ROYS BATTLE.

voice, "this is a red letter day." with speaker was a huge fellow with seemed to be a perfect forest of easels, wizards. If any obliging gentleman ir looking figure, with unkempt looks and Mather. you shall have your heart's det it with envy and delight. dancing black eyes and mocking grins. Beaux Arts, so he kept his temper and suddenly, and then said:

Delighted to welcome a native of the come, I suppose, from your friend—ah! land of the great Barnum," cried another. seizing Roy's hand and working it like a flower" pump handle. 'How many scalps have you on hand?"

men. But first let us give three cheers what you call the other?" for the United States!' These cheers are given with gusto, and the supervisor approaches Roy.

"Thirty francs from you." born American citizens to be browbeaten in this way. "What do they mean," asks the other.

· 'It's a tax on every newcomer." "Must we pay it?" "I suppose so; it's a beastly shame." "I have only five francs in the world." "Stop chattering, new fellows." cried the supervisor. "We're thirsty. Conly five francs? Oh! I see: your remittance has not arrived.' "'I-never get remittances." falte the other. "Why, how do you live?" "I work my way."

Washington; how long must we wait?" "It's no use—I—must give it up for ing paler, and casting a longing look at the forest of easels. "Stop! I will pay for you," exclaim Roy, with a sudden impulse of friendliit back—when you're able.'

ness to the forlorn being. "You can give first, and then looked about for some-He was unprepared for the tears that suddenly rushed into the cavernous hungry eves of the other. "Thanks. You have saved me: a if ever I forget it"----He held out one gaunt, bony hand, that still trembled in Roy's grasp. "I believe the fellow is hungry. decided, his heart melting at the thought.

of the feast and drank the health of the two and of all their compatriots, he in- seem to thrill with the wind stands one his head once more among his fellow and they grew quite confidential over it "I haven't a relative in the world but "I had some opinion of myself at | far, said the other, who gave Roy a less bloom? What are all the triumphs That is my name, and I-have a den at dawns in the land where there shall be guilty flush on his face, "but sickness that number. I intend to go in for all no night? the prizes, and if pluck and work can do "I must take care of this picture," anathing I shall win. You have done me | said Roy. "He would have given it to | voice, and Roy felt relieved. me, and it will not do to let it fall into a arrice today"..... As another against these Philistines."

"So, some one at last. And how is it any one look down from those shining began that that you make your way into my house, buttlements he wondered with a vague restores action, kills malaria and purifies the blood.

"The property of the property

A through the year. One lowering and ask no leave? The doctor it is who shiver. Could one know the griefs and has forbidden?"

A toward the end of it Roy Mather has forbidden?"

The poor fellow is a friend of mine, show the griefs and triumplis of those left behind? His head seemed is a tright toward the end of it Roy Mather has forbidden?" and if you will get a little wine, I think that I ventured all my little fortin' in an Josiah Slater was a runnin' eighteen

There was no reason why Roy should go | will do it, old fellow." and walked on with the feeling that he not rid himself of an uncomfortable feel- son in Once a Week.

had nothing more to hope or expect in ing of guilt, this world. He had, in fact, been work- 'Poor Lang,' he said, half enviously, ing against hope for the last menth, with | "there was no mistake about him.

"But his work lives after him. , stretched it upon his easel, and gazed A fierce "sacre" came from the ad. for him-living. I would not have de-changed to a greeting. A sallow faced, him to wolves! I would not save myception given to a new student at the dark eyed gentleman in black stopped self in any way at his expense. But now, if I can save myself without injuring all is lost or won for time and eternity! the saw a coffin borne out, and turned shuddering away. It was all over, then He could do his friend no harm, even if | ton drawered class of citizens. If they cost his very last franc, he sent the picture

he walked toward the bed, for the moan-

A miracle of snow and gold.

miracle if she stepped forth and touched

his heart as | sleep well any more; his old buoyancy He bathed the cold face with water

$10 or $12 for a statuette of clay, which else, so far from making progress, may go to pieces in a hard jar on the cannot even hold his own, but must railway.-Y. H. Addis in San Francisco crowded out or trampled down in

A murmur rose on every side. What It is Miranda on her island. She looks | did it all mean? The professors stared a' at Roy with fearless, innocent but tender him and at one another.

"What does it mean, then? Why are Means an inactive liver and a his hand. Ah! this is genius! "He recog-"You're fading away, my boy," one | and kidneys, and as a result done the work is lying there dead! It is what has become of your chum?

won the prize. What are earthly laurels away like thistle down on a puff to him, who sees the amaranth's death- wind? I thought he was painting for the the back, costiveness or diaror the toil to one on whom a new day is so he was, stammered Roy, with a furred tongue, generally attended with melancholy and then stooped once more over his friend. of the pull six weeks had dene their when the woman, "I will do all. When he came back to his senses, Lang Europe is the comparison between a pai-"Thanks: monsieur is a gentleman," so it seemed, he staggered and fell!

"Your, place, messieurs," cried a stern To cure these diseases means to restore the action of the cines, as Mandrake, Culvers Northward.

ting up generally many shops in America way once more, and with the picture a trump. Come, never speak of it again. iting Paris or London, on placing him-moder his arm. Long had left arough in Let us take a studio togather, and I'll self in the hands of a native barber, will book eeper in his button factory, as you his room to pay funeral expenses, and stand the expense out of the prize, will at once sigh for the land of his birth, and could have at any time, and so farewell. that was all that remained to be done. you do something really good. Work would even onjoy the gossip of his "ROXANNA MATHER." there again. He convinced himself of Roy did succeed at last. His battle Roy had crushed this letter in his hand: that fact on his way home, yet his could had taught him something.—H. W. Pier- Germany a barber is an institution.

child. Ef he's a good, strong, healthy barber's assistants start out with their and retes are generally lower than and wants it. I'd give him two shaving outfits early in the morning and other first oldes the for so much—generally about $10 is the gance n. optic, which is probably thus bent out of shape by study in the pliant years of im-

San Pedro is a place of summering, a the grape in America. The fruit is at unacquainted with this country, and who villegiatura for wealthy Guadalajara familes, who pass there the months reaches maturity. It is, however, from | tar with the various languages, must September and October. June 13 is oba whofir different fungus that produces | coming stramsnip iron date, 1821, San Pedro seconded the cry of independence, raised by Iturbide in muffled drum of defeat, but where the Yguala. It is a drowsy little town, with valley of the Garonne last year.—Public | IICKELS.—tem of round-u or three reed mats, a table and two or Lord Breville.

make cups, flasks, etc., they may have a up I have seen persons suffer great in- Colonists.—perior accommodations to me laden mangoes. Perhaps a dozen little an inch or two long, or three inches an unknown quantity, The American

But the variety of vessels and toys is the cut, right and left, which tends to | infinite, and, in the finer grades, the draw the parts together, and never draw | work is marvelous. Water sets, bottle, from the cut, which only opens it. money banks in the form of ducks, pigs! | by those who have tried in. A hird fish, and myriad shapes of fruit and flow- man had cut the end fierce contest for supremacy.

Must De Better Trained. u. RicHAADSON, agent at ANDOYKR GBQ. E. ALLEN.

other fluids, in order to stim-

GENERAL DEBILITY.

liver and other organs, and to kill the poison in the blood. Root and Cascara Sagrada, . . He A remedy containing Mandrake, Culvers Root, Burdock with tonics to restore all secrefelt giddy, as one who stands on the verge and Cascara Sagrada, acting especially on the liver tions and supply the needed He had rolled it up with this thought, of a precipice. He stood by a window stomach, kidneys and sweat glands, is the proper one. action. After taking a few the name of "Nathan Lang," written in and hearing the door open turned to face and could catch a glimpse of a blue sky, and one fleecy, wind swept cloud. Could have been and one fleecy, wind swept cloud. Could have been and one fleecy, wind swept cloud. Could have been and one fleecy, wind swept cloud.

IT NEVER FAILS

ANDOVER, ALLEGANY COUNTY, N. Y., OCT. 17, 1888 followed makes me shiver. I have the large line of

Pa. An excursion train had been One would say, 'Oh, lift that iron and them, which is not frequently the case tution products of coal tar, and had when they are going about the city sight made a number of acceptance of property of programmer.

VAT MCTIGHE'S? They are Going Low for Cash!

Williams & Rogers' the excursion train stood on the crushed to death, and some dying track a few hundred yards from Mud slowly of their awful injuries. T

Leading, & Popular, & Practical & Commercial & School, rear. Suddenly they saw a train ap. At 6:30 P. M., Thursday, the funeral and three times a week. They are great dressers, too, in their own peculiar way, Loan and Real Estate Agency.

cicing Physician & Surgeon Office at Store on Main Street, ce and Residence. Crandall Dwelling.

DEALER-IN

40 cents for three months

Wednesday evening last, on the Le- pressed in words. We ran to the the senate or house, though they do not said concerning his relation to this new high Valley railroad, at Mud Run, cars in which lay the injured people. understand much of what is said unless product: "I had worked a long time" they happen to have an interpreter with upon the compound radicals and substicelebration. The excursion consisted me! Another would exclaim, 'My est of any of the foreign legations at cial value. One evening I was so interof seven or eight trains, and the acci- leg is fast; cut off my leg. Get an Washington. They occupy the immense ested in my laboratory that I forgot

No. 1—Through Express. . 8.20 p. m. Choice Cigars and Tobacco, the accident dawned upon them. The ders were also delivered to telegraph disgraceful affair the lines have been like,"—Hall's Journal of Health, his son, badly injured.

OYSTERS.

WILLIAMS & ROGERS, Rochester, N. Y.

Watches and Clocks, and they are Bought to Sell. I keep a large stock of EACH were crushed and wrenched into all and they are the best watch sold for the sorts of shapes, while in every part

A terrible accident occurred, on horror of that moment cannot be ex- Capitol, listening to the debates either in new sugar extracted from coal tar. In Passengers on the several sections the most piteous appeals. Every few from Nevada. Before they took this a piece of bread and put it to my lips.

a lantern to guard the train in the scene again."

CONFECTIONERY,

For the Latest Styles

I_have-just received a fine line o

H. P. BENTON,

ran into the preceding train said: "I

LAST WEEK'S TERRIBLE WRECK

the return trip.

light illuminated the interior of the of 12 years, and beside it a stalwart of EAST-No. 6-Way Express....11.14 a. m. ill-fated car. There was a frightful man. No. 14—Atlantic Express. . 6.58 p. m. crash, and the engine plunged her Probably the list of seriously in figures and comparatively smooth faces. modes of making it scientifically and commercially. sished every Wednesday at one dollar west.—No. 3—Local Train......8.53a. m. full length into the crowded mass of jured ones is as large as the death No. 29—Way Express.....141 p. m. humanity. The shock drove the rear list. No. 95—Way Freight.....7.10 a. m. car through the next one for twosight of their lives.

some erect as in life, staring open-disaster followed.

Rifles, Guns & Cartridges roundings. Here a youth, stone-dead, says: "The section of the train going," and before they could say any. disease of the nervous system, causing thing further his Chinese highness would increased chemical changes in the tissues beard and read thrilling accounts of Wholesale Slaughter of Human Lives railroad disasters, but never pictured of the train tell tales too horrible for minutes one of the poor victims would tered in a commodious house at the ask why it was so, probably because y belief under any other circumstances. die. Some were being scalded by corner of Massachusetts avenue and Four-They relate that the fourth section of the escaping steam; some were the excursion train stood on the crushed to death, and some dying of Alabama, and at present the liead- to my surprise, the napkin tasted Run, waiting for the sections ahead look on and be powerless to render to get out of the way. - A brakeman, aid was enough to drive a man mad so they said, had been sent back with I hope I may never witness such proaching from the rear, at a high train arrived at Wilkes-Barre, bear- and several members of the legation are any confectionery I had ever eaten. RESENTS an opportunity for securing preparation for the real work of life, which thousands of Young Men have found a stepping stone to Honorable and Conspicuous

The Institution is in a most prosperous condition and its partially prepared for burial, and lay

The Institution is in a most prosperous condition and its partially prepared for burial, and lay

The Institution is in a most prosperous condition and its partially prepared for burial, and lay

The Institution is in a most prosperous condition and its partially prepared for burial, and lay

The Institution is in a most prosperous condition and its partially prepared for burial, and lay

The Institution is in a most prosperous condition and its partially prepared for burial, and lay

The Institution is in a most prosperous condition and its partially prepared for burial, and lay

The Institution is in a most prosperous condition and its partially prepared for burial, and lay

The Institution is in a most prosperous condition and its partially prepared for burial, and lay

The Institution is in a most prosperous condition and its partially prepared for burial, and lay

The Institution is in a most prosperous condition and its partially prepared for burial, and lay

The Institution is in a most prosperous condition and its partial prepared for burial The Institution is in a most prosperous condition, and its patronage is composed caped. One young woman sprang, upon boards placed upon the backs round cap invariably to be seen on their my dinner and ran back to the laboratory. but seeing two little boys who were of the seats in three passenger heads, and which is never taken off, no There in my excitement, I tasted the in her charge yet on the platform, she coaches. It was an awful sight in. One of their number is a man of enor. dish on the tabe. Luckily for me, none imbed back to rescue them, and lost deed to look through the long coaches mous flesh, and he has a very broad face, contained any corrosive or poisonous thirds of its length, and the second The story of the disaster on the Le-Chinaman seem to be in ecstasy when and still others proclaimed the work as into the third. It is not likely that a high Valley railroad, last night, at they are asked to whirl around with these being of no practical value. single person escaped in the rear car. Mud Run, as told by an official is as the winter months at the weekly hops rine, however, everything changed. The The second was filled with maimed follows: Eighty-seven carloads of peo- given at the leading hotels. and bleeding bodies, and the third ple attended the parade at Hazleton, once a week a grand ball. It is gotten may have been edifying, but was simply car had but few passengers who es- from Wilkes-Barre, Scranton, Carbon- up regardless of expense, and there is amusing to me. And then came letters. caped. The passengers throughout dale and other places. There were plenty to drink, too much, in fact, from My mail ran as high as sixty a day. both trains were terribly shaken up eight sections, and these followed on there. Two years ago many of the my autograph or my opinion on chemiand bruised. They soon swarmed passenger train No. 12, with orders "Melican" men and women who went to cal problems, desiring to become my upon the track, and the full horror of to run ten minutes apart. These or- the Chinese minister's ball anade hogs of partner, to buy my discovery, to be my throngs from the two trains gathered operators at all signal stations. drawn, and the Mongolian, minister is at beside the telescoped engine and car, The seventh section came to Mud ble are that receive invitation bids to the and there witnessed the most fearful Run ahead of time, and stopped until ball. It is, therefore, bound to be a more | Neurological association, the paper that ten minutes expired. The danger select gathering since it has become probably was of most popular interest harder to procure an invitation. was that read by Dr. Isaac Ott. of Eas-The shattered engine was pouring signal was displayed at the station, The predecessor of the present Chinese ton, Pa., on "Heat Centers in Man." H forth clouds of scalding steam and and the rear brakeman was sent back minister once gave a ball that is often | showed by cases of disease that in the Placticing Physician and Surgeon. Section from human eyes many horrible No. 7 laid a short distance beyond members of congress, and prevented a the body, and to keep its heat constant. sights. The hissing steam deadened the station. No. 8 came thundering quorum in the house for two whole days. These centers were partly located upon the shrieks and groans of those in along, and the brakeman gave the didn't know to what extent the Chinese brain. He also related cases on record MOURNESS, Andover, N. V. the ruin. Ghastly faces peered into engineer the signal to stop. He punch was "loaded." It is an insidious of a temperature as high as 128 degs. F. the windows, to be greeted by faces failed to heed it and dashed by. The at first, but lasting in its effects. The how these great

> Call and see my stock. You will be suited, held in his arms his little brother, wrecked was made up of Jersey Cen- ejaculate: "Glad to hear it," not know of the body, and thus elevating the whose feet were pinioned. A father tral passenger cars, which are only ling what it meant, or that he had spoken temperature.—Science. was crushed and mangled and lay at shelfs, or apologies for cars. Two of time. It was very comical, and those full length upon the prostrate body of them were completely demolished, who attended that famous ball will never and the other two are next to worth- aching heads that followed.—New York where, and burlaw-should be once more As the steam and smoke cleared less. Fifty-seven persons are dead, Graphic. from the rear car, its ghastly sights and some of the forty persons injured How to Extinguish Fire. were better revealed. The timbers will die."

ways on the lookout for useful informathey reach that period of life in which | the subject very carefully and was con- | was a slaughter pen, bloodier than they have one foot in the grave. When vinced that it would be well for every to swallow a farm while settling boundthe butcher's shambles. A few un this time comes these old veterans of the house to keep its own fire extinguisher, ary lines. We have too much legislation, and street usually spend long intervals of re- and it could be easily done. It would too many laws and too many methods of pose at their comfortable homes, and in certainly be invaluable to persons living delaying justice. To recover ten feet of scalded by the steam, and little re. times of panic, which recur sometimes in the country and far removed even from land a man must expend fifty times its mained in the cars which bore human oftener than once a year, these old fel- neighbors. The doctor then told me value. Let us have more burlaw and lows will be seen in Wall street, hob- that he would bling down on their canes to their recipe of the solution now used in tricts -Globe-Democrat.

Then they always buy good stocks to for sale: Take twenty pounds of common the extent of their bank balances, which salt and ten pounds of sal ammoniac was in the second car from the en- have been permitted to accumulate for (muriate of ammonia, to be had of any gine, and saw the train ahead of us. just such an emergency. The panic druggist) and dissolve in seven gallons of the bores at the exposition of water. When dissolved it can be botted and kept in each room in the house, a package of gum, no less than 120 one fifteen miles an hour, I should judge. "rake in." When the panic has spent its force, these old fellows, who have been a fire occurring, one or two bottles should quarters of the Union league.

DISCOVERY OF BACCHARINE MANLAR NS AT WASHINGTON Fortunate Assistant. Central Flowery Kingdom

dent happened to the fifth section, on ax and cut it off.' Still others begged the main the mass formerly the dwell- rushed off for a meel without stopping for help in various ways, and with ing place of the senator of that name to wash my hands. I was books teenth street, afterwards for one season I rinsed my mouth with water, and dried The members of the Chinese legation was puzzled. are fond of going to the theatre. They goblet, and, as fortune would have i N. Y. L. E. & W. RALLROAD. her life by her daring.

In an instant the flash of a head-white cloth; here the form of a boy when walking down the street with his solution of saccharine. On this I worked then for weeks and months until I be

They are fond of going to receptions, and | commercially. of course have a great many invitations. "When I first published my recearches. A dispatch from Easton, Pa., says: the giddy girls who think it is just 'too doubted the discovery and the discoverer, Heat Centers in Man. more ghastly. The already dead, train plunged on, disregarded the minister could speak but little English. | could be produced through disease of the gripped in the broken timbers, sat, signal at the station, and the awful He had been taught to say a few sen- the nervous system. Cases of children tences, to be spoken when the guests ar- were detailed whose temperature was eyed, as if aware of the horrible sur. A gentleman who visited the scene would come up and say: "I am now ered. Fever was stated to be mainly a an institution of all civilized lands. was a custom in Scotland formerly to settle any common disputes among the people by vote-in an assemblage of neigh-

How to Settle Quarrels.

The Burlaw club of Philadelphia ought

Getting Something for Nothing.

υω achon.—Boice.

and I did not think it would seasons, quickly reslize, deposit their profit with their bankers, or the overplus