Clark-Caprarulo

Miss Josephine Caprarulo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Caprarulo of Hornell and Ronald H. Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil L. Clark of Andover were united in marriage Monday, July 2, 1951, in the East Avenue Methodist Church in Hornell. The Rev. Ira E. Elliott, pastor of Glad Tidings Tabernacle, performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. H. Johnston, organist accompanied Jack Graham, soloist, in "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Miss Helen Caprarulo, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Carol Mowers and Jean Caprarulo, nieces of the bride. Victor Clark was best man for his brother. Ushers were Laverne Patton of Almond and John Guilford of Friendship.

Anita Caprarulo, niece of the bride, and Richard Heers were flower girl and ring bearer.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown fashioned with a bodice of imported Chantilly lace over satin with scalloped collar and cuffs and three-quarter length sleeves. The slipper satin skirt, with lace inset, ended in a train. An imported silk illusion veil, of finger-tip length, fell from a tiara of pearl orange blossoms centered with rhinestones. She wore lace mitts and carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations and pink roses.

The maid of honor wore a gown of pink slipper satin and Chantilly lace styled similar to that of the bride. She wore a pink satin half hat, lace mitts and carried a nosegay of pink rosebuds.

Miss Mowers wore an orchid satin gown fashioned with a boat neckline with scalloped collar and short sleeves. The bouffant net overskirt fell from a cummerbund studded with rhinestones. She wore a half hat of matching shade, satin mitts and carried a nosegay of yellow roses.

Miss Caprarulo's gown was identically styled in aqua satin She carried a nosegay of yellow roses. The flower girl wore a floor-length gown of yellow taffeta with scalloped collar and short puffed sleeves. It was trimmed in aqua and orchid ribbons. Her bouquet was of yellow rosebuds.

The gowns worn by the bride and her attendants were designed by the bride and made by the maid of honor.

The ring bearer in a white garbardine suit, carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

The mother of the bride wore a blue crepe dress with black accessories, while the mother of the bridegroom selected an aqua print dress with black accessories. Both wore corsages of pink roses.

A reception for 200 guests was held in the church parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark left for a motor trip and upon return will live at 41 Mill street in Hornell. For traveling the bride wore a pink and navy suit with navy and white accessories and a pink rosebud corsage.

The bride, a graduate of Hornell High School is assistant Manager of the Canisteo Garment Co.

Mr. Clark is a graduate of Andover High School, a U. S. Army veteran of World War II and is employed at the State Highway Department.

Pre-nuptial events included a dinner by employees of the Canisteo Garment Company; a variety shower by the maid of honor and bridesmaids, a shower by Mrs. Leo Crosby and Mrs. Sidney Brock and a variety shower by Mrs. Ervin Elliot and Miss Lydia Garippa.

Notice

The Andover Firemen and Auxiliary will march at Shinglehouse, Pa., this evening, July 5.

Sister Dies

Mrs. Louis Dodge received word last week of the death of her sister, Miss Genny Ghilli, 39, of Cov-del-Predvial, Italy.
