Why Buy Season Tickets

By Mary Brown

At the student council meeting held Friday, 8th period in the Library, each member present was given 20 season tickets to sell to students and adults.

Why should you buy one of these tickets? There are two very good reasons with which one may answer this question.

The minor reason is financial. Every student who purchases one of these tickets will save fifteen cents on every one of the eight home games played. Each adult who has a season ticket will save two dollars and five cents.

Secondly and most important reason for your buying a season ticket is to support your basketball teams. The goal for the selling campaign is one hundred per cent subscription thru the junior and senior high school. To make this possible the price of these tickets has been greatly reduced and the saving increased.

If every student in grades seven thru twelve buys a season ticket and attends every basketball game, the school spirit which will radiate from this support will enter every classroom and Andover Central will produce a championship basketball team this year.

During the meeting it was decided that the first room to become one hundred per cent enrolled in this program would receive a banner for it's bulletin board.

The program of giving a free ticket to students who sell ten is to be used as in previous years and a window display will soon appear in one of the main street stores.

You can purchase your ticket for the 1951-52 basketball season from any student council member. The first game is November 20, when the Panthers will meet Belmont. These tickets will be honored then, so get yours now, support your team and save money!

Have You Noticed?

By Mary Fowler

The new Thanksgiving bulletin at the front entrance.

That since Hobo-Day the F.H.A. girls have dollar-signs in their eyes. The F.H.A. treasury has been re-imbursed.

Everyone seems to be going around with a bad case of the sniffles. Kleenex sales are reaching a new high.

The senior social studies class members proudly displaying their new books.

The set for the junior play is all ready and dress rehearsal is scheduled. It won't be long now until we see "Aunt Susie Shoots the Works."

The seniors selling tickets for the Senior Roast Pork Dinner, November 15.

The students are all talking about what a good time they had at the Youth Night Hayride and dance.

Some of the teachers enjoy chaperoning the freshman skating party since they renewed their interest in skating.

That Wayne Atwell is back on the job after an absence during which he was in the hospital for an operation.

That the basketball team is getting ready for the opening game, November 20, when we play Belmont.

The cheerleaders are also practicing for the first game, when the new cheerleaders will give their first official performance.

Curtain to Rise on Junior Play November 19

By Charity Howland

Don't forget classmates, teachers, parents and friends that the curtain will rise at 8:15 p.m. November 19 on the junior class production of "Aunt Susie Shoots the Works." Admission is only $.60 for adults and $.46 for junior and senior high school students.

In the afternoon grades 1—6 will be able to see it for only a dime. That price will remain the same if they come in the evening.

This play is a hilarious comedy and mystery. The cast includes: Gay Rogers as "Aunt Susie;" Marion Milligan as Aunt Susie's niece, "Joy Herbert;" Charity Howland, starred as Joy's colored maid "Scarlet Deane;" Laura Croyle acting the part of a prudish lady lawyer by the name of Portia Lark; Betty Harris acting very meek in the part of another maid, Laura Dawson; Thelma Mickle starred as a fortune teller called Madame Zola; and Rosetta Davis as Mrs. Cynthia Dunning. The boys filling the parts are: Carl Atwell as the handsome fiance of Joy; Kent Harder acting as Omar Graves, a very confirmed bachelar; James Conde starring as a detective called Slick Conway; and "Bill" McNeil, as LaSalle Johnson, a colord servant who has an exceptionally high opinion of himself.

This play promises to chase your "blues" away and bring on a full evening of laughter. So be sure and come. The date is Monday, November 19 at 8:15 p.m., remember.

G.A.A. Elects Officers

By Ann Marvel

The Girls' Athletic Association, under the direction of Miss Olmstead, elected officers. They are president, "Mimsi" Briggs, secretary, Gay Rogers, and treasurer, Mary Ann Joyce.

This year the G.A.A. plan to play other schools in many different sports. Already they have played Greenwood in Soccer.

Kitchen Korner

By Billie Ryan

Here's something for those cool autumn evenings when every one feels like just sitting around, toasting his toes in front of a hot fire, (and everyone can help)

Cinnamon Apple Puffs

1 cup sugar
1 ½ cups of flour
1 cup water
2 tsp baking powder
½ tsp. food coloring (red)
¼ cup shortening
½ tsp salt
2 tablespoons melted butter
¾ cup milk
1 ½ lbs. tart apples (4 or 5 of medium size)
½ tsp cinnamon
2 tbsp sugar

Using sugar, water and food coloring, boil to a syrup (about 5 min.). Peel apples, slice thinly, and place in a greased (shallow 8 x 12 in) baking dish. Pour syrup over the apples.

Sift flour, baking powder and salt. Cut in shortening until mixture looks like meal. Stir in to make soft dough, the milk.

Drop 12 spoonfuls of dough on top of apples and make a dent in top of each. Place in each of these dents the mixture of butter sugar and cinnamon.

Bake 25 to 30 minutes in a hot over (450 degrees). Serves 8 to 12 people.

Juniors and Senior Enjoy Fall Festival at Alfred

Yesterday the juniors and seniors of Andover High School and Miss Doris Chandler attended a Fall Festival at Alfred, sponsored by the Agricultural School and Technical Institute, where they watched a typing contest and observed the birth of a baby chick.

The students left soon after 9 o'clock and arrived at Alfred about 9:45.

A preliminary typing contest was held at 10:30 with 57 students entered. The final contest was held at 1:30 with 25 students participating. A maximum of five errors was allowed. First prize was a portable typewriter, second prize a wrist watch, third prize a portable radio and fourth prize an $18 compact. Andover did not send any contestants. The contest was headed by E. J. Brown, who resides in Wellsville and teaches at Alfred.

Annual Senior Roast Pork Dinner Tonight

Yum! Yum! Those smells are coming from the Andover school cafeteria, where tonight commencing at 5:30 p.m. the Annual Senior Roast Pork Dinner will be served.

Chase away those "what shall I have for dinner" worries and run to the dinner where the cost is only $1.25 for adults and $.65 for children under twelve. The Seniors guarantee that all the roast pork with all its trimmings will be yours for the eating. It will continue till all are served.

Hurry, don't be late! Everybody come!

Mind Your Manners

By Mimsi Briggs

I suppose there is scarcely a person anywhere who isn't eager to have his room look as attractive as possible, who doesn't feel a little glow or pride and happiness when someone exclaims, "How lovely your room is!"

Yes, there are hundreds of people's rooms that are so unattractive and uninteresting, and lacking in personality, that no one ever exclaims over them, or says anything complimentary about them.

Are you one of the many people whose room just won't look as you want it to look? You know that something is wrong. You've tried one thing and another, and still the result is unsatisfactory. It isn't always a question of money. Very often it requires only a few dollars to transform a room. Sometimes it doesn't require any money at all. What is it then? It is a matter "of knowing the rules."

A room is pleasant or unpleasant, just as a person is, depending upon how well certain rules of taste and good manners are observed.

Rooms are really a lot like people. One room, for instance, is standoffish and stiff. It does not invite you to sit down, and you find yourself in a hurry to be off, just as you do when you meet a stiff, standoffish person.

Another room is over-sweet and wishy-washy, all softness, without varity or contrast and you find yourself bored, just as you are with a person who is too agreeable to have opinions. Still another room immediately makes you feel comfortable and at home. It may not be as pretty as some other room you have seen, but it is sincere. Like a person who is sincere, such a room wears well and its charm grows on you and you like it better, the more you see of it.

You should take great pride in your room. Keep it neat and clean, and improve it as much as you possibly can. You should ask youself, "what kind of manners does my room have?" Is it hospitable? Does it invite people to come in? If your room answers yes too all of these questions your room is quite perfect.

Pupils Receive Report Cards Today

To give the pupils and parents information concerning the progress made in school activities for the first ten weeks of school, report cards were issued to all pupils in the school at noon today.

The pupils have been asked to return the report cards signed by the parents tomorrow if possible.

Since the report cards were a day late because of the holiday Monday, the honor roll will not be released until next week.

Students and Stores To Sell Basketball Season Tickets

A student council meeting was held Friday, 8th period, for the purpose of discussing the sale of basketball season tickets. The goal set is to sell all the tickets including one to each junior and senior high school student.

The tickets will be sold at different store in town and also by the student council members.

Posters and a display to be set up in one of the store windows are going to be made to advertise the sale of the tickets. A banner will be given to the high school room which buys the most tickets. This will be judged on a percentage basis.

In My Opinion

By Ann Marvel

This week I asked the question, "In your opinion do you think that there should be dancing in the gym for about an hour or so on Friday nights after the home basketball games?"

"Rich" Davis: "It gives the players a chance to learn to dance so I am infavor of it."

Dale Green and "Dick" Nye both agreed. They said: "There would be a better crowd to the basketball games if we had these dances."

Lois Ruger: "I think it would be loads of fun."

Dolores Brown: "Yes I think it would be something different."

Roger Wright: "I disagree because the players and cheerleaders would be too tired to dance."

Irene Hurlburt: "Yes I think it is a good idea, because most of the students enjoy dancing."

Clyde Jackson agreed with her.

"Bill" Glover: "Yes it would give the players time to relax and enjoy themselves after a hard game." "Pete" Howland agreed with Bill.

I saw "Harvey" who said: "It's a swell idea but the boys probably won't participate."

Lucille Smith: "It's a good idea as long as it's Friday night and there is no school the next day."

Mary Fowler: "Yes definitely. Dances after the games would increase attendance at the games and be a good way to celebrate our victories."

Coronation of King and Queen Climaxes Hobo Dance

At the end of a very successful "Hobo Day" sponsored by the Future Homemakers of America a "Hobo Dance" was held in the school auditorium.

On the preceeding day students in grade 7-12 voted for their choice of King and Queen Hobo. When the votes were counted they were in favor of Charity Howland, F.H.A. president and Dale Green F.F.A. president. Each was crowned with an elaborate crown decorated in the colors of the F.H.A., red and white. Their thrones were also trimmed in red and white. Long tapered scepters with white crepe paper tassels were also presented to the king and queen. The dance, "The Hokey Pokey", which was danced following the ceremony was in their honor.

The decorations consisted of red and white paper posters with funny images drawn on them denoting busy Hoboes at work and play.

The chaperons were Mrs. Mary Dougherty, Mr. and Mrs. George Reil and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stackwick.
