Tribune League Team Wins Two Games

The Andover Tribune League baseball team added two more victories to their season's record the past week by defeating Cohocton here Memorial Day 4-2 and Wayland at Wayland Sunday 15-13.

Tommy Caple's fine pitching was too much for Cohocton who were able to nick him for only three hits and two runs in the fourth inning and the timely hitting of Joe Smith, Burgett and Witzell with men on bases gave Andover her scores.

At Wayland Sunday Andover got off to a very poor start with Wayland getting nine runs in the first inning. Andover, however, overcame the lead with six runs in the fourth and four runs in the seventh and eighth. The relief pitching of Leo and the big hat of Witzel, who got five hits in as many trips to the plate, was too much for the Wayland boys.

Fresh Air Children Coming To Andover

It will soon be the time for the arrival of Fresh Air children in Andover and we hope many will avail themselves of the opportunity to furnish two weeks of happiness for one or more needy children.

Six Fresh Air children from New York have been invited to return to the homes where they were guests last year and additional invitations have been received by the committee.

Last year twelve children were entertained in Andover and it is hoped that more than that number will be invited to Andover this year. The underprivileged children will arrive July 13 to spend two weeks with Friendly Town families.

Ministers and Sunday school superintendents of practically all churches in the community have asked their members to invite children. The Herald Fresh Air fund, to which New Yorkers subscribe pays transportation, provides for medical care and for other contingencies.

The Friendly Town families who have asked for the same guests to return this year are: Mr. and Mrs. James Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Orlin Beach and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Skinner.

If you have room in your home and heart for an underprivileged child from July 13 to July 27, notify Mrs. Orlin Beach by June 15. You may invite a boy or girl between the ages of five and eleven.
