the path as he had done more than once before, to be the path and done more than once before, to be the path advices from corner leading to the path as he had done more than once before, to be the path advices from corner leading to the path as he had done more than once before, to be the path advices from corner leading to the path as he had done more than once before, to be the path advices from corner leading to the path as he had done more than once before, to be the path advices from corner leading to the path as he had done more than once before, to be the path advices from corner leading to the path as he had done more than once before, to be the path advices from corner leading to the path as he had done more than once before, to be the path advices from corner leading to the path as he had done more than once before, to be the path advices from corner leading to the path as he had done more than once before, to be the path advices from corner leading to the path as he had done more than once before, to be the path advices from corner leading to the path as he had done more than once before, to be the path advices from the path advices way reading a letter that the last courier the child whom he regarded as his judge of Kearney and Market the boy is buy had brought him from France. His eyes and to whom he sued perpetually for ing a story paper, and will at once pro

before turning the leaf that he had read Powerfully moved by the agony, the Fifteen minutes later: "Corner U over and over again, he passionately questioning in the face of the dying, the pont and Geary. Your messenger has pressed the paper to his lips and kissed it. general received the letter, and, running reached here safely, and is waiting for a was Celestin Mauriac, or rather his eye from line to line, in an instant | car to pass." Jocrisse, for his name had followed him had comprehended everything. even there. A long time he remained "Before heaven, Jocrisse," he cried in Your messenger has already reached fifthus, plunged in reverie as sad, seemingly, a voice broken and hoarse with emotion, teenth chapter of his story. He has only as it was absorbing; but suddenly the 'before heaven and those who hear me twenty-two more to finish." shrill notes of a trumpet rang through now, I swear to thee to obtain clemency | "Your messenger has reached Mason the air—it was the recall—and once more and pardon for thy father, and in this, and Geary, and will proceed as soon as laying his lips upon the precious paper | thy supreme moment, my poor child, I | he has smoked his cigarette."

Jocrisse was on his feet and running to bless thee in his name! Sleep in peace!" | "Your messenger has reached his destiresume his place in the column forming And God was good. He permitted nation. Will be back to-morrow."—San that Jocrisse should hear and know that Francisco Chronicle.

Monkey Catching in Mexico.

upon his back, inert, motionless, as if the hand, pass it to the left, and eat two effort had finished him, two scalding tears | mouthfuls with the chopsticks, and then | forcing themselves from his eyes, suppli- drink once from the soup bowl. And so To speak seemed impossible; but he still | to eat some rice between each mouthful had strength to carry his hand to the of meat, fish and vegetables, unless you

'| catingly fixed upon the general. pocket of his vest and draw forth a letter. | forget which is your mouth and which is which he held to his chief with a mur- your right hand, or have become so giddy mured "Mercy! pardon!" so low, so fee-blat you cannot tell your left hand from MARSH bly spoken, as to be scarcely intelligible. a chopstick or your rice bowl from your The number of the recruits who were A profound emotion stirred the hearts of third table.—Chicago News. But why should this poor child, breathing his last before them, agonized and myrtyred, sue for pity or for pardon? Of I at the regiment with a detachment of re- der of the military authorities the de- what crime had he been guilty, this humto his chief with trembling fingers that cry of supreme prayer, was soon them all. It was a letter from his father he had concealed himself to read others, it was because it bore on the of the sheet the imprint of the Maison | Force (prison), in which he was serving out a sentence of ten years' seclusion; he mon sense. He drank very little, water was an assassin, this father of Mauriac's! being his favorite beverage, and there-An incorrigible poacher, always chased fore his head was always clear, even reputation of an incorrigible "Cosaque." of his ancient tormentors had begged the by the gardes and the gendarmes, be had be for a long while escaped them: then, little, but he had always remained awk- treatment of him, and that a purse, to one day, when on the point of being word, timid, and of a meekness of de- which men and officersalike contributed. taken by them, a sudden madness had meanor that emboldened his contrades to had been made up and presented to him, seized upon him-instinctively he had mock him conselessly and hold him up to in order that be should not find himself shouldered his gun, the hammer slipped, ridicule. Reading and writing with re- penniless in a foreign country. True to and when the smoke cleared away there to have bydrophobia, if they watch him markable ease. Mauriac had at once been his word, also, the captain and a number before him on the frozen earth was a very closely, expose him at a public clinic, alle to take the grade of corporal, and of other officers were waiting at the sta- man whom he had killed. They had offer him water, inject merphine and Inter on of sons officer, in spite of the fact | tion to receive them, and two great tears | taken him ther they had carried him | chleral into him, and, above all. if they that he evidently tried to conceal what filled the eves of the poor Joerisse as the without a hint of resistance before the add the administration of curare to these by linew, and nover even asked if they officer, at the moment of his mounting tribunal of the law. Mad with despair ver, carrying him on the list of those into the wagon, folded him in his arms and shame, he had allowed them to ture of hydrophobia shows that morphia, judge and condemn him without an ef- chloral and curars -- drugs recommender fort to stop them or explain. It would have been useless. He had drawn his 'gun. It would have been worse than a uneless to fight against that! Society had been avenged, justice ap-The column had halted after a long peased, and had shown herself in a measdon of the Quarter free to all, he would and painful march for a brief rest not a line merciful, since she had ordered not talked about; that it flourishes where confortable one, you may be sure, for neither the scaffold nor the galleys; but was runn no curious give could apy upon the Pavilion Noiss and the Chinese regul man had condemned man had inflicted to lars, united in overwhelming numbers, upon him, he the assassin the tais people. And let them sift estefully any trensure. On several eccasions his com | were both in the neighborhood, and har | on chains and regulations | they had dis } rides had esserted to tally him on the rassed continually the brigade which was honored him. The son, the son clone, subject of this mysterious correspond. on its way to the relief of the Command had pardoned him! From what? Pity? eschew violence of act or of medication is ence, but Mauriac, ordinarily so meek ant Domine, besieged in Tuyen Quan, No- a sentiment more powerful than ... and gentle, showed an aspect so unex- and to-morrow, at this very hour, per- that even -his love for his father, a love will be. --- Philadelphia Medical and Cin

If the poor child cried and concealed not the shyest of the American four- lying in bed. His grandson developed sense, and, after all sorts of experiments. | vant who exhibited an incurable vice of the most successful methods of the na- | loquacity. She talks incessantly to any one renced toward the group of officers. It which Jocrisse had borne himself during the trick was first introduced by the shivering on one of the seats in Washing.

in the shape of a befuddled ring. cal cry." Lung the alms on the walk with a savage gesture and growled out: "There's more in those team, ye cureed tailor's coffins: "-New York Star.

on with the other dishes—never omitting

The etiquette of a Japanese dinner,

1 party is rather entertaining.

An Enormous Appetite.

Joel Parker, the Democratic ex-gov- You will always find his prices right ernor of New Jersey, who died recently, and his stock fresh and a weighed 300 pounds, and there is little in doubt that his death was hastened by his enormous appetite. He always gratified | his tastes to the uttermost, and never and Fires 'stopped to inquire whether an article of 1 'food was good for him or not. He was the wonder of the waiters at every hotel. nd restaurant where he dined. He invaably went twice through the bill of fare. He was the last to finish at a dinper, yet so admirable seemed his diges-I tion that after out eating all the other guests he could make a capital speech. full of unctuous humor and sound com-

Something About Hydrophobia We warn our readers that they need in most of the books -- are useless and probably dangerous, given, as they usu-| ally are, in cases called hydrophobia. Let . our readers take note that hydrophobia it is cultivated, as in France, and does not case which seems like hydrophobia, as to if history and eventoms; let them

Record of the Messenger Roy. A man sends me a suggestion from the ceed on his way with your message.

Fifteen minutes later: "Union square.

A case has been reported to the writer of

No. 96, 6.30 a. m., week days from Dunkirk Stopping of all stations, and arrives at Mannahar Boat 250 p. m.

すれいい すぐこ (はずむ)手で

for every Dollar I take in.

No 22. Po55 s. m., 65 m Salanya 55. bunck day in tring of Carrolleye 11 of No. 20. 200 m. in. exercise con-1 3" ( 4" ) n eng m | 6 oo | 8 oo |

The only line running Pullman day, Sleeping total, Buffet, Sleeping and Buffet Smoking cars.

and the chicago and

10 15 5 40 11 10pm 9 45

To us 5 43 ..... 9 to 10 50 ; 6 18 11 40pm 10 :

11 42 | 6 43 12 t3ami 10 -

a ooree: 9 00 : 130ami: 4 00

12 28 110 50 253am 8 95

an or a 12 M ≥ 128600° € 18

10.50 1.55 10.55000

arp mam. tp to atos as how or the lowest

- 5 64 <sup>1</sup> 10 10 <sup>1</sup> 4

No. 9- 7 a.m., every day, from Hoi I nellsville; stops at all stations, and arvives at Salamanca at 10:10 a.m. No. 13. 5.14 a.m., every day except c Monday, from Hornellsville. Stopping

1 at Wellsville 6.10, Olean 7.02, Carrolton 724, and arriving at Salamanca 7,33 pm No. 21. 7.35 a. m., every day day from Canolton. Stops at all stations. atriving at Dunkirk 9.35 p. m. No. 23. 4.01 b. m., from Carrolton, week days. Stops at all stations except GOOD VALUE Great Valley, arriving at Salamanca at

No. 95. 5.25 a. m., from Hornellsville week days. Stops at all stations, and arrives at Dunkirk 6.40 p. m. Through tickets to all points, at the very lowest rates, for sale at the company's Office at the station. Baggage will be checked only on tickets purchased at the Company's Office.

C. H. Richardson.

at 8.22 a. m. having attached Pullman Palace

York via belaware, Leckawana & Western NARROW GAUGE DIVISION. SOUTHWARD ar p. m. a. m. a. n

CRESTING, GRATING.

lv.p.m.'n.m.

ANDOVER, ALLEGANY COUNTY, N. Y., FERUARY 29, 1888.

money to trade on credit.

PAY CASH!

T. McTIGHE.

TRAINS LEAVE ANDOVER.

4 - No. 6--Way Express. 2. 11.59 a. m.

No. 12 -- Atlantic Express. . 8.00 p. m.

No. 06-Way Freight . . . 1.05 p. m. !

No. 9 Local Train .... .7.41a. m. 1

No. 29-Way Express . . . 2.31 p. m. !

No 1 - Through Express. 8 20 p. m. !

No 95 Way Freight 700 a "

D CAMNON

ESTAURANI

17 × 多 1 12 R 8

Ther it a light by land

CALLON

THUIDILEGG BALLEY AL

one Bong 41 to Sell

I keep a large stock of

REPAIRING

Loan and Real Estate Agency.

THE ANDOVER NEWS, Published every Wednesday at one dollar per year. Job Printing done on short notice | and in a first-class manner.

N. P. BRAINARD, M. D. Procticing Physician & Surgeon

Office at Star on Main Street, ANDOUTER, To Mandatt Man, Man PHYSICIAN AND SURGIO

AMDOVED

Suc comments W. W. Comes W. unea and Regidence, Claudell Dachttee the section of the se

F. E. COMSTOCK, M. D es Practicing Thy ician and nancem se-Office on Garage Market Peridence of PRISCOLL GENERAL MECHANIC, ng for interfering borses. Keeps a general supply of CAPRIAGE HAPDWARE at all times for sale, and also l hand made top carriages and platform wagons, and the celebrated R. M. Bingham Cutter with cast choes and other makes. AT HARMAN'S.

EVERY DAY.

TOBACCOS AND CIGARS. ALL KINDS of TEMPERANCE DRINKS. Agency for Tansill's Cigars.

NEWSPAPERS,

tion in the World.

M. H. HARMAN

Will Fill Packages from Fifteen to Fifty Pounds.

T. N. BOYD, Andover, N. Y. GEO. A. GREEN, edge and watch the bears at play.

And as she sat swaying softly sang. I knew her thought, I knew her heart, Her heart to mother calling. A sudden passion filled my soul I longed to soothe the weeping: My baby stirred upon my breast, My baby gently sleeping! The vision fled, yet well I know

A VISION.

Or I was dreaming, may b

My arms around my bab

Her rosy fingers playing

And stooped to kiss her sunny curls

The foolish rhymes of Mother Goos

In time and tune came springing

To lips not made for song; and yet

Changed all the world completely

And rocked her baby sweetly

The woman's face, a look it wore

Like mine; and yet the rather

Twas like my baby's father.

"Twas like my baby's, larger grows

My children like my singing

And as I sang a mystic spell

Another woman singing sat

As I sat rocking to and fro that be bought a year ago up in Born play more gently after we turned in.

Il as his and Clocks, and Per se had pitched our camp.

A SPECIALTY MADE OF

AND PLUSHES, a beautiful line of Arasenes, and Ribbonsene. Chenille or depression in the ditch, with a couple | liked to tune himself up properly he was | conversing a mile off. The whistling of bowlders in the bottom. It seemed all mighty hard to beat. most as if the hollow had been swoned b out and the two bowlders placed therein | "The Arkansaw Traveler" once, and the each syllable having its peculiar tone. for our special benefit. By sitting on the joyous strains of "Mormon Angels" were that even foreign words can be whistled.

and two cubs. The way they dodged few minutes.

Though I was dreaming, may be Far downsthe future sits my child And rocks my baby's baby. - Mrs. George Archibald in Babyhood bering the talk an evening or two before. and also that he usually carried the in strument in his pocket der!" and, producing the mouth organ bear hunting chaps that write detters ing in the Spring" for all she was worth. looking up, a twitching its care and a from the backwoods of Maine and Penn. You just ought to have seen those drinking in the music. aylvania ever tumbled to the fact that | bears! When the first strains of the ) bruit is one of the most musical varmints | mouth organ reached them it was the all creation. I remember hearing comicalest sight you could imagine, Parson Pete, who used to be a down east | Their mouths, flew open as wide as steel ) ones say in the streets of New York a | twitching like a mule's ears in fly time. I dan ing to the music of a hurdy gurdy. They didn't scent the least bit scared or a and another one, a small black bear, he suspicious, but cimply purzled to account i Old Peters resetty white, and so I tocken | right, and looked this way and that, and phedy was enough to tickle the right and se must have seen all this; but I'm a began to eniff the air; but, seeing noth tof an Injun. have been been and brought up in a sense of melody without reserve. They

in any of my other letters, but Sage. Thythmical motion, much as the Englishbrush Bill is me of the dielest mu icians man from India said the greenment Lin He tano. He can get mere music elephents away their trade - henerer. While going through the committee well nigh upset their camp stocks with a man than me topents could out if a they were slowly warking their way inward meniment. As Sagebrush dishit is playing on this me the come, conscience which, of course, they sere, as by this ing the tree scaling the halvent keeping it up till near midnight. We time was very evident. Sagebruch quit of the Britishar allowed in a stictus to a used to get kinder "eary of it at times, | playing for a few mements just to see | the others. but now and then we allowed him to what they would do. The bears looked? The three English sportamen seemed, keep it up as long as he wanted, only at one another, much as human beings i mightily tickled at this last movement of i great event of bickless, and bickless wind, MUUKNESS, Andover, N. V. requiring him to take his camp stool do when badly domb flustored about any : the big brown bear, a heap more so, I is when the herber is caused in to take some distance away from the tent and I thing, and went to roaming about with reckon, than Sagebrush did, for brown beads up, sniffing the air and whining. | bears make no trouble about climbing a i

By and by we came to notice that | When be struck up again livelier than tree. The music commenced whenever Sagebrush kept his music lever, the bears seemed beside themselves pretty short order, and "I'm a Sojer"! going pretty late the mules that were with joy. They came lumbering and was rattled off with such astonishing picketed close by always betrayed signs | caverting toward us, twitching their ears { vim and execution that the Britishers | of uncariness shortly after be had quit and opening their mouths. Every now mudged one another in the ribs, and playing and gone to bed. Sometimes and then they stopped to vaise up on nearly shook off their moccasing with they went so far as to enort and try to | their hind legs, twirl around, and gambol suppressed mirth. They allowed afterturned out to see what was up, we an eestasy of delight. It seemed a pity. cought sight of some object moving as Sagebrush had suggested, but we had Juliet, people, I think they said who about in the shadow of the pines that to let drive at them as they came on. fringed the little mountain park in which | We bagged two of the old timess and a eub; the other two got away. The result of this curious experience This object we naturally supposed to p be a bear. After the night we got treed was that when we came to talk it over in by the seven grizzlies, however, we were i camp that evening we decided to try and all-fired careful about chasing bears round up the bear that was in the habit first we never thought of associating the mules. Having formed our plans, we appearance of this bear with Sagebrush's fixed Sagebrush up in the skin of music, any more than thinking perhaps shaggy brown bear on the following it might have been attracted by the | night, and, waiting till along toward I noise. But one evening the Englishman, lo'clock, hoisted him up into a tree near who hailed from India, was telling about | where we had before seen the moving the way the Hindoos cause the sarpints to b ject which we guessed was a bear. come a-winding and hissing out of their About twenty paces from Sagebrush's tree us, at the time, regarded the matter as louarter, and had only just risen over anything more than a good joke. It mountains, but in the transparer use our Winchesters with good effect.

While crossing a sort of a level inlet of programme, except as regards position prairie between two spurs we saw a fam- and less talk. ily of five cinnamon bears playing to- To draw a simile that down ear gether right out on the open. There was | will understand, may be you might in no-cover but a few knee high clumps of lagine Sagebrush to be that young fel

"I'm a Soier"

and all agreed that when Sagebrush derstood by the person with whom I "I'm a Sojer" had been played twice, lation of common speech into whistling, bowlders we could just peep over a little | making the pine needles quiver in sym- | The vowels e, i. y are unore loudly fringe of greasewood that ran around the pathy, when we saw something move whistled than a, o, and u; and if a conacross a little open space about 100 yards | sonant is at the end of a word, for ex-Bears are as playful as so many kittens | away. Sagebrush very evidently saw it. ample, "Juan," the a is whistled in a among themselves, and it is one of the too, for "Mormon Angels" was never rising tone. The Gomero either uses his prettiest sights imaginable to see four or played before nor since, I reckon, as fingers or his lips when whistling. five of them playing tag. In this party pertly as he recled it off up among the The practice is only common on t there were five bears, three old timers | branches of that pine tree for the next | Gomera Island, and is not found in the other six islands of the archipelage around one another, rolled over, stood up, Pretty soon we saw the object move! The reason may be the peculiar geologica again, this time a little nearer. Before construction of the island, which is travlaughed and caved around generally was | many minutes it showed unstill closer, so | ersed by many deep ravines and gullies. a heap the prottiest thing I had seen for that we were able to make it out as a big I which run out in all directions from the some time in broad daylight. We sat brown behr, and that "Mormon Angels" central plateau. They are not bridged, there and enjoyed the circus a while, was gradually charming it along toward and can often only be crossed with great when an idea struck me all of a sudden. Your position. On it came, nearer and I difficulty; so that people who really live nearer, right up toward Sagebrush's tree. I very near to each other in a straight line. against a tree, and give vent to its feel | munication, and gradually assumed the quite articulate, and is a kind of trans-more soft and ravishing like, and the Precch London Daily News. first thing we knew the bear was stand - Coreg's Barbarous Funishments minister to Nashington, are burbarousin All at once the bear seemed to give! their punishments. No court and prion way to an impulse of recklers abardon, his complete without an assortment of as though utterly unable to restrain its iron chains, hander rods for beating the wild, exuberant passion for melody any backs of offerders, paddles and switches sky pilot years ago, tell about a bear he traps, and their little cars commenced a longer. The way it capered about under for whipping the calves till the first in that tree, turned lumbering so never alls, I tatters, repeater seasing the flesh, stocks, work dits pows up and down added its ! Other purishments mesoneed by latthe said, he saw in a theatre beging a gong. for the music. They all ctood holt up- head about and weaved its lig heigt mass, the badience and lip. One hu talking of real armint, not bears that ing, they abandened themselves to their For a moment Sagebrush stopped play the effection of proclein the crime ing. As soon as the music ceased the while the dreen is feet in a the walks began twilling around, swaying their bear stopped waltzing around, looked up through the cross lie was who I don't know whether I mentioned it heads and waving their pane with a appealingly like and commenced to whine strikes listely and the particular terms of the particular particular particular whether I mentioned it heads and waving their pane with a stressingly like and commenced to whine strikes listely at laboration to the particular par for more. Then it was that the strange beide is but to wene scored to strike the British is as patronices something so utterly ladicrous that they i

A Chitter of Same material Children of And told to the Health little and in | Chinese u ad are par and run, Aust

| single queue the queue of thanbrod | i other by moonlight, climb balconics, and i Ustarted, "Chaster Holcombo in Youth a 1 generally cave around.

Funny as the old bear's antics seemed. we were, of course, ready with our Win-Work of the Compositor tree: but it is easy enough to imagine. that Sagebrush was a trifle-curious in his | composing room and watch the men at 'own mind as to how we were, just at work merely patting, to all appearmoment, viewing the situation. lances, one type filer another sit looks However, as soon as he commenced play- | much like a purely mechanical process: ing again the bear quit whining, let go but to the compositor biaself in appears the tree, and again turned loose, with in a different light. While colliers and every demonstration of approval that a reporters have it within their power to I make the compositor's task much easier, holes, swaying their heads for joy at hear- was a little clump of bitch bines, where / After watching the bear dance until they do not often take the prins to do it, we were asleep, or what, ight, but it settled the question, once fo all with us, as to bears being charme months'-stay in the Canary archinelago you are to go to a table, go directly not with shilly shally, unless you suspect that there is gunpowder under proach. ... How valuable and what a