Then the isborers oried: "O mester We will bring thee the golden grain White com common finding though the ord

Unite the ewest field granes. So we will not gether it in." But the mander baid: "O foolish! FOR COARY & WORLY CAY, Threugh storm and drought ye have labored For the grain and the fragrant hay." And breezes of summer blow.

Have ripened soft and slow. Does de the wide bleek march land Eath sever a plow been set, And with rapine and rage of hungry waves

The shivering soil is wet. And the tides that obb and flow. And the biting breath of the sea wind, Are the only care they know. "They have drunken of bitter waters

Their food bath been sharp sea sand And yet they have yielded a harvest . Unto the master's hand. So shall ye all, O reapers, Honor them now the more and garner in gladuess, with songs of praise, The grass from the desolate shore." -Zoo Dana Underhill in Harper's Magazine may seem a smail honor to the unini- was only one person on the bridge, a tiated, but my work is intellectual and | gentleman. He stood quite near me ; very comprehensive. That I am capable | we swung slowly out over the river. He of doing it argues for me a wide range of | might have been thirty-five or so. He information, a mind finely critical. If I | was broad shouldered and iolly looking were not mentally superior to the masses | and a little sunbrowned. He looked at could I derive a comfortable income from | me earnestly, and I noticed that ' who write? I am closeted all day with field. I met you there. I was sure Webster and Worcester: I am familiar and write German and French, I can | feeling my years suddenly rising up betrace every English word to its root. | fore mo. and translate Latin and Greek: I am not an egotist when I tell you these | Hunter-you are very pale and thin, but things, for I must take my place among | I have always remembered you," the workingwomen of Chicago as one | The bridge swung slowly round, rewho is paid far less than the successful dressmaker, milliner or cook. Indeed, I not leave me. We walked slowly home, have often envied my sisters who achieve | talking of those we had known, of Ide price: the milliner's taste and style render | from Oregon. "For the convention her independent; the accomplished cook | perhaps I shall stay awhile after it." whose faultless dinners lead her on to left me with permission to call that e

fortune—all these create something that | ing, and that began a new life for me. can be appreciated, admired and weakly He called, and we talked awhile, and imitated. My work is sadly negative. then, to my surprise, Wallace Adams' -- My sins are those of omission, not of asked me to marry him. errors I eradicate, the thought I spend ciety will shudder at my boldness and known a little time of happiness? The has been brought into the ward of a full which counts so many victims.—New upon the printed page? For the work I want of delicacy, at Mr. Adams' vulgar- discipline of five years gave me but well aired hospital and continued York Independent. do I win the cordial hatred of those who ity, at the disregard of all orthodox rules strength. Work? It would be welcome there a day without a single person conwork about me—the printer, the fore- of courtship. But I looked back upon now—if only I could forget the past, the tracting the disease. If we could be man, even the inky boy who brings work five lost and unhappy years, forward to a present. Thousands live and strive sure as to the secretions and all the skin to my hands. These all hate me for the lifetime of blind groping after money that where there is no object in life. I separations from scarlet fever it would Brown—Is it true, Dumley, that you 1 do, while I am in constant terror somehow slipped away from the hands thought of death, of suicide. They were not be a very communicable disease; yet from things I do not do. What proof that won it from the world so hardly. not for me, though I would have been so we have known a dress folded up at the reader has not stood aghast at some glaring error which he did not run to earth looking into the man's hazel eyes. I had thought, "The water in the Chicago trunk, to convey the poison to a family Brown—Rather an unpleasant afon the first proof, but overtook by chance neither father, mother nor friends, and, river is so dirty, and in the lake they of children four miles distant, when the fair, eh? missed it then? It would have wrought would be so dear to me. I hesitated and but I would go away where no one knew three months afterward. How I secured my position I need not But I did not lose caution. I asked time I would-forget it, but now, God conveyed by the first case occurring, exrelate. It was after long and hard light, for time, a little longer acquaintance, a for it, which I began at nineteen years. little longer at my post. I was like a Till then I had been a ward of charity. slave that has grown to love the clanking trembling fingers and feverish haste, municated at much greater wearing in my baby days the blue check of his chains. "If, in a few weeks more, though it was hours till morning. I did tances. J.

against the world it was as copyholder in a great publishing house in Chicago.

I am able now to earn $15 per week—
pity in his hazel eyes, "God grant you I return your ring and your presents. I know. after seven years. I am little of a pes- may, Dora, and good night!" simist and my life has not been given I went back to my work, but my heart meet again. over to melancholy, but to work. I give | was not in it. I saw Mr. Adams twice | In the morning I went away, leaving | ten hours of each day to my tasks. Thatabsorbs my energy, breaks my spirit and fore me. I had wanted to love him at cuddy curiosity, and I had but a little W the anatomy and physwill and leaves me tired and depressed. first, but soon my life grew into a prayer money. My work I had given up and , I have been employed on Monroe street. that he should really care for me. I must seek it again. I must have change, in a house that is old and well known. saw every day some evidence of his kind- or I felt that I should go mad. Its air is full of foul odors, it is dark ness, his wise friendship, but I trembled and without ventilation. I climb five at the thought that it might only be West side. After a day or two I found and preservation of her health, flights of stairs to my work in the morn- friendship, for life held so much more. | work in a dressmaker's establishment. ag, taking my way through rooms full | bread against greater odds than I, and Jack came to the 6 o'clock dinner one and, ah me, how faithful I was. I no who even envy me. All day I hear the night with some exciting information. I longer dreaded work, but feared a cessa-

presses, the click of the type in the Gilliculdy's special table, and there he divulged it.

The their faces about to take dinner at the no-presses, the click of the type in the divulged it.

The their faces about to take dinner at the no-presses, the click of the type in the divulged it.

The their faces about divulged it. have seen them so for five years, and says, "and that Adams man bought a nair of California horses."

| Nostrawas | Property tried, and I was to the races, Miss Hunter," ne says, "and that Adams man bought a nair of California horses."

| Nostrawas | Property tried, and I was to the races, Miss Hunter," ne says, "and that Adams man bought a nair of California horses."

| Nostrawas | Property tried, and I was to the races, Miss Hunter," ne says, "and that Adams man bought a nair of California horses."

| Nostrawas | Property tried, and I was to the races, Miss Hunter," ne says, "and that Adams man bought a nair of California horses."

| Nostrawas | Property tried, and I was to the races, Miss Hunter," ne says, "and that Adams man bought a nair of California horses."

| Nostrawas | Property tried, and I was to the races, Miss Hunter," ne says, "and that Adams man bought a nair of California horses."

who are ignorant of its mechanism. how many people are wearing the name had seen on his arm that fatal night, but

Forty thousand strong men, who smoke situated than I had known or he had wanted to read proof once more. I would even spending yearly means enough to I remembered Ida Adams at Westfield, know me. For awhile I sought in vain, we homes. And where every a ward like myself. Herfather had been but I was not discouraged, and in a week as a well where seek bealth nor strength nor women- men; to give me a neat home with a few swing out over the river. Now I know

They will not be acquainted with him!

"You are not much changed.

leasing us, but my new 1

mand. I will be very poor if my wife me again? tried the nunlike life of a Young Wo. me to beggary?

something awakened me to his true passions, but in the light of my husband's latter as follows: For smallpox, 50 days: Route of Travel. so much in my hands? I had not beauty, remembering those days, I can only say, one of the 40,000 who live and work in Dorn Hunter in Chicago Heralds. sisters who were not so well equipped I never introduced Josie McCullicuddy and Mr. Adams. That young woman or worse, she sang with Jack till bed

But to all these things I gave no he I was for the first time in love, and world was not the same. I allowed gave up my position. I was very happ Wallace would be absent a week at since Jack was only 21 and not in love other distinction in life than a place as stepped upon it just as it swung to give with me. Oddly enough: I had not reproof reader in a publishing house. That passage to a panting little steamer. There ceived a letter from St. Louis. To-morrow he would be here, and I should know l town. "You've been too close. Miss! Hunter," said he. "Let's go and call c one of Josie's friends. hangings? I stood behind a curtain to learn more. "He introduced her as Mrs. Adams,"

10 announced, coming back soon. "Let's get home." I did not faint or cry out. I bacillus of tuberculosis is probably trans- visits of friends upon those who are thus believed it, and realized how cruelly 1 missible, it is only to those whose lungs sick. While there is no need of such fear had been deceived. The thought of the are in a peculiar state of receptivity, as will preclude He lives for pleasure," I said to myself. eruptions, vary exceedingly as to the delis no excuse for exposing the young. sunday schools. He thought me so poor and mean that gree of their communicability. he could buy my silence when he had [Then, through the midnight watches I thought wildly and madly. How should able that the air from a smallpox hospital all against unnecessary exposure, and to Train No. 6....... 1 endure my life hereafter? How take has given the disease to a person a mile secure public opinion as an aid in pre-. Who ever hears of the Women who sit in high places in so up the duties I hated so when I had distant. On the contrary, scarlet fever venting the spread of a class of diseases would never find me." I would live, dress was unfolded in their presence

I packed my things together with Measles, on the other hand, are compromise was accepted. Mr. Adams took miliation. I sent a little note to Mr.

I how base you have been and I hope we will never each week, and a new world opened be- no address. I could not face the McGilli- WHEN we understand all

It was at this time the McGillieuddys was mentally unit for a position as proof WEAKNESS. A human beings struggling for daily began to develop a warm interest in me. reader. I succeeded after a few days, throbbing and beating of the great was invited to take dinner at the Motion of it, when I should have time to heart and liver, through the

"You must take me out riding," lisped relinquished, a peace that is not born at ment. Either Wallace Adams was better After weeks I had ceased to feel- I medicine and tonic they can be be better. gone wildly to speculating in race horses. look for my work where no one would a ward like myself. Her father had been but I was not discouraged, and in a week that cannot are take care of 1 formed H. The tiest was dead shid I made me a well woman, and I cannot say too much pepsia, neural gic headache and other discouraged. have a constortable home." I had thought again, and again the bridge bell rang out the him able to make his way with other sharply. I hurried on, just in time to exact be without it is our heady. coenforts in these piano, bucks and one I had count to ours, but looking our over the water I did not beed approach.

of belief that love and truth are not on tion of fever, and the time from the be-For the first time in my life I put my the earth; that nothing remains but ginning of eruption to when the patient

> Common Sense Versus Theory. Forestry orators and theorists mu qualizing its flow: but common forest trees.—Boston Budget.

> > COMMUNICABLE DISEASES.

A Subject of Vital Importance to Commu nities—Precautions. Disease can be divided into various groups. Of these none, upon the whole, eases. We know of a recent case them and we had ice cream. Then we municable diseases. We use this term church funeral, the death having went to a hotel on Monroe street, where in preference to contagious or infectious, caused by malignant diphtheria. proba-Josie's friend was stopping. Who does because these two words have in use de- bly led to a dozen deaths and many cases not know the Egyptian parior with its parted so far from their original mean. in a sparse country village. The exposure talking and laughing with Jack and Jo- relationship. There is great variety in If all details as to the washing of the sie, when I saw coming down to one of the method in which diseases are com- dead body, the dealing with clothing, the lis require the ground parlors Wallace Adams, with municable. Some like hydrophobia in time of transfer to the coffin, the use of a lady on his arm. I looked until I felt man and glanders in horses, are con- disinfectants, could be carefully regumyself growing rigid. She was dark veved only by direct contact with an lated, it is probable that the risk would and very beautiful and they were talking abraded surface. which is equivalent to be very little; but as we cannot rely upon ber of trips between commercial centers of in low tones. They approached some one inoculation. Even our common vaccine the carrying out of all these details, it near us. Jack McGillicuddy followed the disease can only be induced in this way. better to prohibit public funerals and to vuluible perfor accommodations to the contract of t direction of my eyes, then darted away Other diseases which are communicable announce cause of death in all cases require some special and abnormal con. the more dangerous communicable dis-lity desired will be furnished dition of the particular tissue to which eases. they will attach. Thus, although the Similar caution is needed as to the Other diseases, such as the commoner persons where there is need of help, there ture of the passenger service, special w It is sometimes quite difficult to deter- | ments, it is very rare that compa mine the extent to which the communi- diseases are carried to others by the cating particle can be carried. It is prob. | casual visitor. We thus desire to caution cept by the breath or sputa of the patient.

me and begin life anew. Perhaps in cough and diphtheria are probably never worth a hundred thousand dollars.—The apron of the Foundlings' home. I was I can feel that I am doing right I will be not shed a tear, even over my pretty this class of diseases having be metals and glass is made of very finely wedding dress and bonnet, which mocked come epidemic, the communication powdered glass mixed with a small prome now like silent witnesses of my hu- to others is from houses and clothing far portion of dried soda ash.

lology of women, and

On account of the intimate and various delusions amount. local paralysis, nausea and

Over its pages flows the life blood of of Adams. His news was nothing to me. now I could look at her calmly. Was I Containing Podophylum, Cascara Sagrada, Unicorn Root, Black Cohosh and Poke proving stronger? I even addressed her. Root, with Salycilic Acid, Nervines, etc., et fair, white leaves have been dampened Jack. "Your Adams, Miss Hunter. "You are Mrs. Adams," I said, while I combined and pleasant to take, all of them being specifics in their action, as well as did my lowly work. "Yes," she smiled, laxative and alterative, that will restore action, subdue inflammation, and prove all that | W. G. corn, G. P. A. "He must be rich, Miss Dora," chimed "Mrs. Wallace Adams." Some old in the mother, "I want you to give Josie author has said there is a prace that applied to the small of the back, or abdomen, or to any parts that may be painful and weak, will be found were back, or abdomen, or to any parts that may be painful and comes, not of hopes reclined, but of hopes weak, will be found very beneficial. Reason teaches the lesson, Josie; with her blonde head on one side. the tranquil fireside, but its the peace of IT IS A SAFE. FAMILY MEDICINE. If you cannot procure it of your druggist send direct to us. Price $1.00; 6 bottles $5. Plasters age.

diseases she may have neu-

. H. KICHARDSON, agent at ANDOVER, of

GBO. B. ALLBY,

(Lackawana & Pittsburg.)

STANDARD GAUGE DIVISION.

NARROW GAUGE DIVISION.

Gen'l Northern Pass. agt., Buildh

For the AMDOVER NEWS.

ANDOVER, ALLEGANY COUNTY, N. Y., OCT. 10, 1888.

the large line of

and Dr. Dukes, of Rugby

These will serve as general guides.

tial by recent facts, which show that by all cases where schools are concerned the dere.

upon the person. It is often a question and retes are generally for-report is required as to smallpox, scarlet Pittsburg. The Riviet care early and strict isolation the common Newport, Ftll River and Ro

MCTIGHE'S?

EXENTS an opportunity for securing preparation for the real work of life, which thou-WILLIAMS & ROGERS, Rochester, N.

Choice Cigars and Tobacco,

confectionery,

OYSTERS.

are Bought to Sell.

I keep a large stock of

REPAIRING

They are first class timers, warranted.

H. P. BENTON,

L. C. VAN FLEET, Loan and Real Estate Agency. No. 14—Atlantic Express., 6.58 p. m.

P. BRAINARD, M. D., Office at Store on Main Street.

7. O'DONNELL, M.D., YSICIAN AND SURGEON, ANDOVER, N. Y.

Office Hours from 12 M. to 2, and 7 i

ANDOVER, N. Y have just received a fine line of HARMAN'S. Watches and Clocks, and they cents for three months.

' LIME and BONE PHOSPHATE. ANDOVER, N. Y.

> THE NEWS 25 cents.

promise I will now try to fulfill.

After four weeks of resting from enport, Iows.

On the morning of Aug. 6th, we take the main line. Here we found at Cedar Rapids.

time. The place selected was under out-buildings. At nine o'clock we No. 20—Way Express 141 p. m. No. 95—Way Freight.....7.10 a. m. snperior to the waiting room of any 1,054 miles to a country as beautiful depot. We ate our lunch, and some and fertile as any I ever saw. And of the children were refreshed by a so we say Good Bye. short sleep before our train arrived. At 10 o'clock our train arrived, and we were again in motion heading directly west toward the Mississippi river. During the afternoon we passed through some of the most fertile region in Illinois, where crops looked well as I ever saw them. The main For the Latest Styles and considerable many potatoes, but " corn is king." At 3:30 we were nearing Rock Isl. the right hand, Mrs. Socwell caught her first glimpse of the great "Father along on the banks of the river having MOURNESS, Andover, N. Y. an excellent view of it. The wind was blowing quite freely, making the surface of the water very rough and sending the white-capped waves toward shore, where they broke violently, reminding me faintly of the breaking of angry waves upon the seen. The visitor hesitated, turned and the hill now came into relations with ness between 45 and 60 degs. beyond suited, sandy coast of New Jersey. Soon we as if a bout to leave the room, but her There was a fearful reality about the toward the poles. These knows have arrived in Rock Island and preparafeet refused to do her bidding, and harrowing spectacle in the museum near noticeable tendency to follow the sun in tions were made by the train men for crossing the river over the large iron | bridge which spans it at that point. The Centennial Watch | After a few minutes' delay, our long photograph was a distressing one, intrate man, who seems still gasping for the prostion of cloudiness is a direct consequence I train moved slowly upon the bridge deed, to the visitor, and the moments life, that last figure in a line of charred | and rolled cautiously along, span after EACH span, as if feeling its way to make and the y are the best watch sold for the sure of safety for its load of living freight. The bridge extends from ... N. Y. the Illinois side to the south end of the visitor wished to see her. the island which lies about in the number," said the lady. centre of the river, and from the island across to the Iowa side. On this said Mrs. Harrison, Island (Rock Island), from which the city of Rock Island takes its name, is located a government arsenal with all its attendant buildings, all of which are built of almost white stone, quar-

> 'dings, over which floated the stars | stripes, of which every American els proud, and which he hails with vful greeting. I visited these build-1 ings a few years ago, but if I had had that every Republican had a Harrison angling for a third. e I should have been glad to have

A to allow several large rafts of lumber and logs to be towed through on In a former article I promised to their journey to the Gulf. Finally little world of its own and its immense that of the count. The latter blushed give an account of our journey to we crossed the last half of the bridge population has not disturbed the people furiously, and seemed the faces of those "Beyond the Mississippi," which and found ourselves in the commodi-living in other countries. In seeking to ous waiting room of the depot in Davcothe Illinois, during which time we half hours, during which time we some superior leather and iron that have visited our parents and numerous oth. busied ourselves looking at the city. been used for certain purposes, but lately er relatives and friends, the time Towards evening I took the children have been made in other countries. Ame for us to say farewell to loved down to the banks of the river, and has experted considerable wheat, but inclosure of three acres in extent ones and former home, and set our they were much interested in look. there has been little fear that the amount tains several ditches 100 feet in look. faces once more toward the setting ing at the steamers and ferry boats injured our market for grain and meat, with salt water by two canals. In these moving up, down and across the river | while it has bought our cotton, tobacco | ditches about 80,000 turtles are domesti-Towards sunset we were again took the morning train, at Chillicothe, moving westward on the Omaha has revolutionized the petroleum trade of ures to keep, seeing at this beston that over the Chicago, Rock Island and Fast Express, but darkness soon set. the world. It has established lines for never cat any food. The turtles cos Pacific Railway, and began our jour- thed over the land, so we could see the Black sea, and has constructed iron New York for $17 per dozen. - Washingney toward our new home. At Bu- but little of our new home-land. At vessels for carrying it in bulk not only to ton Post. reau Junction, 28 miles from our nine in the evening we changed cars but to Africa, India and Australia. The starting point, we intersected the taking the St. Paul express over the Russians were the first to use crude pemain line of the famous "Rock Island Burlington, Cedar Rapids & Northern troleum for fuel on locomotive stationary steam boilers, for making Route," and had to change cars and Railway, and at eleven o'clock arrived illuminating gas for burning brick and bodies of Gen. Custer and his brother Jous we must wait three hours for our The following morning we took the rangements have been made for bringing Recent English papers state that train. (How delightful to wait for a cars on the Chicago & North-western, frozen beef, pork, mutton and poultr train when you are in a hurry.) Bu- with the blessed assurance of only one from Russia to British ports during reau is quite a small place, so we had more change ahead of us, and that live animals and eggs will soon be depredation in Nebraska for which he was not far to walk to be out of town, and with close connections. We rode brought at all seasons of the year. VY L. RALLROAD soon found a pleasant place to eat through a beautiful rolling country, distance by rail of sent all the way t our noon lunch and while away the with rich farms, fine residences and water from ports on the Baltic sea. now believed that immense quantiti - EAST-No. 6-Way Express...II.14 at m. a large elm tree whose generous arrived at Tama City, where we made England, France and Germany from the out his prisoner. The general then said No. 96-Way Freight ... 1.46 p. m. shade was appreciated on that warm our last change of cars and after an same ports. Siberia is the largest if8.53a. m. day, and we were soon seated on the hour's ride we arrived at our new is capable of supplying all wester No. 1—Through Express. 8.20 p. m. grass, considering our situation far home in Garwin, having journeyed Europe with breadstuffs. The central tain, who never refused to obey orders adapted for raising wool. The building of the Transcaspian railton raising regions in the world.

E. H. Socwell. Garwin, Iowa, Sept. 30th, 1888.

A Canvasser's Mistake.

Indianapolis corr, Chicago Herald. A lady came here from Chicago. time Russia expects to export raw cotton. Silence fell on the room, which was several days ago, with a number of plowing may be done during most of the captain then told the interpreter to point handsomely-framed pictures of Pres- year and where no fertilizers are re- out Rain-in-the-Face. This was done, crop raised in this section is corn; ident Cleveland, and took orders in quired are enormous. With cars and cavalry officer placed the muzzle of his however, there are large fields of oats different places in the city. She in central Asia may within five years be and rye, with many large meadows made it a point to avoid all houses laid down in Liverpool to compete with that produced in the United States. | where Harrison pictures were exhibit-The region traversed by this same sysd from the windows, assuming that tem of railroads is also said to be wonhouses thus adorned were occupied wool and tobacco. For centuries large die also. and, and on looking ahead toward by Republicans, and that the houses flocks of sheep and goats have been kept where no pictures were exhibited were there and have been the chief sources of occupied by Democrats. Ringing the porting their fleeces it is likely that these eat your heart.' "-New York Mail and of Waters." Soon we were rushing bell at one of the most unpretentious flocks will be largely increased. Some Express. state that the tobacco raised in central residences on Delaware street, she in- Asia is superior to that produced. quired if the lady of the house was in, Turkey, which is preferred for making and receiving an affirmative answer, cigarettes and smoking in pipes.—Chishe was ushered into the parlor. cago Times. Horror of horrors! there sat Harrison and Mrs. Harrison, both of whom the another day at Pompeii. The impression visitor recognized by pictures she had was greater than ever before. The city

One of Pompeli's Victims. A few days afterwards I returned for with a sample copy of Cleveland's downward and gasps for breath; the untold agony in the features of the prosseemed to be so many hours. Mrs. human forms which lie before us, as perfect as they were when entombed in the Harrrison saw that something unusu- falling ashes—all these speak to us and al was the matter, and she inquired if bring us terribly near to these men and "This is No. 674 North Delaware.

soil is rich and the climate delightful.

Labor there is cheaper than in Egypt (

"Yes, I see I am mistaken," the Count Kalnoky's One Finger Trick. nuttered rather than spoke, and hurdeneral nor his wife knew how narnot forget in a hurry. The count has a moments of sober thought, and it is these rowly they escaped being importuned very exalted notion of his own dignity, moments of sober thought which will ried at Joliet, Illinois.

The sepecially on official occasions, and has a ultimately breed trouble in this city.—

We had an excellent view of these to buy one of Precident Cleveland's habit of extending only one finger to Joe Howard in Chicago News. pictures. In relating the incident, diplomatists under the first rank. At the lady said that she knew that Har- Vienna a few days ago he met a man rison lived on Delaware street, but well known in London circles for facility with which he has run through she was so engrossed with the idea two picture in his window, that the absence of one mem Harrison's window stereotyped forefinger. The other around to see if metice had been taken enlarge its borders it has had troubles with other nations, but otherwise it has smiles, which were checked as soon a journey from Andover to Chilli. Here we had to wait three and a competitor in the great competital and should be taken to heart. London marts of the world. It has preduced Modern Society.

it has been held that articles equally good A Yankee has established a ferrar farm about sixty miles from Mothe. would be increased. It has not sectiously and 10 feet in width, and these are filled cated. In winter they lie imbedded But within the past four years Russia | the mud, and are very convenient crest

Capt. Custer and the Chief. "It is a source of wonder to the whites," says Mr. McFadden. "that the Tom were not mutilated in the massacre It is well known that the trescherous chief Rain-in-the-Face had sworn that he would eat Tom Custer's heart. The way he came to make that threat was this: "Rain-in-the-Face had committed some wanted by the United States officersof the horse stealing, I think it was. He took refuge at Standing Rocks and Gen. Gister sent a sergeant with a detail from | Fort Lincoln to bring him in. The grain raised in Siberia will be sent to sergeant was compelled to return withto his brother. Tom. go to Standing Rock and bring back Rain-in-the-Face or and southern portions of it are well started on his errand with a detail of cav-

"It so happened that the day is reached Standing Rock was the day on The which rations were issued at the agency. There were fully 5.000 Indians at the | place. Capt. Custer placed his detail a India. One-half the cotton used in Rus. as to surround the trading poet. He dissian mills last year was produced in mounted, and, with a revolver in one central Asia, and efforts will be made to hand and a sword in the other, entered produce the entire amount needed within the building. When he got incide the next four years. At the end of that saked, Where is Rain-in-the-Pacer steamers run by petroleum cotton raised | cavalry officer placed the muzzle of his revolver at the Indian's head and said "'Rain-in-the-Face, I want vou. you. If your friends interfere I will life to lose, and if they shoot me you will wealth. With good facilities for trans- I tis your turn now, but some day I will

The Earth's Cloud Belts.

Bort show a marked tendency of the earth's cloudiness throughout the year to arrange itself in zones parallel to th ness may be traced near the equator two bands of light cloudiness extending from 15 to 85 degs. of latitude north and one another in a way hitherto unfelt. ness between 45 and 60 degs., beyond the gate of Pompeii. The slender, grace. noticeable tendency to follow the sun in she stood as if rooted to the spot. ful form of that woman who presses her its change of declination, moving north-The idea of being in Harrison's house forehead against her arm as she lies face ward in spring and southward in fall

New York's Enormous Charities.

indeed an awful martyrdom. But the given to the poor of this city every year fire, which brought death to Pompeii. could easily be shown, but that doesn't Today | touch the question. This matter is some-Pompeii lives, while thousands of cities thing that affects our social structure which have been spared have perished from corner stone to cap sheaf. It a and passed forever.-Florence Cor. Bos. employment these people need. support is the first cocential in the great lives on berrowed money, namen who is Count Kalnoky has been trying the the recipient of continuous charity, can