THE NORWAY SHEEP."

The etorm dram shows its warning sign; the see Liong the series the fresh foams gouts in ghastly

While that and flerce the Norway sheep are com- to see what was going on, and also de-The wife and bairns will get no bread from you. Tom, whom she knew by reputation. der see," he thinks, cable's links;

swhile? This is the coolest place on the she added: "Milly, what do you think?" that he has frequently disposed of the ception of time, though both alike essential ments beit the lines or see the broad brown swhile? This is the coolest place on the

When the wild white sheep of Norway were coming from the down, Who knows what tale of death or wreck to-morrow may be told!

AS OTHERS SEE US.

rate," said Harry, as the three friends and he is sunburned and dignified; Kate to reinstate himself in their good graces. alighted at the wharf. "There should be was right." one more, though—one for Tom, poor asked Agatha. fellow; he has no knack of making ac-"Yes: it's too bad about Tom," re- name is Tom. Whether he is my friend marked Phil, derisively.

society talk; it's all hollow. If I could | hurt the feelings of this gentleman or of | like." "You might as well be a deaf and | you—there is some mystery about it that | of merriment, began a make believe con- minds me of the day when she told the versation with him on their fingers.

if one has a million!"

and Kate began immediately, in awkward and distressing. Isn't it sad. Milly? and he is young He had placed one of the brightest. new russet. And worth a million, too; he went below, and meeting his friends, is perhaps a hundred feet down to the memory. I suppose he'd give it all to be able to said, very sternly:

Probably no one clse on the boat knows either of you again. bow to talk with him.' "But I presume he can write." said of the facts through Agatha, laughed till | tears."

taste he dresses: nothing to indicate his sist him in any way he might desire.

taper and white his fingers are? and—— | saw to his dismay that a party. us—these deaf people are so quick; he farce for a little longer, at least until the eves on me. They are beautiful eves, roared when they reflected that Agatha Milly, soft and brown and good. I think was in the secret, and would probably

MARTY MAY ONE I JOSECL

fidence in her since

don't tell her the mystery of our friend ironically, but half convinced been that Agatha had just been talking greet stone pier;

Wintell the stands, the breakers call along the given been to hear servery with the stands, the breakers call along the given been to hear servery t on Tom than on any one else. So Aga. Kate, with a mocking something in her in The Century. tha went forward, at Harry's suggestion, | voice and manner. "How do you do, Agatha?" said Kate.

boat, and the most pleasant, too. We "I can't tell," replied that young lady. grizzly growths of twelve faces in ten tial in the mental constitution of a good and retes are generally lower than the is a little sunbrowned, but that's because her old doubts returning with added talks of challenging the barbers of Amer- while one may be a skillful musician he New York, I and kissable and adorable."

| Milly, blandly. "He is a gentlemanly | ously—a toleration of which he made the "Two pretty girls on the boat at any | fellow, and doesn't care what we say, | most, endeavoring, by every attention.

> I do not know. I am his friend, and his | encies in his story. or not, remains to be seen."

dumb, and, strolling forward on the "Indeed there must be," replied Milly. indeed!—Tom Baird deaf! What a joke! "through the world" was a circle with a miles distant.—San Francisco Alta. boat, he seated himself near the two "She have feeling! She has none for I presume, however, you regret that he young ladies, and his friends, in a spirit anybody. Something in her voice red is not."

"Tell him we'll be back after a while," | that excursion, of which she was the | scorn. "You teach me the value of you enjoy himself as well as he can. Poor | looked," said Kate. "I tell you there is | your own selfish ends." fellow, it is hard to be so afflicted, even | treachery here. Let us go to the cabin | She turned away proudly, passed down | for a while. Some way I feel uneasy." the long porch and slowly away through memory only, but many memories, When they had gone, Tom rose, walked a winding forest path. Her self control each mind, and that one kind of memory to the side of the boat and seriously con- was superb. Yet at last, when far from is pre-eminently developed in one person, a joke I have disgraced myself. Unless | full forgiveness, I will swear an oath"- wealth no iewelry-ves there's a watch | Tom remained below, sullen and retir million a man who, as he told her, | And whereas. The nation has chain, but it's small and it's allowable; cent, until they reached Rockledge land- loved only her, and offered to prove it by within a short time been See the ship go sailing over there against | ing the three young ladies, had also she said: "Tom, how dared you swear | ident Hendricks. Gen the hill: You know. Milly, we must not landed, and that the steamer was al. | you would jump if I didn't forgive you? | A. Logan, Sec'y Daniel P. talk of him when he's looking straight at ready under way. He must keep up the Would you have really jumped?" could tell what you said by the motion of | next boat back. Reaching the hotel | love," was the reply. "I probably show There goes another one; that is a steamer. | evolved the following ingenious plan of | for having caused you such pain. Then

There, see how I met that crisis? I never twin brother, Mr. Tom Baird, who had said in effect that I would swear, which results. Since then I have left of the moved a visible muscle. You must excuse come up on the boat. To this notable is quite a differ at thing, Again, my days I often forget it and walk without say sid. To not the second part of the second pa

Signed the Lord's Prayer.

mountains, and at night-take dinner i

"Yes. oh, yes," continued Tom, "We serve when we are together. "Indeed," said Kate, with a doubting ber who, on a wager, shaved sixty men the often observed fact the percept Through tickets are sold in an money, too, invested beyond the reach of ation, and sought to make the most of it failure, and he is of stalwart, manly by cultivating Mr. John Baird, as she "Why, Kate, are you crazy?" said gone to the city, telegraphing for his der are not very careful to separate the who are especially able as calculators But, Milly," continued the new Tom Baird at his city address. These the mill.—London Standard.

tirely convincing, at least gave Kate and "Oh. Kate means no harm." said Milly an excuse for treating Tom courte-The fact is, Tom was desperately, hope- England back to 1500. One of the most learnt."—Westminster Review. "Is he a friend or relative of yours?" lessly in love with Kate; and she was so far interested as to remark, without Guerney system, and the Guerneys are "Relative? No." said Kate. "Friend? seeming offended, several little inconsistyour friends, when speaking in haste, the Gurney system and who worked un- erect a brush interesting party, I think I should quite giving offense or doing anything uncon- answer or observation in a pained, re-At length there was a revelation v I cannot fathom. But I must go below | Kate could not overlook if she desired

> . "And you knew and did not tell us!" | madame how she had been inveigled into | said Kate slowly, and with deliberate friendship, Miss Vine; you knowingly jumping overboard. His the beaten track, in the heart of the and another in another. "Memory," observation, too far reaching for our cheeks burned at the position in which woods, she seated herself on a rock, savs Ribot. "may be resolved into memburied her face in her hands and shook ories, just as the life of an organism may ficing things most precious to us we are course they had their views to exchange langry at his friends as to have given with sobs which she could no longer re- be resolved into the lives of the organs. on such an unusual event as a deaf and | them little grace had they appeared just | press—sobs born of bitter mortification | dumb compagnon du voyage worth a then. It had been awkward, terribly at her mistake and the notoriety which compose it." Referring excluit must soon obtain. Suddenly her name sively to the perceptive faculties, we need often serving ourselves in the highest he left when first they began to talk? was spoken, and Tom stood before her. only mention a few thoroughly recognized She sprang to her fect, her eyes blazing facts in proof of this statement. Persons too: ves. he would be sweetest, most beautiful girls he had ever | with fire, her face queenly in its scorn. having a strongly developed organ of Ber- wavs mortify her, make her hate him, upon me! Again dishonorably, like a ality" receive neculiarly distinct impression "Miss Norman," said he, with a quiet of persons: hence they immediately re-rocks below. A few words I must say I never want to see or speak to I "to throw myself down this precipice a The boys, who had heard something tion left me, for my folly and for your and scholarly; and notice in what good further. So they readily promised to as- to jump a hundred feet down on jagged seems to be greatly on the rocks? A handsome man, a man with a lincrease

"Oh, that's a leading question, my RHEUMATISM.

one day about his power to shape and previously ..

The Barber's Fast Record. A barber in Boston affects to be disgusted with the record of a London bar- faculties and memories is presented in obvious the oblig "Yes, wait until we do," said Kate, London artist's feat is as nothing. He strength in different individuals—so that: | Pullman Service. ica to a shaving match for the champion- may be an indifferent timist, and vice Pittsburg. Agatha, however, understood the situ- ship of the United States.—Chicago News. versa.

Cinnamon and Cockreaches. to possess great attractions for the cock- of it. are remembered less easily; whereas roach palate, and there is a scandal to in the latter case the memory of time is New York City. bage—but tumble them together into the faculty of

The Various Shorthan: 1 Systems. There have been shorthand systems in | read: "Cardinal Mezzofanti, who is 1 languages. In the days of said to have known more than 100 lable to meet them, will be relieved as Cicero there was a sort of shorthand use, and shorthand has been in use in he never forgot a word that he had once "I observe, Mr. Baird," said she, "that England. There was for a long time an do so, the Concows have a "burning" as well as the methods used in this coun- baskets, beans, try: that it is harder to learn, and that it The baskets and takes longer to write it. by a dot inside of it. "out of the world" by a dot outside of the circle, and till morning. The noise can be heard for sunday schools.

penter in New York World. PECULIARITIES OF MEMORY line drawn through it.—Frank G. Carnoral relations. All things which men touch through any sense, by any thought, in any act, distill some moral quality and | Train No. 195.

earnestness which commanded her atten- cognize them on seeing them again, and lects news, but does not cotta, but like it, you know—that lovely tion. Thoroughly vexed and chagrined, tion, 'I stand on the brink of a cliff; it easily picture them to themselves from write it. He tells what he knows to Inclusiveness of Moral Relations.

multiplicity and the inclusiveness of

The chemical relations of matter are ut imperfect types of the delicacy, the SPECIAL.

And further, That this med-the use of crutches Pastor First M. H. Church, Fremont, Mich.

of an anecoone A SURE CURE FOR RHEUMATISM.

Equally notable is the fact that persons-1 in different languages, used to declare that Every autumn, if they are allowed , set at the bottom in the big baskets, that Coloniete and each one seeks the graves of his Gen'l Northern Pass. 486.

W. J. WURPER.

Eastward from ANDOVER

IARMAN'S.

ANDOVER, N. Y

THE NEWS

ANDOVER, ALLEGANY COUNTY, N. Y., OCT. 3, 1888.

the three crowning virtues you been transferred to Lexington. Ky. Vain by buying goods of of quoting from memory long passages while of confusing and expensive city of reimburse him for the money stolen suggested that the remaining sixty.

TRAINS LEAVE ANDOVER,

ing Physician & Surgeon.

Choice Gigars and Tobacco,

WILLIAMS & ROGERS, Rochester, N. v.

CONFECTIONERY, OYSTERS. ANDOVER, N. Y

For the Latest Styles

while was remembered that one of the alligators from Central thave just received a fine line of Watches and Clocks, and they : are Bought to Sell.

I keep a large stock of

REPAIRING

H. P. BENTON,

AND SAND.

tcher, was assisting others in hold-sale of tobacco to persons

Fell a Thousand Fest

losing his strength, the man fell into + The National W. C. T. U. Conven- a field outside the grounds and was all of which, with amendments, were tion will be held in New York, Oct. smashed to a jelly. He was unmar-carried. The Convention did not fin-stand in the various squares and parks. ried. The aeronaut descended safely ish all of its business, and could have and there is one bronze group that holds. The Rev. F. D. T. Bickley, pastor in a parachute. of the M. E. Church at Cuba, has

New York cor. Boston Herald. There is a comet coming toward the James B. Vertue, of Philadelphia earth at the rate of six million miles! brought a long Republican campaign daily, and yet it will not be visible poem to New York on Sunday. He for two months yet. started out Monday morning with a Among the buildings at Chautau-formidable roll of poem under his qua next year will be a very handsome arm to find the Republican headquar night?" she asked. one for a kindergarten, to cost $5,000 ters. By mistake he entered the ad to be given to the Assembly. A "Burrell Family Base Ball Club" Cleveland and Thurman Club. He pressed her hand. has been organized at Canisteo, and gave Chairman O'Brien the poem to :

ed States to play a game of ball with and referred Mr. Vertue to Vice Pres- poles it would take to reach from here from the post-office safe three weeks live verses be referred to a full com-J. E. Robinson, the absconding an hour later he learned that he ashier of the Angelica bank, died at the poem in the hands of the enemy. St. Mary's, Ont., on Sept. 19th. His He hurried back to the Democratic age was 82 years, and he was buried Club and demanded, in violent lan-

The political managers on both change the political tendency of the erally are doing more reading and from the hands of the Republican or RESTAURANT. bearing and thinking than in any chairman. that workingmen are quite generally is as it should be.— last week. The salaries of the execucorresponding and recording secretaday, in the Canisteo River, near Hornellsville. The reptile measured six ries for clerical help, $200 apiece. The eet and three inches in length. How delegates to the National Convention, . it happened to get there was a mys. which convenes in the Metropolitan h. tery at first, but the problem was Opera House, New York City, on Oct. ess, sagacity and foresight during the one of the alligators from Central tion of dues of each county, each one agine that the ultimate success of over $100 having a delegate. Many Union arms was all due to him, an Park, which was exhibited last year at the Hornellsville Exposition, was surplus gave Chautauqua another. Erie, with her own and Niagara's sur- with Grant in '64''---Surrogate Ransom, of New-York, plus, gave Niagara another. In all has before him a knotty question con-there are forty W. C. T. U. delegates, interrupt the old general in the least. He learn. cerning the probate of the will of a two Y. W. C. T. U., and one delegate- would go on talking and finishing his man who is only presumptively dead. at large. Mrs. Frances W. Graham, story, were no one present and only the room of some primitive dwelling in Fin-Noasted Peanuts Rifles, Guns & Cartridges wm. A. W. Stewart, a New York law- of Lockport, was unanimously chosen ful tale. Call and see my stock. You will be suited, yer, with a friend and crew to the delegate-at-large from the State as a number of twelve persons, sailed in compliment to the hospitality of that after having listened on the stairs to the yacht, the Cythera, from New York city to the Convention. This gives old story which her father had just con- some interesting position. A man refor the West Indies, on March 10th Niagara three National delegates, a last. The yacht was sighted, March larger delegation than any other

Watch 1 12th, running before the blizzard of county. timers, warranted. I that date, and she has never since The election of officers resulted in been seen or heard from. The re-electing the entire retiring board; EACET chances are a thousand to one that President, Mrs. Mary Towne Burt, of and the vare the best watch sold for the she went down with all on board, but New York; first vice president, Mrs. ite formula with many persons, and t there remains the chance of her hav- Mary J. Weaver, of Batavia; corre- are few who have not, at one time or ing reached some uninhabited island sponding secretary, Mrs. Ella A. memory. One would think that having or coast, or even of having, through Boole, of Staten Island; recording been deceived many times we would a some freak, sailed to other parts of secretary, Mrs. Georgiana M. Garde-last learn to mistrust this faculty somethe world and purposely failed to redier, of Oswego; treasurer, Mrs. Ellaccepting its revelations without quest Francisco Chronicle. turn: The will which is offered bears len L. Tenney, of Albany. The re-tion. But right here there comes in andate of June, 1885, and gives the en-port on resolutions occupied a great memory descived us yesterday, or last In the honest disagreement of "doctire estate to Mrs. Stewart. The part of one afternoon. Mrs. Mary week, today we are not deceived. Our tors' lies the best hope of the progress of Surrrogate has required that proofs Seymour Howells, the woman suffrat recollection of the thing that happened is knowledge. be taken as to the death of the testa. gist, was there and succeeded in hav- saw it or heard it. We remember it per- agreeing, there is a virtue in every housest. ast week. James Wesley, a young public schools, and prohibiting the

W. C. T. U. State Convention. The New York Convention of the ties and earnestly trying to get at the W. C. T. U. was held in Lockport the surprise of foreigners who come to It may be more of an æsthetic tive officers were fixed as follows: cortance from both points of view.

President, $1,000; treasurer. $500; New York Tribune.

19th, were elected by the representational itself. To listen to him, one would it

"When I was down in the Wilderness i men in Those days."—Washington what, or, at all events, be cautious more. Next year the Convention will tional museum, and is the masterpiece meet at Auburn, the last week in Sep. of the Swedish sculptor Moleri, the group. of the Girdle Duelists. According to the they were bound together by a comment provided with knives, and allowed This group is worthy of the antique for the splendid physique of the lactors and fearful interest of the strife. Each has seized with his left hand the under side, and elaborately carved above.

rooms of the Wholesale Dry Goods shine them," he said, as he tenderly aurderous short knife, and both wrestle for life with terrible energy. It is said that these combats were so universally fatal that women carried winding sheets they challenge any family in the Unit- read. Mr. O'Brien read five lines "I wonder how many telegraph;" with them to the banquets, where Their husbands might be slain. Four bas reliefs on the pedestal with Runic inscriptions show such a scene two men drinking together, while the dent Landers as chairman of the lit- to the moon," she said, musingly. Postmaster Swift has received the erary committee. Mr. Vertue read | "One, if it was long enough," he lovely wife of one of them stands by nnal good news that the Government will fourteen verses to Mr. Landers, who snapped; "why can't you talk sense?" The jealous anger mused by some undue wife on her knees endeavoring to prevent The Waste Paper Nuisance.

Two Pictures:

From the Boston Courier.

IN COURTSHIP,

guage, its return. Chairman O'Brien of stopping this? Dirty streets are bad of Scandinavian relics and curiosities. Farmers in the eastern part of this said he had sent it to the chairman enough, but when there is added to the You see here a forest of the tall pikes and State are much disheartened by the of the Republican Wholesale Dry customed from time immemorial. this

No. 3—Local Train.....8.53a. m. reason of the recent rains. Oats also fling about of the "Harrisons" and streets of its cities clear of filthy paper. articles of more peaceful household use; No. 29—Way Express....141 p. m. are light, while the buckwheat crop is Clevelands" in the poem might cre- sole duty it should be to remove papers. garments of the Vikings, and the odd No. 95-Way Freight.....7.10 a. m. an utter failure, owing to the frosts. ate a market for it at Democratic just as there are men on one or two hand mangles used for smoothing linenheadquarters, Mr. Vertue refused to streets who keep on the tracks of the heavy pieces of wood, polished on the sides are agreed that the voters gen- verses, and started off to claim them be for merchants to give up the practice It seems impossible that such flat in of distributing circulars, which are now | should have been very efficacious, but has a grudge against the dealer who (whence our "stubs," I suppose), the forces a circular upon him. Their day edges of the seats ornamented with se is past. This condition of thing excites be owner of the chair, preserved in this. manner as a charm against future toothache. Little white milk teeth make an agreeable variety with huge molars that vidently ached enough before they came war whenever the opportunity presents at the next house they came to. What tras. Monroe had two, and with her small one. One of his stories always bieces of wood carved with runes, or sear tences, in Runic characters, usually quoted from one of the sages. Whether like the Jewish phylacteries, used to keep in mind some sacred text, we could no One room is fitted up in compartments.

> ' caiving un official message brought, by or message sticks, which he in his turn is bound to carry for a certain distance. stick it in the earth until some one come along, as if our mail bags should be laid on a rock at a certain place and left for the next passer to take charge off Another group shows a girl receiving presents when the bans of her marriage are figures are very lifelike. But time wonie il me to speak of the various museum

--- The Virtuo of Disagreement. I so and so; it cannot be otherwise, for we in disagreeing merely for the sake of disis able to perceive the virtue that lies now be right and whichever wrong.—Philadelphia Sunday School Times.

-Shoe and Leather Reporter

the world arise in solitary places