Ch. beguttet beautiful beautiful. and the gold growped dandellons, fanns By the breath of the south, wiver with costsey where they stan Come berg. To the awaying tip of this chostnut Eners something to say to thee, Dear, dear! And the earth sings back to the morning light As I, love, to thee they were not ten rods behind. Man's care are dull to the tiny sound Under the ground
Of flowers pricking toward the sun; And fall of dow when the day is done to him: and he did his best.

We heard. As we sit and swine. On the top of the chestnut tree. The world is wide, and somewhere it holds-Perhaps in this tree—rifle was slowly lifted. Shady and safe, neath the leafy dome: A place just fit for a birdle's home, Why not for thee and me! Bird wings are beating The fragrant air, Bird songs are greeting

The daisies fair. And love and the sunlight are everywhere God made the world for thee and m And me, love, for thee. -Mary S. Woodman.

"We shall have a visit from the Indiana ping away, when grandmother seized the woman mounted, the ladder with a pail before night," remarked my grand revolver, took swift aim, and a horrible of water, dashed the contents out through at grandfather. "Well, I hope we will," replied grand- left their prisoner, and were out of out. Grandfather had his arms tied behind. to please you I hope we shall get a call him, and after a few minutes walked out had killed one and wounded others, and find any language on which to base a cold to think of it," that she always had the better of him in The wife heard every word of it, and rgument, and the meal was finished i good farm, and had already made many interest here. dangerous one, although a few miles be- would certainly be murdered if she com- the nearest settlement, carrying both to is to undergo. three miles in advance of the location of | hone that help might come from the previous settler. The Indians had grants or hunters before night. would not be interrupted in his peaceful | speak English quite well, stepped out | pursuits and was annoyed that grandmother should croak of evil. from any idea that he would ever have b took it and laid it up on a shelf. In her young days grandmother had house." been an emphatic 'romp." She could gallop, shoot a rifie, and even to the day propose to surrender, and they gathered Bailey's Tomboy," yet, after all, she tion. At length, leaving two of their which was raging beyond. made a good wife, and was the unak- number to guard him, the others, fifteen l and drive off through the fields to his but gathered brush and piled it against should riddle the bodies of the guards, have been unromantic enough to suggest the north door to force the woman to and would have delivered it in a moment the necessity of removing with dynamite a complicated machine, in which the looked to the west, back at the sun, and come out. went in and took the rifle down from its | She had no loopholes on that side, but sight of them, and his joy was so great golden haired siren sat and sang her at the machine first oils the clay, after Ticket Agent, Andover, N. Y. hooks. It had been loaded for months, going up stairs she softly removed a strip that he could not repress a loud shout. "wondrous melody," lyring careless which he places the rudely shared nines and she drew the bullet, carefully wiped of "chinking" from between two of the The Indians turned on hearing it, and navigators to destruction. It is not likely in a mold and inserts an oiled and not.

the barrel, and loaded the weapon again logs, thrust through the hand holding the also catching sight of the pursuers, gave to as nicely as a hunter could have done it. | revolver, and shooting by guess b Placing it in a corner, she went to an old wounded one of the savages. chest, fished out powder, lead, caps and | With a great whooping and yelling the | made a great leap into the air and fell sary for her to 'move on." builet molds, and soon had fifteen or rascals drew out of range and held an over like a log, four or five bullets hav. A place has already been found for her. twenty shining bullets on the table. other consultation. In a few minutes ing struck him in the head. Then the revolver was got down, cleaned | they all reauneared on the south side. | The other one ran directly for his comup, loaded, and finally the woman went gathered about grandfather, and directly panions, and his news raised the siege of the rocky sheres of that great South after which they are polished and put in the door to look for her husband. | struck a course for the woods from their trail, and the sculptor Albert Manthe has al. | ger, which they had first issued, grandfather | that a revengeful fee was on their trail, ready completed the model for the plow which they had first issued, grandfather | that a revengeful fee was on their trail, ready completed the model for the plow which they had first issued, grandfather | that a revengeful fee was on their trail, ready completed the model for the plow which they had first issued, grandfather | that a revengeful fee was on their trail, ready completed the model for the plow which they had first issued, grandfather | that a revengeful fee was on their trail, ready completed the model for the plow which they had first issued, grandfather | that a revengeful fee was on their trail, ready completed the model for the plow which they had first issued, grandfather | that a revengeful fee was on their trail, ready completed the model for the plow which they had first issued, grandfather | that a revengeful fee was on their trail, ready completed the model for the plow which they had first issued, grandfather | that a revengeful fee was on their trail, ready completed the model for the plow which they had first issued, grandfather | that a revengeful fee was on their trail, ready completed the model for the plow which they had first issued, grandfather | that a revengeful fee was on their trail, ready completed the model for the plant | grandfather | that a revengeful fee was on their trail, ready completed the model for the plant | grandfather | that a revengeful fee was on their trail, ready completed the model fee was on the plant | grandfather | grandfathe in the distant field, and the happy songs being led along behind. The woman the Indians made all haste out of the ready completed the model for the east a dozen other saggers in the kilm. The

of the birds were anything but harbingers | watched them with the greatest anxiety, | neighborhood and could not be over- ing. A lover of Rhenish romance, for- door of the kiln is then securely fastened of a coming affray in which more than believing that they had abandoned the taken. one of those shining bullets would find a siege and that she would never see her human target. "Peter Barnes, you are an idiot!" She watched and waited for about half threw his arms around grandmother, has cherished the memory of is then allowed to die out slowly and spoke the woman, watching him a mo- an hour, and was just thinking of open. shook hands with the men and acted the Lorelei, of his native stream, and when quite extinguished the doors are ment. "I don't want harm to come to a ling the door when a faint whooping like one gone crazy. He had been now proposes prompted by a desire to opened, the saggers allowed to cool and hair of your head, but you will get a reached her from the woods. A moment fearful lesson before noon this day!"

sterwards grandfather came flying so weak when he attempted to start introduce her to this distant zone. This which before were of a full blue color. earful lesson before noon this day!"

The arms being, in good order the words. The same fixed grandfather came fixing so weak when he attempted to start the men had to carry homeward that the men had to carry which will be a lasting memorial, not the inside. The south door feetened with its most of the woods in full cry, but were forty the inside. The south door feetened with its most of the woods in full cry, but were forty the inside. The south door feetened with its most of the full cry, but were forty the inside. The south door feetened with its most of the full cry, but were forty the death of the woods in full cry, but were forty and art of. Germany. Demorest's feetily white and soft, have become perfect are carefully pecked in farmely for the woods in full cry, but were forty and art of. Germany. Demorest's feetily white and soft, have become perfect are carefully pecked in farmely for ship and art of. Germany. Demorest's feetily white and soft, have become perfect are carefully pecked in farmely for ship and art of. Germany. Demorest's feetily white and soft, have become perfect are carefully pecked in farmely for ship and art of. Germany. Demorest's feetily white and soft, have become perfect are carefully pecked in farmely for ship and art of. Germany. Demorest's feetily white and soft, have become perfectly white and soft with the south for the woods in full cry, but were forty back to the start the men had to carry which will be a lasting memorial, not the south feetily white and soft, have become perfectly white and soft are south feetily white and so two palls with water, picked up and car- had been made, and she laid down the then cleared the table revolver and stood ready to open the door.

"Run, father! run for your life!"

couraged by this the Indians were chop- I ment came through into the garro looked at the house, then looked back up that the redskins were fearful voice made her-heart ache. But she lafter an hour had passed without Kansas. She made no reply, and directly the red- and then her eye fell upon the horses. the judges are allowed discretion, a hamlet in that section and billed, and that if she held out there was I

"Come, hurry up, quick. You no | lowed by whoops and yells.

ball, pitch quoits, ride at a speech to know that the woman did not grandfather bound by the name of around the prisoner and held a consulta- laces turned in the direction of the battle. in all, made a detour and collected on the forward, and only-halted when within ly struck a course for the woods from the Turner cabin in a moment. Finding American stream, the Rie de la Plata was nearly erazed to see them assault the old man with knives and clubs. They sport. The old man groaned a little, but the broom corn. Scientific American hoped to do: and in his 'heart_he l thei grandmother would not be impru-

Her heart, big with sympathy and distreand her eyes full of tears, the woman Several of them inoved back out of the whistling of the balls, which every me mother, looking across the breakfast table | yell mingled with the report. The In- | the crevice, and mere accident guided the dians then fell back to where they had dash so that the flames were drowned Two hours had passed since the fi appearance of the Indians; grandmother a few feet in advance of his captors. He such a firing and yelling had been kept charge. The government is authorized before and refused to obey the command given | help might come to the woman, and | papers whose contents are displeasing ? Indians advanced, drew their therefore they withdrew. She counted "Nancy! Nancy! unbar the door, none were left behind. They took the door, took a scout around the house The animals had made a long run when ing toward the house, dragging a portion how offensive any language may b.

Two bachelors named Turner had abin and a farm in the direction of a chance to break away and run to the sank down. She had caught sight Like so many tigers the pursuers crept like less mythical sweet singers silently arranged for a volley which chant men abroad. But the Germans more but for grandfather. He caught the dangerous rock upon which the pipes are further manipulated. The man

Grandfather was like a child when re. Buenos Ayres, who possesses considera, and coke, is started and kept at a white p.m. leased. He laughed and cried by turns. ble land on a remantic part of the Rio de heat for fifteen or twenty hours. The fire

Law and Harsh Penalty. to the office and nick out for prison just very much harder, for it threw the whole Each copy of a newspaper must be fully scan the columns to see if they ca. parts of the country. Over 5,000 gross, & selmont.

have used therein. could possibly have foretold: hidden "Nancy," he called, "the Indians say first taking fright, going across the fields as they please in all cases of this kind. for a mile or more, and were now come for it is for them to determine not c

It was the hardest struggle of her long of the plow after them. In ten min the government, but they also determine suddenly heard the reports of rifles, fol. apply to all respectable, law-abiding same manner in which bread is kneaded, little v pressed by the police, their editors all fore a bench, on the top of which Foreign Letter in New York Commerci The Lorelei in South America.

one would ever have believed that sl the Lorelei has yet fully realized how ished wire through the stems, making completely her charming song is ren. | the aperture through which the smoke is and the one behind dered harmless and that it will be neces-

A colossal statue of the Lorelei is about to be made in Germany and imported to merly a Rhinelander, now dwelling in and the fire, which is fed with charcoal 245

Tat over again. New York Press.

bearing some analogy to scurry broke t The result was the

THE PIPE OF CLAY.

How It is Made.

formed into the bowl of the pipe the Clay Tobacco Pipe, and There are few industries the processes of the manufacture of clay tobacco pipes. The writer recently wandered—more by bunklik pipe are daily made and shipped to all

Said the proprietor of the establishment visited when asked by the writer manner in which the pipes were made: "We manufacture more than a dozen different varieties and designs of clay ing worked at Glen Cove, L. I. with freight charges, etc., it amounts to [about $5 per ton before it is landed at the and carefully freed from all foreign sub-

I rolls it out to the desired length and Great Valley, arriving thickness, leaving a knob like lump at 4.12 n. m the end of each piece, which later is drawn in using. The mold is then placed in the machine and the superfluous clay and Real Estate Agency. EAST-No. 6-Way Express...

No. 14—Atlantic Express. ANDOVER NEWS. No. 20-Way Express b Printing done on short notice No. 1—Through Express. No. 95-Way Freight.

P. BRAINARD, M. D Office at Store on Main Street. E.M. STILLMAN, M. D.

/ ANDOVER N. Y

E. COMSTOCK, M.-D. Greenwood Street, Residence on

Dealer in

"Ill Packages from Fifteen to

REPAIRING

A SPECIALTY MADE OF The Centennial Watch and the y are the best watch sold for the

CONFECTIONERY

OYSTERS.

For the Latest Styles

Watches and Clocks, and they

art Bought to-Sell :--

H. MOURHESS, Andover, N. has a beautiful line of.

and all the new shades and styles of Ribbon from No. 1 to 40.

ine line of Ladies' Furnishing Good.

AND SAN

Love and devotion for those who refor those who have

· Rise the green hills that I loved I fanned by the zephyrs of peace, and the Knock when you will at our hea. Peace like an angel with white wing

Daily the ranks of our soldiers grov Peace in our hearts:—was not war a ouseholds bereft, and the whole northpearly gates.

Nile, N. Y., June 19, 1888.

MANY ITEMS OF INTEREST.

A slight earthquake shock was Grappling a fee that is not conducted. Treason was king and secession True, as the needle is true to the pole.

ver these hills and along these green East, north and west in one grand phalanx rallied. On to fight for the flag of the free. Brave were our boys, ah! the world knows no braver,

Out from our homes they rushed at Montreal at 4 o'clock Sunday after Ready to answer at duty's first call. Yever was such a grand army enlisted, noon Worthy the cause they were strug-All were endured as the fortune of -

I, or could you, forgive and ne to A. B. Woodward, dentist. Iornellsville, for a vulcanizer. Clashing of sabres and shricking of igland dropped 30,000 pounds last year. British grown tea is taking its look, Nebraska. Days in the hospital, filled by disease. Yould that war's record in song or Bore nothing darker, more dread.

Scenes that strong hearts shudder Prison pens packed with our poor starynear Findlay, Ohio. It started of Pining for home and the loved ones the the rate of 6,400 barrels a day. Robbed of their every possession une 21st, by Rev. Mr. Rafter. if the mercy of God is sufficient If his forgiveness such demons sets, Rev. and Mrs. G. H. F. Randolph of Alfred Centre, are soon to go to centre of the city, easily approached by many

While unrepentant, their hands are church. our special offer of 50 cents for the brown but of the race course. Within the toward a home rather than away from held during the Fat. Over yonder across Faith lures us on though the future

Hornellsville'e leading capitalists are roofed bullings designed for the exhibition with the lease of Joseph Gillies, and an op'n centre court and covering a space the ranks of society we still find the ideal A rural exchange says if there were which to exhibit their proudly anched necks of American society. We find in every as many people who know how to and graceful limb. A builting 560 feet class in college some natural been gentle-Mourning the cost of such blessings What have we gained by the war, O my pay their subscription as well as they sheep and sw ne. In an arcade 290 feet in branch of industry, there is a man with know how to run a newspaper, print-length are combined the dog and poultry a good heart, modest, unselfish and no-Now, as before, the dear starry flag ers would have an easier time.

We could wish all our readers niovment of the Buffalo Express. when in live stock which await our examin-And why should they not enjoy it, ation over across the meadow, and as we followed the line of the race track off to the store, in the railway office, do we look session of them. Do you know that there are of moulded brick with interlaid carve laid within the city limi a. The tentacles of the octopus are flung over the public streets in all directions. Of course Buffalo is proud, thoroughly artistic and in every way is road centres in the world and would doubt- of as railroa i enterprise should see fit to extend n this direction, but when it comes to a question of the practical imprisonment of the ileges of the streets! Sooner or later legisla- to bring exhibitors from any part of the comtion must be effected, either to elevate or sink the railroad tracks entering this city. There are now twenty-two lines of railroad centering here; and at East Buffalo there is such a confusion of tracks, such an intrica tangle of, iron rails that the speedy delivery g of freight, come from whichever point it may, is a matter which cannot be depended upon continuing city." The old proverb. 'a nly a remnant is here, but I fancy Over the river the grand, army wa Answering the roll-call at Heaven longer time than it has taken such freight in HARTHA A. BURDICK transit to this point. Centralia Buffalo is rapidly asserting her claims to be regarded as a "convention city." The delightful summer climate, the convenience railroads and the sufficiency of excellent hotel accommodations give to Buffulo especial advantages in the matter. The millers convention, two weeks ago, was largely attended and emmently successful. A large and more

NDMCA LAMBI

5. It promises to be a representative gather- during that entire period | falo are making great prep arations for the Londition would such on the subject will be delivered by Dr. A. B. and surroundings. bury, Mass.; Dr. O. W. Archibald of James-prise can be given in this letter, but I hope how recordes and om week to week to keep your readers informed as to its progress. Anyone who knows Buffalo knows the Buf falo Driving Park. It is the finest mile track in the United States. It is here that the kings tantappland. Take this oval—a full mits in a grounds. They are bounded by Putter st. est uba, were married at that place, on the north. Ferry street on the south Jefcase of "over the hi is and far away." for the Fair graunds are actually the geographical the entire length of the north side of the impurchase the Page house, together | run the blood of noble sires. A building with |

"taking in," as the siving goes, the attract to fame and honor.

In dimensions it leads long by 250 feet wid has to deal to-day is how to rescue her stracts stone stone lead to a three-arched entrance from the from octopus which has taken pos- thirty-six feet wide. These arches are built windows with isnus of elaborately mould is perjectly true. Six hundred and odd pressed brick. The effect as you enter the miles of two rall from roadway have been building must of necessity prove striking and beautiful, for there is a skilful elaboration of niust have the detailed description of thi naturally so of being one of the largest rail. I ing structure for a future letter. It is worth less welcome as many more steam highways | building of which every resident of the state

> PHILOSOPHY OF CHANGE. Living in One Unvarying Rut-The In-

by Buffa o m reliants with any degree of rolling stone gathers no moss," is born I have been assured by several out of the studidity of greed. on side-tracks, within the city limits for a race, who must fix themselves tightly keep, their mouths open and gather-

To be tied for life to one place, one is to retard growth. Use continually one set of muscles in a certain way, and one locality, but one Eystem of mental important gathering, entirely national in its faculties is called out, the other powers scope, is to be held early in July. I refer suffer for lack of exercise. to the National Conference of Charites which | Imagine a human being confined until assembles at Music Hall in this city on July 40 years of age in a single room, seeing ing in every respect, and the people of Buf- person at certain stated hours. In what entertainment of the distinguished visitors. Hiberated to meet and cope with the The most interesting session promises to oc- | world? Yet, relatively, people who stay cur on Saturday, July 7, when the unpertant | in one place their whole lives are little subject of the care and treatment of the in- | better off when taken out of their corners sane will be under consideration. A litess s and placed in unaccustomed conditions

The destiny of the awakened soul is t in | Tuscalcosa, Ala.; Dr. C. I. Fisher of Tewks- | travel, to explore, and to gather to itself town, Dakota, and Dr. A. E. Kelly of Nor- from new lands, new peoples and new conditions of life. To stop is impossible ing just where to begin. Only the briefest | ter prepared to meet the next. It will > much on the move is a pitiless prospect you say, no abiding place or continuing of change and changes. What is it you Keep in your mind this vast rectangle with that come of a barnacle? or of one who Baptist | the dig green oval made by the rice track, in | desires to make of you a companion barthe centre, while I try to give you some klea | nacle? Trust in the power that desires of it in detail. We enter the grounds near | you should realize your greatest happithe solutionest corner. Before us is on spread | ness, and launch boldly your craft on the the pretty mealow en local by the broad unknown seas. -You may be traveling loval is a letter oval tormed by an asphait one. Your fellow apostles are all traveltrack balf a mile in circumterence, upon ers. You can affiliate with none other, of which the famous bicycle tou nament is to be You want the association of experience, the twice belted meadow, stretching nearly originality, varied thought and varied in-

280 feet square is provided excit ively for the gentleman. We are charmed with the exhibition of cattle. The blooded horses have | good breeding which we discover in the structure of similar proportions in humblest as well as in the highest ranks long and 30 feet wide is furnished for prize man, and in every profession, in every ble; who is not thinking of himself. but _Gf cours: we are not inspecting these of that mother whom he hopes to supfeatures of the Fair. Biess my soul, it will port; he is working for her and not for take us a week to no that. We are merely himself; he begins thus to find the road the Fair are bo sting that it is the largest