The True Meaning of School Spirit

By Mary Brown

Since the student council and other organizations in the school have begun a campaign to enlarge the school spirit in A. C. S. I have choosen this as my topic for this week.

There are many ways by which school spirit may become evident. Most of these ways are small and will be noticed by only the most experienced persons.

School spirit does not have to be shown by boisterous cheering. It can be hidden in the smallest possible way when a student is always on hand to do whatever is necessary for his school. This may sometimes mean sacrifices, but if we are to develop school spirit they must be made.

It is not only the students to whom this applies. Many other people who are directly or indirectly connected with the institution can help develop loyalty and patriotism to a school by these same small sacrifices.

Being there to do whatever is necessary does not mean for example that only the members of a team or the cheerleaders should attend a game. It means that everyone should turn out to do his part in cheering the team to victory for A. C. S.

Last week's snake dance was a good example of how most peopel don't want to make social sacrifices. Who attended this school activity?

The grades and Junior High furnished the majority of those attending.

Let's do better next time, high school students. We're the ones who should be setting the examples for the younger pupils.

Hot Intermural League Springs Up

In the gym class of A.C.S. two teams are divided from one class. As a result there are four high school teams that play hard and steadily for the championship.

At the present the "Three K's" of the fourth period gym class have won four and lost two. The "Firehouse Five Plus four" have won three and lost two. In the first period gym class the "Slow Fourteen" have won four and lost one, and the "Sallys" have won two and lost three.

The gyms have fought hard and great spirit prevails in each team.

Also the seventh and eighth grades have soccer teams.

Next week class soccer teams will play.

Andover Kickers Lose Second in Row

By Danny Pelton

The Andover Soccer Team lost its second league game in a row, one to Canaseraga and the last one was Alfred-Almond last Thursday on the locals field, the score was 4—2.

The Alfred-Almond eleven and the local panthers felt each other out in the first period. Then with three minutes gone in the second quarter Johnson, right wing of the visitors converted for two points. Then the right halfback of Alfred-Almond booted two more points through the goal post making the score Alfred-Almond four Andover nothing at half time.

The third quarter both clubs threatened but could not convert for goals. The fourth quarter found the panthers making a last quarter bid for the game's lead. "Rich, Davis Andover's right inside who played center forward in place of injured Wayne Atwell, kicked a well placed boot by Alfred-Almond's goalie four and two with the visitors on top.

The league season now has ended with Canaseraga in first place with 5 wins and no loses. Alfred-Almond next with 4 wins with one lose. Andover third with 3 and 2 record.

Peering at the Pedagogues

Mrs. Florence Corwin went to Harrison Lookout at Pennsylvania State Park.

Mr. Glenn Bronson went to Corning where he picked apples and had cider.

Mrs. Laura Hall was at Batavia over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Carmody entertained Mr. Carmody's brother and family for the week-end.

Miss Scharlie Schermerhorn was visiting her sister at Nunda.

Mrs. Harriet Schwarzenback entertained her mother.

Mr. Laurence Bartz and his family spent the week-end at Buffalo.

Miss Lois Winkleman went to her home in Fredonia.

Miss Laura Davis went to her home at Rushford.

The Spy

My helpers have begun handing me their reports for this week, so I shall pass the news on to you.

Since my Canisteo agent has worked hard this week-end, I shall give you his report first. Shirley Tidd and Don Stocum have broken off their romance, so a certain soldier will probably recieve more mail now.

Mary Flower was seen leaving the skating rink with Glenn Drum Friday night.

Next here's the report from my Main Street agent. He says Margaret Daley received a bitter disappointment Saturday afternoon while doing her week-end shopping.

I noticed Mary Ann Joyce is sporting a cast, due to a broken finger.

Here's a report from my agent in the senior homeroom. Dolores Brown has an attractive silver braclet that is the envy of all her female classmates. David McHenry shows a fine taste in jewelry, doesn't he, Dolores?

Why was Clarice Nye so excited Friday could it be, because she had a date with Adolf Neidimeyer who has a yellow convertible.

I saw several interesting things during and after the snake dance Wednesday night. Dale Pelton escorted Lois Ruger home, but this was merely a gentlemanly gesture on his part. You see, Lois is afraid of a large dog in the neighborhood.

James Conde' had a rather difficult time trying to walk Mary Fowler home due to competition from Jesse Grossman and Bill McNiel.

That's all I've seen in time for this edition but wait until you see the scoop I'll have for you next week.

A.C.S. Eleven Romp Over Greenwood

By Kent Harder

On a fairly one sided game the Andover Soccer Team soundly beat Greenwood, Monday night at Greenwood for their fourth win of the season.

Andover dominated the play the entire game over the inexperienced Greenwood boys. With four minutes of the first quarter gone "Lefty" Harder booted a goal to give Andover a 2-0 lead. At the nine minute mark of the first quarter Carl Atwell crossed one in from left wing and Anding his first game in the goal, stopped one Greenwood penalty kick but allowed the second one to get by. The Andover men got the one pointer back on a penalty boot by Rich Davis. At the two minute mark of the second quarter, Rich Davis again scored. Jim Connor missed a penalty kick as did Jim Conde' in the third and fourth quarters. Dick Davis scored at the ten minute mark of the third quarter and just twenty four seconds before the game's end. The final score showed Andover 11, Greenwood 1.

During the game all the second stringers were permitted to play a considerable share of the contest, in which Avery Mead and Jim Connor along with Dave Conde' and one or two others demonstrated their skill as soccer players.

Harvey

By Sandra Bostwick

Wednesday night while waiting for the snake dance to begin I looked at my cheer pad to find some cheer for the bon fire and who do you think I found sitting on t-e-a-m???

You guessed it "Harvey."

Just as I got him out and got my cheer pad back in my pocket, the snake dance was almost ready to begin. Harvey, of course, wanted to come along so I told him he could if he held on tight. In a minute it began with Miss Olmstead leading. We started down Elm Street and with much effort finally reached the Main Street. After that we had cheers in front of Gleason's Harvey said he didn't think he could go on, but after he finally rested, he decided he would.

Then we started up Dyke St. with Eddie Harkenrider in the lead. Harvey said he was positive he didn't miss a tree, bush, or fire hydrant all the way. Then we circled around the flat iron and over by Mr. Mandel's. There we had a short session and had some of the teachers say a few words on the game. After that we dragged ourselves over to the bon fire, with Mr. Carmody as fireman.

While we were out there the casket was burned and some cheers and songs were given.

After it was all over Harvey, along with the rest of us, went down to Gleason's. He spied Jocelyn Joyce and Roger Phelps walking together and wondered where Ruth Huffcut was. He exclaimed, "What a nice couple Rodney Wheeler and Millie Miles make" I agreed and he looked around again. He said he'd have one more coke and then he'd go home, but by the time he had two sips he was asleep on my shoulder.

Alumni Squints

By Shirley Tidd

Miss Ruth Curry is working in Wellsville at the Bausch and Laumb Optical Company.

Miss Tersea Joyce and Miss Katherine Joyce were home from R. B. I. over the week-end.

Miss Maxine Baker left Tuesday for Washington to work for the F.B.I.

Miss Patricia Sackett was home visiting her family over the week-end.

Miss Marcella Smith visits her home every week-end from nursing school.

At the skating rink in Wellsville Thursday evening Mary Ann Joyce had the misfortune to fall and facture a bone in her hand.

At the time she thought she had misplaced a kunckle but upon seeing the doctor the following day and having X-rays taken it was found the bone of the middle finger of her left hand was broken.

Seniors Plan June Year Book

By Anita Nichols

Mr. Gallinger, representative of the Interstate Collegiate Press, called on the Senior Class of '52 October 11 in their homeroom to help them decide on the yearbook for June 1952.

The following decisions were made:

The color is to be white with a purple overtone, to duplicate the school colors.

The finish is to be of cobra leather which is medium coarse and will accent the purple.

The design on the cover will be modernistic with gold lettering below it.

The separation pages, those which separate the administration, high school classes, sports etc. are going to be informal and humorous. The paper on which the pictures are printed will be plain, if available, rather than the usual bordered paper with lines on the back of it. It was thought that plain paper would be better for autographs.

The Senior Class of '52 thinks that the coming year book will be very different and that it will be the best yet!

The seniors will start selling advertising within a few days.

Freshman to be Honored At Senior Social Hour

By Mary Fowler

Friday night at 7:30 the Senior Social Hour hold a social hour in the A. C. S. gym. The freshman class will be the special guests for this week.

They will be admitted for $.10 while all others will pay $.14. They will also be given special entertainment throughout the evening.

This is to be a regular social hour in all other respects and every one is welcome. Each time the seniors have a social hour they will entertain a class in the same way if this one is a success. The sophomores and juniors will be next and then the junior high will enter the guest list.

Round and square dancing with records and the usual games will be enjoyed by those attending the social hour. Refreshments will be sold as usual.
