Active Student Government

By Mary Brown

In previous years when new student council officers are fresh in their roles, a great deal of enthusiasm for an active student government is evident, but by the second month of school all these new ideas are forgotten.

Let's turn over a new leaf this year and retain this eagerness until next June.

A.C.S. has never had a very active plan for student government, therefore many students are unwilling to co-operate with any movement for this.

There are many ways that a student body may be active in the administration of their school. For example, a student court may be held weekly to punish rule-breakers, a monitor system may be installed to keep order in the halls and student council officers may preside at pep rallys and assemblies.

Perhaps some of these or other policies can be used, but whatever is done, an active group is needed.

Senior Class Plan Bake Sale

During a meeting held last week in the senior homeroom, it was decided that the class would sponsor a bake sale, September 29 at Clifford Howland's store.

Since the purpose of this sale is to raise funds for class rings and possibly a class trip, the seniors will appreciate many customers.

Cheerleaders Cheer For Soccer

Rah, rah, rah, let's go! Here comes some very good news about the cheerleaders of A.C.S. This year something new has been added to the regular schedule. The two junior varsity and five varsity cheerleaders have been leading the yells for the A. C.S. soccer team at all soccer games. They have chosen to be attired in grey slacks and Andover sweat shirts. They were seen in action for the first time Sept. 18.

Gay Rogers and Carol Nye were chosen to fill the positions vacated by Clarice Nye and Anita Nichols on the varsity squad. Other members are Charity Howland, Marion Milligan and Anna Marie Joyce. The J.V. squad, which has Sandra Bostwick and Lucille Smith as its only members now, will have the addition of three new cheerleaders shortly before basketball season.

School Fair Today

By Charity Howland

Once again the annual Agricultural and Homemaking Fair moved into action today in the A.C.S. gym and on the playground. It is being held this afternoon and will be held this evening.

On the playground the cattle are being exhibited while in the gym we see the poultry, vegetable, canned goods, baked goods, flower and sewing exhibits. Mr Lawrence Dedrick, County 4-H Agent, will judge dairy cattle while Robert Baker will judge vegetable and poultry exhibits. In the homemaking department Miss Fay Pfiyter, Steuben County 4-H agent will judge the work with the help of several local girls.

Prizes will be money with ribbons denoting the honor. Blue signifies excellent while "good" is marked by a red ribbon and white denotes "honorable mention."

Several booths and stands are operating to add money to class treasuries. The seniors will operate the food stand and will specialize in hot dogs, pop, candy and french fries. The F.F.A. will be the sponsor of the "nail driving" contest and "test your muscle" skill booth. The Fun House and the Wishing Well will be run by the F.H.A.

Tonight a movie "The Country Fair" or "4-H Highlights" will be shown. Directly following this an auction of the cakes, pies, cookies, candy and vegetables will be held.

Over five-hundred entrees have been made in the Ag department and just as many have been contributed in the homemaking department.

The public is invited to attend in the afternoon or evening.

Harvey

By Lucille Smith

While waiting for the doors to open at the social hour Friday night, I reached into my pocket for my handerchief and something grabbed my thumb. I yanked my hand back and there was Harvey. He seemed very pleased with himself, but I wasn't as I had a very sensitive thumb. By the time I got Harvey settled on my shoulder, the doors were open. Harvey started making eyes at Anita Nichols, but stopped when he saw Jean Daley and Terry Mulholland. Harvey then went to the ping pong tables where he saw "Mimsie" Briggs and Roy Halsey were having a "fast" game.

Harvey wanted to know what Joyce Fuller, Gloria Marsh and certain other junior high girls were playing. I told him basketball and that "Pat" Baker and Sandra Joyce were referees. Harvey said it looked more like soccer. What was that "awful" noise coming from the piano. Harvey saw "Butch" Vickers trying very hard to play something. Harvey also saw Kent Harder talking to Mr. and Mrs. Stackwick. Looking to where the boys were shooting baskets, Harvey saw many high school boys trying to outjump each other for the ball, among them were Charlie and "Rich" Davis, Avery Mead, Robert Sherman and Charlie Howland.

Harvey commented that Marian Milligan and Virginia Kibbe seemed to be enjoying themselves playing badminton. When the dancing began Harvey immediately began looking for the beautiful girls. He started with "Jackie" Vickers but saw that "Ted" Smith was going to square dance with her. Sandra Bostwick, Harvey observed, was teaching "Jim" Connor to round dance. He also observed that Charity Howland and Dale Green were having a good time.

Harvey seemed very tired but managed to get to Gleason's where he fell asleep dreaming about "The Spy."

He: 'Will you marry me?"
She: "No, but I'll always admire you good taste."

Panthers Roar Over Wellsville Lions

Last Friday Andover's soccer team won over the Wellsville eleven with a 5 to 3 victory on the local field.

At the end of the first quarter the two teams were even with a goal by Ronald Howlnad and one by Sheridan of Wellsville. In the second quarter Atwell scored for Andover and Wellsville got a penalty kick. The third quarter went scoreless with the Panthers driving hard all the way. In the last quarter Atwell smashed thru a penalty kick making the final score 5 to 3.

This game is Andover's first league game of the season.

Revised Soccer Schedule

By Danny Pelton

The soccer schedule has been changed for the Panthers so that two games will be underway on the same night in Section II. This was started with Andover playing Scio last Tuesday at Scio.

The new schdule for Andover is as follows:

Sept. 28. Friday: Andover at Allentown.

Oct. 9. Tuesday: Canaseraga at Andover

Oct. 11. Thursday: Alfred-Almond at Andover.

These games are all league games so let's support the boys when they arrive home after Scio and Allentown games.

Kitchen Korner

By Billie Ryan

Do you want a different way to cook a pot roast? Prunes, cloves and cider add a new flavor. Vinegar may be used if cider is not available.

Pot Roast With Prunes

Four pounds chuck or rump roast
3 tablespoons fat 4 cloves
2 onions sliced: teaspoon salt
½ pound uncooked prunes, soaked.
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 cup water 1 cup cider

Brown meat on all sides in hot fat. Add onions, when browned, place meat, fat, and onions in a heavy kettle, add remaining ingredients.

Reduce heat, cover tightly, and simmer slowly until tender, 3 or 4 hours. Serve with potato pancakes or mashed potatoes. Serves 6 to 8.

The Spy

If you're still wondering who the spy is, give up because you'll never guess.

Bus students and their activities on the bus are always under the constant watch of a special investigator. He reports that Dolores Brown is admired by a new student, David McHenry.

The agent in charge of broken romances made an error in last week's report. Dale Green and Charity Howland are still going steady.

Another special flash from the investigator: Joyce Spicer enjoys every Saturday night in Genesee.

Every week my agent reports a new romance at the Canisteo skating rink. This week its Shirley Tidd and Don Stocum.

Even weiner roasts in the woods are not safe from spying scrutiny. Billie Ryan and her little sister enjoyed encountering a boy scout troup while hiking Saturday.

My Scio office has run into a snag. Does anyone know why James Conde is anxiously awaiting the first A.C.S.P.A. meeting? Could it be because of Beverly Tracy?

If you are wondering why Mike Connor has been so blue since school started, it's because he misses a certain summer romance with Mary Ann McDonough.

That's all the news for this week, but I'll be back next Thursday. Don't forget, my dear students, the Spy hears all and sees all.

Twenty Years Ago In A. C. S.

By Marion Milligan

Exclusive ! ! ! Andover High School tidbits of 1931 are on the verge of reminiscence. The following news items were copied from former issues of the school paper.

Jan. 16: This week's assembly was given by the seventh grade and directed by Mrs. Harder, Friday morning, but as the musical highlight they had Professor Wingate of Alfred University.

In Andover in the week of Jan. 16, sorrow was very heavy on the shoulders of the students.

Yes: Both the girl's and boys' basketball teams lost to one of our present rivals; namely Alfred-Almond. Even though the following girls played with determination and fortitude until the shrill of the final whistle. They finished with the final score at Andover 24, Alfred-Almond 28. The girls were: Holmes right forward; Joyce, left forward; Brague, center; Edwards s. c.; DeRemer, right guard and Wood left guard.

With Mr. Fenner of Alfred University as referee, Howland right forward, Brundage, left forward, Cable, center; Church right guard and Mulholland made up Andover's boys team which lost to A.A. 15-23.

Jan. 31: A.C.S. welcomed three new students namely Franklyn Nye, Erland Kailborn and Arnold Euchorn.

Election 1931 Eighth Grade officers:

President, Oliver Kruger
Vice president, John Carson
Secretary, Martha Eldridge
Treasurer, Franklyn Nye
Social committee chairman Mary McAndrew.

When You Move

"Blessed be nothing" probably expresses the feelings of most folks when they have to move. But once they find themselves settled in a new place, they're mighty glad to have all their possessions in good condition. And one way to protect possessions in transit is to be sure your packed goods are well padded.

Protect corners and finished surfaces with pads such as quilts or blankets. Have furniture crated when it is sent by freight, and to make the job easier first remove detachable parts such as mirrors, glass tops, and casters. Leave an inch of space between furniture and crate and fill the inch space with pads to absorb jolts and prevent marring. And one more point: take the weight off the legs of furniture by fastening supporting rails to the sides of the crate and by resting the weight of the furniture on the rails.

Freezers & Milk Coolers

Up right freezers have seperate doors for each shelf and freezing fluid under each shelf, also drop in deep freezers.

Milk Coolers, all sizes, including those that open from the side eliminating the lifting of milk cans in or out.

to 100, Ella Baker and Ruth Walton.

Mar. 13: Music news: Miss Harder and Miss Beeman held the first meeting of a school glee club on Tuesday night at which 35 were present.

Miss McGlougklin, girl's coach, started interclass basketball and three days a week the high school gym is filled with girls tossing basketballs at the goal and other girls. Anna Dean was elected captain of the Frosh team while Leah Oakes held the title of captain for the Sophomore-Junior team.

Mar. 27, 1931: Mr. Backus, News editor, gave a talk last Friday during the regular weekly assembly. His subject was "Vacations and Journalism."

Mar. 28, 1931: Mr. Lloyd Robinson called a meeting of the 4-H club on Wednesday and 37 boys attended.

May 1: Congratulations! and more congratulations. Listen to this !! Flash!

"Joe" Lynch won a medal awarded by the International and Colonial Overseas Exposition conducted by the French Government from Paris, France. The medal was awarded to Joesph Lynch for an essay entitled "Why I Would Like to Spend Ten Days in Paris."

May 5: The Andover track team starts practice today. Coach Perrone is relying on Tuttle, Joyce, Trask, Alderson and Ingraham for long distance runs. For dashes it's the two Browns, McHugh, Spicer, Padden, Clark and Brundage. For field events the best performers are Cannon on high jump, Brundage in the pole vault, and Howland in weight events.

May 9: Note after thumbing through many yellow pages of history I found that in '31 we had a few talented poets. I would like to present a couple poems written by A.C.S.'s own students.

There was a girl in Salamanca
After whom the boys did hanka
She stayed out late
And let her mother wait
So Out in the Woodshed Ma
did Spanka. John McHugh
I had a little dog named Jack.
He got killed on the railroad track;
A train came by and Jack flew high;
He went to Heaven on a ticket to Chi.
I will see him by and by

Meet Our Teachers

By Anita Nichols

Another new teacher has been brought into the news of A.C.S.

Miss Helen Olmstead, who was born in Oakfield, N. Y., and resided there most of her life. Miss Olmstead attended Brockport State Teachers College, and at present resides on East Center street in Andover. When asked if she enjoyed teaching at A. C. S. she replied, "Yes, very much so far."

Miss Olmstead enjoys reading and seeing movies. "Gone With the Wind" is her favorite movie. She likes June Allyson and Bugs Bunny in pictures. She enjoys reading Jane Eyre, likes chef salad and preferes a Plymouth to all other cars. Her pet peeve is "Girls that are always complaining about dressing and showering in gym."

Last but not least her philosophy of live is "Live and Let Live."
