Angelica Fair Starts Next Wednesday

For the one hundred and seventh time, the Old Reliable Allegany County Fair will open its annual exhibition on Wednesday, August 22nd. It will continue throughout the remainder of the week with special attractions both afternoon and evening till midnight Saturday night, August 25th.

The automobile and farm machinery exhibits will be very complete. Modern refrigeration for both dairy and home will be displayed and explained to those who wish it. Everything in the latest kitchen equipment will delight the eye of the housewife.

The entries in the live stock and agricultural exhibits are many. Not only dairy animals, but a nice line of beef cattle will be shown. It is in these classes that both the oldsters and youngsters will vie for top honors. Members of the County 4-H clubs will have a very active part. The competition will interest hundreds of spectators on Thursday when they will be judged. The school children have been given the use of one building, where they can display their best work.

Mid-way will be taken over by the Buffalo Shows Carnival Co., where there will be the rides so dear to the heart of the younger ones. There will be games too, where one may test his skill.

Horse racing will attract many to the grand stand. An excellent program of free attractions will be presented upon a platform in front of the stand. This includes a revue of glamorous girls who will enterain with their novelty acts and dance numbers. A magician will present his "Marvels of Mystery." Aerial acts on aerial bars will thrill the crowd with daring athletic stunts. A troupe of six trained black Morgan horses will be presented in a remarkable equestrain act. Jo-Jo the clown will also be there for more fun making.

Wednesday, August 22nd, is Children's Day and the admission will be free to all children under 16 years old.

On Thursday and Saturday evenings horse pulling will take place in front of the grand stand.

Friday will be Firemen's Day with 30 companies in line.

Fireworks will be displayed on Wednesday and Saturday evening following the program on the platform.

The annual meeting of the Andover G.L.F. will be held at the Andover Grange Hall Monday evening August 20, at 8 o'clock.

Two committeemen will be elected to succeed Carl Phillips of Andover and E. Carlton Green of Alfred Station, whose terms on the Member's committee expire at this time. Committeemen Gussie O'Dell, Harry Baker, and Erwin Lewis, all of Andover, will remain in office.

The Whitesville meeting will be held Tuesday, August 21, at 8 o'clock in the Whitesville School.

The terms of committeemen Henry James of Genesee, Pa., and William L. Graves of Whitesville are expiring at this time, and election will be held to choose their successors. Other members who will remain on the committee are Lewis Hall, Lawrence Walters, and Clair Stebbins, all of Whitesville.

The meetings will also include reports on G.L.F.'s local and over-all operations during the past year.

Red Cross Flood Relief Campaign

Donations to the special fund appeal are reported coming in from all sections of the country. These donations will help people like the Korean veteran who flew home on rotation. His home was buried beneath Kansas flood waters. His buddies will help rebuild his house with materials supplied by the Red Cross. Red Cross rehabilitation assistance is an outright gift, not a loan. It is a gift from the American people to those in need given thru the medium of the Red Cross.

Won't you help? Send a special disaster contribution to the Allegany County Chapter at Wellsville, to your local chairman, Mrs. Frank Holmes or leave at the Andover National Bank.

Buffalo Cop to Be Wellsville Chief

Lieut Joseph A. DeCillis of the Buffalo Police Department has been chosen by the Wellsville Village Board as Chief of Police in Wellsville, effective January 1.

Lieut. DeCillis, top man on the list prepared by the Allegany County Department of Civil Service, will complete 25 years of service in Buffalo on January 1 and will be eligible for a pension from that department.

To The Baseball Fans Of Andover

Where are all the baseball fans of Andover? Last Sunday Andover played Naples here for the 3rd place play-off, in as interesting a game as you would see on any diamond, and Andover emerged victorious 5-4. But you could count on your two hands, all that were on the grandstand, and when the expenses were taken out, they had $1.90 to split between the two clubs. How can a team play with no support.

This Evening Tribune League is composed of eight good ball clubs, who play a good brand of baseball, worth seeing by any baseball fan and Andover has the poorest crowds in the league.

Where are all the baseball-minded people of Andover? When you go to a game in Hornell or Wellsville, you see plenty of Andover faces, so there are a lot who still like baseball.

Why not come out and see your home town club play too? These players give a lot of their time to practice and playing and you can help them win, by giving a little of your time to come and see them play.

Some of the merchants of Andover have donated to the expenses of the club, but the club still needs more money to get out of the red before they wind up this season.

Merlyn Phillipson is Treasurer of the Ball Club and would be glad to take any donations from fans or stores who haven't given to the club as yet. (This money drive would be unnecessary if the fans would come out and support their team like the other towns do.)

This Sunday Andover plays at Arkport, the winning team being the contender for a three game series to be played with the winner of the Bath-Naples game, for the championship of the Evening Tribune League. Now this game means a lot to the boys, they want in that series, so let's pack that Arkport grandstand full of Andover people and cheer our boys to victory Sunday at 2:30.

Let's show the team where those baseball fans of Andover really are.
