Memorial Day Observance In Andover

Andover did it's self proud as it saluted the war dead yesterday in the annual Memorial Day observance. The bright sunshine helped to dispel the gravity of the world situation reflected in the faces of those in the parade as well as those on the street as they paid their respects to the soldiers who gave their lives on the battlefield.

A good representation of American Legion, Legion Auxiliary, Relief Corps, Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, Girl Scouts, Brownie Scouts, Firemen, Firemen's Auxiliary, school children and citizens marched to Hillside cemetery where the services as announced in last week's News were very capably carried out under the direction of Legion Commander, John L. Cannon.

The Legion Drill Team made its first appearance of the season and put on a snappy exhibition drill on Main street following the flag raising at Legion Park.

Dean of Allegany County Printers Retires

Frank A. Crumb, after 75 years as printer, editor and publisher, retired last week when the Sun Publishing Association, Ltd., was sold to Eugene T. VanHorn, now editor and publisher.

Mr. Crumb at the age of 14, hired out as an apprentice in the office of the Brookfield Courier in Madison County, at a yearly salary of $50 in cash, board and room. Three years later, he went to work for the West Winfield News, and in one more year, a full-fledged printer at 18, he established a commercial printing shop in Syracuse. This he operated successfully for two years before coming to "Alfred Centre" in 1882 to work in the Sabbath Recorder shop. A year later, Mr. Crumb joined with John M. Mosher, John P. Mosher, Bert Sherman and Lou Niles to establish the Alfred Sun.

A little while later, the Sabbath Recorder moved from Alfred, and the stock company known as the Sun Publishing Association built its own two story brick building on South Main street where it is located today. Mr. Crumb was placed at the head of the concern which in addition to publishing the Alfred Sun, did considerable job and book work for Alfred University and other concerns.

Mr. Crumb has contributed much to his village and to Allegany County. Always a strong Republican he was town clerk for 25 years and a supervisor for eight. Later he was president of the First Alfred Seventh Day Baptist Church, for ten years. In the last two instances, he resigned, "to give younger men a chance".

The retired editor is reticent to speak of his past accomplishments as an editor. Two things, however, for which his neighbors may thank him are incorporation of the village in 1887 and the macadam road to Alfred Station

Mr. Van Horn, who returned to Alfred in January, was named manager of the Sun Publishing Association last month while negotiations of the transfer were being completed. Former stockholders of the corporation are D. S. Burdick, Howard Langworthy of Orchard Park, the late John J. Merrill, and the Crumb family.

The new editor is a native of New York State, having come to Alfred Station in 1925 when his father, the Rev. Edgar D. Van Horn, assumed the pastorate of the Second Alfred Seventh Day Baptist Church. He graduated from Alfred High School in 1932 and Alfred University in 1936. After teaching for three years at Livonia Central School, Livonia, he joined the faculty of the Alfred-Almond Central School.

While there ,he was called into service early in the fall of 1941. and served four and a half years with the 6th and 20th Air Forces. Twenty months of that time was spend in the CBI theater and the Pacific with the 58th Bombardment Wing, which was the oldest of the B-29 organizations.

Upon his release from the armed forces in 1946 he entered the employ of the C. B. Cottrell and Sons Company, printing press manufacturers, Westerly, R. I., in their accounting department. He moved back to Alfred from Westerly.

Mrs. Van Horn, the former Aurabeth Ehret, is also a native of the community and an alumna of the University. The Van Horns have a three-year-old son, Roger Bruce.—The Alfred Sun.
