State Liquor Authority Announces Primary Day Rules for Licensees

July 31—Chairman John F. O'Connell of the New York State Liquor Authority announced today the prohibited hours for the sale of liquor, wine and beer throughout the State of New York on Primary Day, Tuesday, August 21, 1951, during the when the polls are open (3:00 p. m. to 10:00 p. m. in New York City and Westchester, and 12:00 noon to 9:00 p. m. in all other areas)

Section 105 (14c) of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Law provides that "no premises licensed to sell liquor and/or wine for off-premise consumption shall be permitted to remain open on any day of a general or primary election during the hours when the polls are open."

Section 106 (5c) of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Law provides that "no alcoholic beverages shall be sold, offered for sale or given away upon the premises licensed to sell alcoholic beverages at retail for on-premise consumption on any day of a general or primary election during the hours when the polls are open."

Grocery stores and drug stores licensed to sell beer at retail for off-premise consumption are prohibited from selling beer while the polls are open in those counties where the Local Alcoholic Beverage Control Board has restricted its sale on Primary Day.

There are no restrictions in this respect regards the sale of beer for off-premise consumption by grocery stores and drug stores in Allegany County, according to the list of counties enclosed with this release.

In 1945, a total of 11,877 newspapers and 5,880 periodicals were being published in the United States.

Order Trees now for 1952 Reforestation

The tree order blanks for the trees to be purchased from the New York State Conservation Department by individuals desiring to do reforestation work are now available at the Allegany County Soil Conservation office, reports Robert A. Reed. Because of the limited number of trees available to any one individual, Mr. Reed urges that all trees be ordered as soon as possible and suggests that you stop at the Soil Conservation office and secure one of the blanks.

The following are some of the varieties of trees available for planting: Scotch Pine, Red Pine, Jack Pine, Norway Spruce, White Spruce, Japanese Larch. These are in addition to the shrubs.

Cooperators of the Allegany County Soil Conservation District are urged to place their orders at the earliest possible date so that the Directors of the District will know how much labor will be required for the tree planting program next year.

As in the past years, the District will have available a limited quantity of trees and shrubs furnished by the Soil Conservation Service and the Bureau of Game of New York State Conservation Department, which will be used to establish food and cover patches for wildlife on individual farms.

Commissioner Duryea of the New York State Conservation Department has assured the Directors of the Allegany County Soil Conservation District and Mr. Reed that the Conservation Department will again cooperate with the District in 1952 on the planting program known as 48-D which guarantees an experienced labor crew for tree planting on farms where there are 10,000 trees or less to be planted.

Since there are some 1200 farms cooperating with the Allegany County Soil District, those desiring trees would do well to place their orders as soon as possible, advises Mr. Reed.

Falls Are Main Type of Injury On Farmsteads

"Falls are the principal type of injury on the farm and in the farm home," according to the health and safety committee of the colleges of agriculture and home economics at Cornell. Members urge that ladders and other climbing equipment be carefully checked.

Here are some pointers for the safe use of ladders:

1. Firmly set the base of the ladder one-fourth of the ladder's height from the wall.
2. Always face the ladder going up or down and hold on with both hands—don't hurry.
3. Avoid leaning too far out on the ladder—it is safer to move the ladder.
4. Clean mud or grease from your hands and shoes before climbing.
5. Tools or materials that cannot be carried safely in pockets should be hoisted with a hand line.
6. Avoid climbing or working on a ladder in a high wind.

Ladders should always be kept under cover and in a handy location when not in use. It is never desirable to use make-shift devices such as chairs, boxes or tables, as severe injury and even death can result from falls even at low levels. Inspect ladders frequently for rusted or loose bolts and nails, cracks or rotted or loose rungs or supports. Make repairs immediately or get a new ladder. That's cheaper than having an accident.
