Andover Loses Play-off Game At Arkport

Andover lost the sudden death play-off game in the Tribune League to Arkport Sunday at Arkport by a score of 5 to 6.

Arkport took an early lead in the game by getting two runs in the first, one in the third and another in the sixth while Andover was able to push a lone tally over in the second.

Going into the last frame Andover staged a five hit barrage which netted them four runs and gave them a one run edge, but Arkport came back in their half of the inning, after two were out, with three hits which with the help of an Andover error gave them the game.

He plans to move his family here in the near future and will reside in the O'Leary apartment on Dyke stree.

Midget Game Tonight - Meeting Friday Night

Thursday evening at 6:30 the last Midget League game of the summer will be played on the Andover field. A fine Genesee, Pa., team will furnish the opposition in what promises to be a very entertaining and exciting game. Genesee holds two decisions over the local boys with one game ending in a win for Andover.

Friday evening, Aug. 24: at 7:30, all interested persons are cordially invited to attend a Little League organization meeting in the school cafeteria, to make plans for fielding a team in the 8-12 age group in Andover next year. A league will be formed by Andover, Genesee, Greenwood and Whitesville according to the standards set up by The Little League Headquarters in Williamsport, Pa. The Little League World Series are now being held in Williamsport and a film on last year's series will be shown at the meeting.

Plan to see these young fellows play on Thursday evening but more important attend the organization meeting and to see the film. All are invited Kids bring your parents, parents bring your kids, and if you haven't any kids, bring yourself and somebody else's kids. Lets all turn out and support the Little League. It's a community affair.

Vacation Church School

Closing exercises of the Protestant Vacation Church School being held this week at the Baptist Church will be held Friday morning at 11:00 o'clock, followed by a picnic for the children and their parents and friends at noon.

Besides their stories and lessons, the children have been busy building churches, making scrap books, puppets, toy animals, and other things. The closing exercises will include an exhibit of what the children have been doing.

Those who wish to attend the picnic should bring a dish to pass, sandwiches and table service. Ice cream will be furnished. All are invited to the exercises and to the picnic.
